BSCJ WITH EMPHASIS IN LAW ENFORCEMENT LEADERSHIP DESCRIPTION

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice with an emphasis in Law Enforcement Leadership (BSCJ-CJCB) at Texas A&M University-Commerce is a 100% online, competency-based program designed specifically for first responders: law enforcement, peace officers and military personnel with existing work experience, police academy training, or other certifications. Courses are offered in an accelerated format, so students can move swiftly through material they already have mastery over, and focus more attention on topics that are new and challenging to their existing knowledge base. The courses are self-paced, so students can work according to their own schedule. Students in the BSCJ-CJCB program develop practical workplace competencies that meet current and future challenges facing first responders today.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This competency-based course considers organizational culture in the context of law enforcement organizations, examining the factors that influence culture. Students will consider the ways that culture develops within an organization and how it influences communication and police/community relations with an emphasis on the relationship between leadership development and organizational culture. Students will develop a conceptual framework for their own leadership philosophy in the context of a dynamic public safety culture.
