Course Description

The American Community College is designed as a broad introduction to the study of community colleges. Students will gain a breadth of knowledge of the general field of community colleges through assigned readings, discussions, and research projects. Projects and presentations will give students specific knowledge of a community college and a content area of a students' choosing. The course emphasizes discussions to help students' process course content. Research projects are used to assist students to gain knowledge of specific content areas related to community colleges. Additional readings will supplement the Cohen and Brawer text.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Develop an understanding of the historical development of the community college.
- Understand the unique characteristics, purposes, and philosophical underpinnings of the community college as postsecondary institution.
- Understand the governance, financing, and administrative systems of community colleges, and the policy issues that confront it.
- Develop an understanding of the functions, services, and components of the community college including faculty, students, and programs.
- Understand current and potential future issues of confronting community colleges.
- Gain experience conducting research in a content area of interest.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

Readings in the course text as well as additional outside reading

Papers MUST conform to the requirements of the APA Style Manual.

Papers must be thoroughly edited—grades will be lowered for all writing errors.)

A minimum expectation of graduate study is the self-motivated continuing search for information/understanding.

Assignments that you complete for this course should not have been used in other courses.

Late module assignments will lose one letter grade (10%) per day late. The measurement of days ends at 11:59pm the following day of class. A new day begins at Midnight (12 am) at continues to 11:59 pm. Late assignments may be turned in via email.

GRADING

Grading Rubric: A: 220 -198 B: 197 - 176 C: 175 - 154 D: 153 - 132 F: 131 - 0

Case Study Research Paper (140 total points):

The major paper/project for the class is a case study research paper that will be a synthesis and application of community college content as it applies to actual community college settings. The paper will have two parts. The first part will contain the brief summary/synthesis of a specific community college area based on your module readings. The second part of the paper will be the description/analysis of the implementation status of a specific community college area at the community college of your choice. Module assignments are accumulative.

Module Discussion Forums (4 @ 20 points each):

We will have four discussion assignments. The sharing of feedback with your classmates is expected to strengthen your learning.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Browser support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products. Customers can still report problems and receive support for critical issues; however, D2L does not guarantee all issues will be addressed. A maintenance browser becomes officially unsupported after one year.

Note the following:

- Ensure that your browser has JavaScript and Cookies enabled.
- For desktop systems, you must have Adobe Flash Player 10.1 or greater.
- The Brightspace Support features are now optimized for production environments when using the Google Chrome browser, Apple Safari browser, Microsoft Edge browser, Microsoft Internet Explorer browser, and Mozilla Firefox browsers.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Please regularly review your MyLeo email account in case I need to send you a confidential message. Although I will reply to emails from non-university email accounts, I will only send original messages to MyLeo email accounts. Thank you for understanding my request, as I have no control over firewalls from your home or work.

Participation & Communication: I expect each of you to be active and thoughtful participants within the learning environment (D2L) and your learning community. You are to expect the same of me.

- Email is the best way to reach me as I check it daily. A reply will be sent within 48 hours, depending upon the time your message was received. However, I encourage you to post all generic questions to the Virtual Office of the course in order to avoid duplicate questions. The chances are that your peers will have the same question. While you are welcome to email me in reference to personal matters, I prefer that you ask non-confidential questions through the Virtual Office forums.
- You can meet me during my office hours by appointment (Tuesdays 9:00-1:00 & Thursdays 9:00-1:00). You can interact with me through Zoom. If you prefer to use Skype, feel free to contact me through Skype (jkim244). Or if you want to talk via phone, you may contact me via my cell phone 217-493-5739 (Please leave detailed message if I do not answer).
