COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook

Boyes, Karen and Watts, Graham, Developing Habits of Mind in Secondary Schools: An ASCD Action Tool, ASCD Monograph, ASCD, 2009.

Armstrong, Thomas (2016) The Power of the Adolescent Brain: Strategies for Teaching Middle and High School Students, ASCD.

Selected Readings will be used.

Course Description:

This course explores the ideologies of curriculum as germane to the practical implementation of curricular practices in secondary schools and society. The scope of curriculum shall include local, national, and global contexts, with considerations for foundational, contemporary, and future landscapes of curricular practice.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will describe human development and learning characteristics for the adolescent learner
2. Students will describe contemporary trends and issues influencing the adolescent.
3. Students will describe curriculum and instruction designed to impact the adolescent, for example, critical thinking, problem solving, creative thinking, technology, globalization.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Students should become familiar with the learning management system, Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, and Adobe Connect applications used in this course.

Students should begin by entering the online class and completing and uploading the Student Information form located under Doc Sharing, printing the course syllabus and calendar also located under Doc Sharing.

Students are expected to have a regular presence in this course by weekly logging into the course, completing the weekly discussion prompts, readings, online presentations.

Students will read the following ASCD Monograph and write a paper addressing research that supports the strategies described in the textbook addressing habits of mind with secondary school students.

Boyes, Karen and Watts, Graham, Developing Habits of Mind in Secondary Schools: An ASCD Action Tool, ASCD Monograph, ASCD, 2009.

Complete a doctoral residency project addressing habits of mind with secondary school students. Submit a project proposal for approval prior to undertaking the project.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%; B = 80%-89%; C = 70%-79%; D = 60%-69%;

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Two (2) Discussion Prompts valued at twenty-five (25) points each will be assigned each week. Students will make a weekly online powerpoint presentation based on readings, online or video reviews, valued at fifty (50) points. Students unable to make the online presentations will need to record and upload the recorded powerpoint presentation to the appropriate dropbox.
