3. Develop student capability to improve human service delivery systems and promote social justice
4. Socialize students with the profession of social work

CORE COMPETENCIES

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) requires a competency-based approach to identify and assess what students demonstrate in practice. In social work, this approach involves assessing students' ability to demonstrate the competencies identified in the educational policy. Students achieve the programmatic goals listed above by demonstrating the following competencies for Advanced Generalist Practice (AGP). Students gain the programmatic goals listed above by demonstrating the following bolded competencies for Advanced Generalist Practice (AGP).

Competency 2.1.1 Identify as a professional social worker and conduct oneself accordingly.

Competency 2.1.2 Apply social work ethical principles to guide professional practice.

Student Learning Outcomes (Practice Behaviors)

Each competency (outlined above) describes the knowledge, values, skills, and cognitive and affective processes that comprise competency at the Advanced Generalist Practice (AGP) level. While content and activities of each course in the MSW curriculum covertly or overtly address each of the nine competencies, identified within each course is a set of specific practice behaviors representing observable components of one or more competencies. Content and Assessment in this course reflect the following practice behaviors:

COURSE REQUIREMENTS Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students are expected to be skilled at using and traversing D2L Brightspace, logging on to online chats software (e.g., Zoom), and have knowledge of MS Office programs (Word, PowerPoint, Excel, etc.) and other word processing software.

Instructional Methods

This class will be taught through a combination of face-to-face and virtual technology. This, however, may change depending CoVID-19 situation and University policy.

SEMINAR COURSE REQUIREMENTS

This course requires that students demonstrate effective time-management skills. Students must keep a weekly timesheet and social work journal. Each week, the seminar will cover a topic relevant to the field practicum experience. These topics are discussed in the syllabus under "Semester Schedule" at the end of this syllabus and require that each student engage in a discussion exercise or watch a lecture on that week's topics. The Field Liaison will assign the final grade based on the student's performance at the internship site and completing the requirements of this course.

GRADING SCALE

The Field Practicum is graded based on multiple outcomes. His or her Field Instructor, Task Supervisor (If required), or Field Liaison will evaluate each student and other Agency or TAMU- Commerce Faculty assigned to the student. The grading will also include seminar participation based on time spent signed in to BrightSpace, input from the Field Liaison, and timely submission of required paperwork. Each of the above-required factors will determine a letter grade for the student's performance during the semester. The Faculty Liaison shall determine the final grade.

If the final field evaluation is lower than a "C," then they will fail the course. As well,

 Failure to complete the required 160 clock hours in the practicum setting automatically constitutes a failing grade. ***

FIELD JOURNAL

The field journal is a log or journal to help you integrate your field experience and classroom learning. This journaling method will enable you to explore your reactions to the agency, your clients, and your professional development.

The journal is also a mechanism for two-way communication. It allows you to share information with me and for me to give you feedback directly. This information will not be shared with your Field Instructor (unless there is a concern and I ask your permission first).

You will not be graded on writing mechanics, but you will make an effort to write in a legible manner commensurate with a senior student in this Social Work program. The more descriptive you are, the more valuable your journal will be. However, do not write "the great American novel." Be direct and concise as possible! It would help if you had an entry for each day you are in the field. Your entries should be at least ¾ of a page long per day spent at the internship site. The following questions are intended to guide your thinking and entries in your journal:

1. Summarize the activities or tasks you participated in during the week. Does this summary reflect charges and goals established in your learning plan? Can you identify them?
2. Select a social work skill (e.g., listening, observing, record keeping, interviewing, problem-solving, confronting, facilitating a group) discussed in class. Were you satisfied with your skill level? Explain.
3. What happened during the day that was important? Challenging? Has it forced you to use creativity or judgment?
4. What were your feelings about the day's events? Were there particularly strong emotions resulting from something someone said or did?
5. What questions do you have unresolved about the day? About a client situation, agency policy, or a value dilemma
6. What did you discover about your strengths, weaknesses, skills, or personality?

READING ASSIGNMENTS

Assigned chapters are listed in the schedule, and you are expected to read the chapter assigned for the week. You will need to purchase the textbook. The textbook listed above will be the same textbook we will use during the Fall Semester.

AGENCY PRESENTATIONS

As a future social worker eager to apply your professional skills, it is essential to understand your agency, including its impact on the world and the world's impact on it. Thus, in this assignment, you are tasked with researching the agency you are assigned to for your field. Using appropriate resources, you are to examine your agency's characteristics in reference to the social work profession highlighting the services it provides.

Using 8-10 PowerPoint slides provides the following information:

1. Name, location, years in service
2. Brief history of the agency
3. Agency's goals/mission statement and comparison to your learning contract and NASW values
4. Detail description of services provided
5. Definition and description of the characteristics of the population(s) your agency serves (Eg. Low-income at-risk youth, adolescents, and adults)
6. A description of the sources of funding for your agency

7. A description of your agency's organizational structure OMHC (you could include the agency's organizational chart)
8. Include 2 peer-reviewed references

You will make your presentation or live on video, which will be made available to your classmates. Further instructions will be provided at the start of the semester.

Department or Accrediting Agency Required Content

Engagement Policy

Final Evaluation and Grade Depends on Classroom attendance and Participation

Inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both Face-to-Face classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material.

To earn a level of competency within a specific course, students must demonstrate mastery of content and active engagement.

Mastery of content areas is evidenced by successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes, and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, the Social Work Profession is built upon human interactions and building human relationships – which is defined as engagement. Engagement is defined as meaningful involvement in interactions with instructor, peers, and outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment). Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or F2F, students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities can include participation in live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a Face-to-Face course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions, and collaborating in in-group interactive projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and meet the threshold of active engagement 80% of the time during a semester. Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet for successful completion of the course.

As we enter the Fall semester, we are all working under stresses and strains related to the COVID-19 pandemic. It is imperative we communicate consistently and frequently. If for any reason, you are not able to complete assignments or actively engage in the course, you MUST reach out to your instructor and let him or her know.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the University.

Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct, and National Association of Social Workers (NASW) Code of Ethics.

University Code of Conduct is located in the Student Guide Book at <http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf> (pp 34- 66). On the University Website, under Campus Life Documents

To become aware of University policies related to students' academic and behavioral expectations, refer to the Guidebook.

Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or the Department Head. More serious offenses be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p 35)

Social Work students conduct themselves ethically and professionally. Closely linked with professional recognition is the social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards. It is imperative for professional social workers to be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain the public trust. It is essential that each social work student gain a thorough understanding of the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate in behavior, both in and out of the classroom.

Student conduct is to reflect the tenets of NASW Code of Ethics (located at <https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp>) on the NASW website:
