Tax Project

There is 1 comprehensive tax project due at the end of the course. This assignment will require you to prepare a tax return for an individual. You may use the fillable forms that are provided within Connect (see Tax Forms Tab) in order to complete the projects or complete them by hand. All supporting schedules and documentation should be attached to your project.

Examinations

Two exams will be given during the semester. The exams will cover specific chapters as we cover the material during the semester. The exams will be similar to the homework and problems assigned in class. There are no make-ups for the two exams. If you plan to miss an exam due to extenuating circumstances you must notify the professor prior to the exam to set up a time/date to take the exam.

Class Live Sessions

Weekly live sessions will be offered using Zoom to go over important concepts and review problems related to various chapters. To login in to the zoom session simply navigate to the Zoom tab within the course in D2L and select the date of the session. All zoom sessions will be held at 6:30 pm CST. Please read the chapters prior to attending the class live session so that you may benefit from the lecture and be able to ask questions on the material being discussed. A schedule of sessions will be provided the first week of the course as is also included in the syllabus.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism represents disregard for academic standards and is strictly against University policy. Plagiarized work will result in an "F" for the course and further administrative sanctions permitted under University policy. Guidelines for properly quoting another individual's writing and the proper citing of sources can be found in the APA publication Manual.

University Policies and Procedures:

Students with Disabilities: The Americans with Disabilities act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact:

Office of Student Disability Resources and Services

Ethics: Integrity is the hallmark of the accounting profession and will be stressed throughout the course. Any type of student breach of ethics, including but not limited to: illegal activity, dishonest conduct, cheating, plagiarism, or collusion, will result in failure of assignment or exam (F) and/or further academic sanction (i.e. failure of course (F), dismissal from class and/or referral to Dean of the College of Business and Technology. All students are required to read, sign and submit the Academic Honesty Policy form via the drop box the first week of class.

"All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment." (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Non-discrimination: A&M-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Other: University policy will be followed in regards to withdrawals during the semester. It is the student's responsibility to conform with the university rules relating to dropping or withdrawing from the course.

Health and Safety of Students and Faculty

The health and safety of our students, faculty and staff is of the utmost importance to everyone at Texas A&M University-Commerce. If you need medical attention and it is not an emergency, students should contact Student Health Services at 903.886.5853 to set up an appointment, and faculty and staff should contact their personal healthcare provider. Every person on campus is expected to self-monitor for symptoms of possible COVID-19 infection. These symptoms are posted on signage around campus and on the Stay Healthy Lions website at tamuc.edu/coronavirus. Students experiencing any possible COVID-19 symptoms should not attend class or labs in-person and should call Student Health Services at 903.886.5853. Faculty and staff experiencing possible COVID-19 symptoms should contact their supervisor. If you believe you have been exposed to COVID-19, students are expected to contact Student Health Services, and faculty and staff are expected to contact the Emergency Operations Center, within 24 hours of the exposure.
