Course Description

Culturally Responsive Leadership - The purpose of this course will be to critically examine variables of race, power, legitimacy, cultural competence, poverty, disability, ethnicity, gender, age, language, and other factors impacting learning in Texas, the United States and globally in public education systems (PK-12). Emphasis will be placed on the varied leadership styles and skills needed to provide effective leadership for 21st century schools and 21st century students.

Student Learning Outcomes: Students will be challenged and expected to:

1. Demonstrate through the satisfactory completion of all coursework an understanding of the skills and dispositions required of the Texas Principal to establish and implement a shared vision and culture of high expectations for ALL staff and students as evidenced by the school leaders' ability to leverage school culture to drive improved outcomes and create high expectations for ALL.
2. Demonstrate through the satisfactory completion of all coursework an understanding of the skills and dispositions required of the Texas Principal to promote the success of ALL students by acting with integrity and fairness and in an ethical manner by promoting awareness of learning differences, multicultural awareness, gender sensitivity, and ethnic appreciation in the campus community.
3. Demonstrate through the satisfactory completion of all coursework an understanding of the skills and dispositions required of the Texas School Principal to act with integrity, fairness and in an ethical and legal manner by applying knowledge of ethical issues affecting education; applying legal guidelines to improve learning opportunities; serving as an advocate for all children and promoting the continuous and appropriate development of ALL students.

COURSE CONTENT ALIGNMENT TO TAC PRINCIPAL STANDARDS AND SBEC TEXES COMPETENCIES

SBEC and TExES Competencies 011-- The entry-level principal knows how to provide ethical leadership by advocating for children and ensuring student access to effective educators, programs, and services.

TExES 268

DOMAIN VI — ETHICS, EQUITY, AND DIVERSITY

Competency 011: The entry-level principal knows how to provide ethical leadership by advocating for children and ensuring student access to effective educators, programs, and services.

- Implements policies and procedures that require all campus personnel to comply with the Educators' Code of Ethics (TAC Chapter 247)
- Models and promotes the highest standard of conduct, ethical principles, and integrity in decision making, actions, and behaviors
- *Advocates for all children by promoting the continuous and appropriate development of all learners in the campus community
- *Implements strategies to ensure that all students have access to effective educators and continuous opportunities to learn

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- *Promotes awareness and appreciation of diversity throughout the campus community (e.g., learning differences, multicultural awareness, gender sensitivity, and ethnic appreciation)
- *Facilitates and supports special campus programs that provide all students with quality, flexible instructional programs and services (e.g., health, guidance, and counseling programs) to meet individual student needs
- *Applies legal guidelines (e.g., in relation to students with disabilities, bilingual education, confidentiality, and discrimination) to protect the rights of students and staff and to improve learning opportunities

TAC Rule §149.2001--Principal Standards 4-School Culture

Standard 4--School Culture. The principal is responsible for establishing and implementing a shared vision and culture of high expectations for all staff and students.

(A) Knowledge and skills.

- (i) Effective culture leaders:
  - (I) leverage school culture to drive improved outcomes and create high expectations;
  - (II) establish and implement a shared vision of high achievement for all students and use that vision as the foundation for key decisions and priorities for the school;
  - (III) establish and communicate consistent expectations for staff and students, providing supportive feedback to ensure a positive campus environment;
  - (IV) focus on students' social and emotional development and help students develop resiliency and self-advocacy skills; and
  - (V) treat families as key partners to support student learning, creating structures for two-way communication and regular updates on student progress. Regular opportunities exist for both families and the community to engage with the school and participate in school functions.
- (ii) In schools with effective culture leaders, staff believe in and are inspired by the school vision and have high expectations for all students. Staff take responsibility for communicating the vision in their classrooms and for implementing behavioral expectations throughout the building, not only in their own classrooms. Teachers regularly communicate with the families of their students to provide updates on progress and actively work with families to support learning at home. Members of the broader community regularly engage with the school community.

(B) Indicators.

- (i) Shared vision of high achievement. The principal develops and implements a shared vision of high expectations for students and staff.
- (ii) Culture of high expectations. The principal establishes and monitors clear expectations for adult and student conduct and implements social and emotional supports for students.
- (iii) Intentional family and community engagement. The principal engages families and community members in student learning.
- (iv) Safe school environment. The principal creates an atmosphere of safety that encourages the social, emotional, and physical well-being of staff and students.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- (v) Discipline. The principal oversees an orderly environment, maintaining expectations for student behavior while implementing a variety of student discipline techniques to meet the needs of individual students.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Discussion Board (4) 40% of Course Grade

The discussion forums in this class are designed for master's level scholarly discussions of the application of school leadership theory to practice that should be guided by TAC Principal Standards and SBEC TExES Competencies aligned to this course. Students are expected to respond from the perspective of a novice Texas school leader guided by the TAC Standards, instructional materials provided throughout this course/program and applicable outside resources.

All discussion board posts should be supported by the readings assigned during the week or other outside readings. Remember, you must use APA citation formatting when posting (All posts). Please refer to your APA Manual. Citation of your sources are required for ALL posts. Please do not attach documents in the discussion board.

Case Study Responses (2)-School Leader Role Playing 30% of Course Grade

In this course you will be assigned (1) case study to review from the Coaching for equity: Conversations that change practice textbook that will focus on issues of race, class, culture, poverty, ethnicity, and other factors that impact learning of traditionally marginalized students. It is important that you review all artifacts provided in the case. This is your opportunity to demonstrate your understanding of how theory links to practice.

Pillar Assignment-Final Project 30% of Course Grade

Students will be provided with a case study to review and analyze. Critical analysis will be conducted as described below.

Final Project (80% of Final Project Grade)

What does the Project entail? Bambrick-Santoyo (2018) presented a detailed blueprint inclusive of seven key principles also known as levers for use by both emerging and veteran leaders to build successful schools. The activities required for this task have been designed for aspiring school leaders to demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and mindsets in providing ethical leadership by advocating for children and ensuring student access to effective educators, programs, and services.

Students will be required to review and analyze a comprehensive peer reviewed case study. At the conclusion of this project, successful students will demonstrate an understanding that an effective principal:

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- accepts and respects all cultural backgrounds, customs, traditions, values, and communication as assets.
- understands that all members of the school community must hold unwavering high expectation for all students and family.
- promotes, supports, demonstrates, and expects that equity is a school-wide belief, attainable goal, and daily practice and cultural competence is a core belief and practice.

Peer Review of Final Project (20% of Final Project Grade)

- Directions will be provided in course shell
