At the end of this course engaged students will be able to:

- ✓ Describe an organizational environment.
- ✓ Identify different types of organizational programs and training programs.
- ✓ Describe important legal issues organizations need to address.
- ✓ Conduct a needs assessment of the people, environment, and culture of the workplace.
- ✓ Construct and implement a needs assessment.
- ✓ Evaluate the results of a needs assessment.
- ✓ Identify how to meet the legal needs of specific organizations.
- ✓ Develop a work-based learning project.
- ✓ Discuss how strategy, accountability, policy, and planning advance HRD.
- ✓ Design and evaluate deliverables for a portfolio.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Expectations and Participation:

✓ Active participation in this web-based course is expected. It is recommended that students log in into the course module weekly to stay on track with the assigned reading material, discussion post, assignment, and project.

✓ Students are expected to take an active learning approach in this course and engage in the course content to positively impact the learning experience for everyone.

✓ Complete all discussion posts, assignments, and papers by deadlines.

✓ Incorporate knowledge gained from the text, personal experiences, peers' feedback, and other resources to formulate ideas on your responses.

Students who enroll at Texas A&M University-Commerce will have access to an email account via myLeo. All instructors' emails sent from D2L (including all other university official emails) will go to students' myLeo email account, so students need to check their account regularly. Students are also encouraged to email their instructor using the myLeo email.

Course Assessments: This course is made up of a series of module assignments and assessments to assist students in achieving the course learning outcomes. In each module the students will work on combinations of readings, discussions, journal articles, videos, or self-study research.

Student Introduction: Students will create a video using the VoiceThread application located in the Table of Contents to introduce themselves to their peers. Refer to module one for further instructions. Students who have never used the VoiceThread application previously may refer to the resource in the "Creating a VoiceThread" tutorials available here:

<https://tamucommerce.voicethread.com/share/15833748/>. Follow the "Course Calendar" for the due date of the assignment.

Discussion Assignment: Students will read the assigned readings and prepare a written critique to post. As a minimum, each critique must offer a short summary of the focus and main thesis presented by the author in the article/chapter. The body of each critique will contain the student's assessment of the ideas expressed in the chapters and the reason(s) for the assessment. Critiquing the material includes stating the key ideas and evaluating them for soundness and relating them to the course objectives and content. The critique must conclude with one or two concerns the chapters did not address and/or areas that might serve as foundations for future research. Detailed instructions are available in the course module. Follow the "Course Calendar" for the due date of the assignment.

Needs Assessment: Students will conduct a knowledge and skills needs assessment of their choice utilizing the resources available in the course module. It can be an employees' knowledge and skills assessment in their workplace or another organization of their choice. Students will refer to the course module for detailed instructions on the assignment. Follow the "Course Calendar" for the due date of the assignment.

Research Paper: Students will write a research paper from a list of topics provided in the course module. The research paper will be between 3,000 – 4,000 words, utilize a minimum of 15 references and adhere to standard APA (7th ed.) guidelines. The research paper should basically constitute a literature review of an aspect of the course that caught your attention or interest. Students will type the research paper using double-spaced with Times New Roman 12-point font. The format will include 1-inch margins on the top, bottoms, and sides, and fully comply with APA (7th ed.) guidelines. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Research Presentation: Students will develop a video recording to present the research paper that they have completed in module 4. The presentation should not be longer than 10 minutes. Detailed instructions can be found in the course module. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Reaction Paper: Students will write a 500 – 750 words reaction paper to describe the lesson(s) learned from the course and how they can apply the information and content in their professional career. In the course module, students will find some question prompts to guide their writing. Follow the “Course Calendar” for the due date of the assignment.

Access and Navigation: Students will need their campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If students do not know their CWID or have forgotten their password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If students have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact the instructor.

Technical Support: If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here: <https://community.brightspace.com/support/s/contactsupport>.

Interaction with Instructor Statement: The instructor is available via email or Zoom. Personal concerns involving a private issue, grades, student progress, etc. should be addressed privately to the instructor via private email or zoom. Instructor's communication response time to emails will, in most instances, be within 24 – 48 hours during the work week.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to “attend class” and actively participate in all course content, assignments, discussions, and projects. The instructor will monitor each student's participation activity.

Late Work: Module assignments and/or projects must be submitted within established folders during the open and closing dates. Unless a student has a legitimate excuse, late work is not accepted. There are circumstances outside one's control that might impact timely submission of assignments, such as jury duty, hospitalization, or a funeral of a family member. In these instances, the student should notify the instructor as soon as possible. Assignments and/or projects not submitted by the deadlines will receive a grade of zero.

Drop Course Policy: Students should take responsibility for dropping themselves from the course according to university policy should it become necessary.

Syllabus Change Policy: The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as students' progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance or as soon as the changes have been made.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct: All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
