ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

Students will need their campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If students do not know their CWID or have forgotten their password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

The syllabus and schedule are subject to change.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If students have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact their Instructor.

Technical Support

If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here:

Interaction with Instructor Statement

The instructor is available via email, skype or Zoom. Personal concerns involving a private issue, grades, student progress, etc. should be addressed privately to the instructor via private email, zoom or telephone. Instructor's communication response time to emails will, in most instances, be within 24 - 48 hours during the work week.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to "attend class" and actively participate in all course content, assignments, discussions and projects. The professor will monitor each student's participation activity.

Late Work

Module assignments and/or projects must be submitted within established folders during the open and closing dates. Unless a student has a legitimate excuse, late work is not accepted. There are circumstances outside one's control that might impact timely submission of assignments, such as jury duty, hospitalization, or a funeral of a family member. In these instances, the student should notify the instructor as soon as possible. Assignments and/or projects not submitted by the due dates will receive a grade of zero.

Drop Course Policy

Students should take responsibility for dropping themselves from the course according to University policy should it become necessary.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as students' progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance or as soon as the changes have been made.

The syllabus and schedule are subject to change.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
