COURSE DESCRIPTION

Application of graphic design elements to various types of products. Brand design, visual graphics and color schemes are developed for individual products and related product lines. Students will learn how to explore and express design solutions using an array of techniques to accurately represent in form and finish a final design outcome. Topical issues within the packaging process are explored.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Gain an understanding of the difference between logo and brand
- Study and apply the elements of successful logo design
- Explore new avenues for finding graphic inspiration
- Final branding project will consist of designing one final logo, three (3) branded extension pieces based on an approved logo, a written design rationale, with all pieces put into a layout for presentation

COURSE FORMAT

This class will be a combination of assignments worked on outside of class and in-class which will be critiqued by peers as well as the instructor. Your weekly progress will be posted to the Discussions section in D2L each week. On occasion you will be asked to bring printed copies of your work to class as well. A commitment to several hours of homework is required to achieve the goals of this class and its completion. The final is a presentation of your work to your peers and instructor. You will explain the pieces in detail giving insight to the decisions you made for the client.

GRADING

Grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

- A work well above the general class level, evidence of participation in related activities outside of the classroom, thoughtful participation in classroom discussion and critique
- B work above the general class level, participation in classroom discussion and critique
- C average work, minimal requirements met
- D work below class average, lack of participation and/or poor attendance
- F inferior effort and/or work not turned in on schedule

GRADES WILL BE BASED ON:

- 14% Designers Toolbox
- 14% Logo Design
- 14% Extension 1
- 14% Extension 2
- 14% Extension 3 (multi-piece)
- 10% Brand Style Guide
- 5% Final Presentation
- 15% Weekly Deadlines & Participation

FINAL GRADES ARE NOT DEBATABLE.

ATTENDANCE

You may be absent from class twice. On your first absence you will receive an e-mail warning. On your second absence you will receive an e-mail to notify you of your standing. On your third absence you will receive an "F" in the class.

Two tardies of 20 minutes or more equals an absence. A tardy of 60 minutes equals an absence. Two late returns from break of more than 10 minutes equals one absence. If a student is OVER 10 MINUTES late for the final, a full grade will be deducted from his or her final grade. If a student does not show up for the final they automatically fail the class.

There is no distinction between excused and unexcused absences. If you are late to class, I ask that you join as quietly as possible without distracting the class.

All projects are due on the date and time given. You are responsible for turning in work on time regardless of attendance. Late work is only accepted if notified in advance, in writing. A new due date can be set at the discretion of

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. Conduct that violates generally accepted standards of academic honesty is defined as academic dishonesty.

- Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the submission of someone else's materials as one's own work.
- Scholastic dishonesty may involve one or more of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, or collusion.
- Plagiarism is the use of an author's words or ideas as if they were one's own without giving credit to the source, including, but not limited to, failure to acknowledge a direct quotation. Cite your references.
- Cheating is the willful giving or receiving of information in an unauthorized manner during an examination, illicitly obtaining examination questions in advance, copying computer or Internet files, using someone else's work for assignments as if it were one's own, or any other dishonest means of attempting to fulfill the requirements of a course.
- Collusion is intentionally aiding or attempting to aid another in an act of scholastic dishonesty, including but not limited to, providing a paper or project to another student, providing an inappropriate level of assistance, communicating answers to a classmate during an examination, removing tests or answer sheets from a test site, and allowing a classmate to copy answers.
- Academic dishonesty could result in expulsion from the University

STATEMENT ON ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ADA ELIGIBLE STUDENTS

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

STATEMENT ON STUDENT BEHAVIOR

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See current Student Guidebook).

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an on-line forum: Netiquette <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

NONDISCRIMINATION NOTICE

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in on-line courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

HANDBOOK & SAFETY

While the on-line manual covers specific issues related to the Department of Art, Texas A&M University Commerce policies must also be followed. All users of Department of Art (DOA) classrooms and facilities are required to follow the health and safety guidelines outlined in this manual at all times. Report any safety issues IMMEDIATELY to your instructor(s), Teaching Laboratory Specialist, or to the DOA Health and Safety Liaison. Each course instructor will discuss their area's inherent risks, procedures and policies to provide the student with informed consent. These will be reviewed verbally at the start of each semester.
