Course Description

This course is designed to help students examine the developments, events, and circumstances involved in the creation of the United States of America from the Colonial Era the Reconstruction Era. During the course, all students will be required to identify themes and ideas fundamental to U.S. History and evaluate critically explanations of historical events through brief writing assignments and class discussions. Critical thinking is essential for any understanding of American history; therefore, students will be asked to critically evaluate not just memorize the course materials. In this class, we will work together to develop the skills necessary for all students to be successful, but your participation and preparation is required. Last, enjoy the class!

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

The minimal technical skills required for this course include using the learning management system, university email, Microsoft Word and PowerPoint.

Instructional Methods

Instructional / Methods / Activities Assessments

The course requires a combination of writing assignments and discussion boards. ALL WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS MUST BE submitted by 11:59 pm each Saturday of the term (No Late Assignment will be accepted for full credit). The instructional week will from Sunday to Saturday. The late assignment will be assessed a five-point penalty for each day that it is late. Students are expected to read the required readings to participate fully in the discussion board discussions.

Participation

The students are required to participate in class discussion and respond in a timely manner. Because this class is online, discussion is the primary way for students to discuss with their classmates the ideas, concepts, and conclusions they have reached in the study of United States history. Additionally, all correspondence and responses to discussion questions must be respectful and civil.

Discussion Board

During the course, there will be one weekly discussion board question based on assigned readings from Give Me Liberty! and Voices of Freedom due Wednesday each week of the course. The discussion board will remain open from Thursday through Wednesday every week. All students must post an answer to the discussion, include an original question based on the discussion at the end of their initial response, and respond to the responses of two different classmates. To receive credit for the assignment, each student must respond to the discussion question with a 150-word post and respond to at least two classmate's questions with at least 100-word responses each that directly addresses their response. If you do not participate in all parts of each discussion board thread, you will not receive full credit for your response.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Discussion Board Standards

To create and preserve a course atmosphere that nurtures an engaging learning environment, all students share the responsibility of creating and encouraging a positive learning environment. Students are expected to conduct themselves in manner that does not disrupt teaching or learning and follow these standards: Discussion board discussion should be civilized and respectful to everyone and relevant to the topic we are discussing. Discussion forums are meant to allow multiple viewpoints and understandings. This environment cannot exist if we do not respect each other and our differences

Discussion Board Post (Quantity)

- You are required to post one original response for each topic.
- The post should be 150 words that directly address the discussion question, not merely describing the historical events or person in the discussion prompt. Each response should indicate awareness of historical context and importance.
- The first post should include an original question based on the discussion at the end of the response.
- You must respond to at least two of your classmate's questions and your response must be at least 100 words each that directly address your classmate's response and question.

Discussion Board Post (Quality)

- Your posts must demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of the topic being discussed.
- You must demonstrate connections between lecture materials, textbook content, and discussion.
- You should relate discussion responses to material covered earlier in the course to give your responses clarity and context.
- Your post should go beyond reciting facts, but it should examine the material at a critical level and include information and facts from Foner, ed., Voices of Freedom, not Foner, Give Me Liberty!, that support your response. Information from Foner, Give Me Liberty! will not count toward the quality of the response.

Discussion Board (Timeliness)

- You must provide at least two days for your classmates to respond, so it is incumbent on each student to post and respond as soon as possible to give each person an opportunity to participate. If you do not post a response with an ample amount of time for your classmates to respond, you will not receive credit for your discussion board post.
- You will be given seven days to respond to each topic except for the first discussion board that will be due on day three of the course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

A successful student must read and review the course syllabus, check the course online, respond to discussion board questions in a timely manner, and submit assignments on time.

Required Reading: All students will be required to read and to discuss the assigned books. The books are available for purchase at the campus bookstore, internet websites (Amazon), and at a variety of regional retailers.

TURNITIN.COM: All typed assignments, exams, papers, and reviews must be uploaded to the appropriate listing of the course's dropbox. Turn-It-In will only read writing submissions with a doc or docx extension. If you submit a PDF, Turn-It-In can't read it; therefore, the paper will not be graded. Each assignment dropbox automatically uploads the work to turnitin.com for plagiarism checking. This is a requirement for the course, and students will receive a zero if they have not completed this process and submitted a paper that Turn-It-In can evaluate.

Writing Assignments

All writing assignments must be typed in 12 pt. New Times Roman font, doubled spaced, stapled and paginated with a 1" margin. Additionally, all assignments must include, on the first page, your name, assignment, my name, course number, and date. Students must submit an electronic copy to dropbox that turnitin.com can analyze. If the student does not, the assignment will not be graded and receive a zero.

Primary Source Writing Assignments

All essays submitted for a grade are required to follow the instructions for submitting writing assignments. Also, each primary source assignment will have specific instructions posted in D2L.
