After taking the pretest, students are encouraged to bookmark, download, or save materials provided via the internet for use during quizzes, assignments, and projects in this class.

ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Bachelor of Applied Arts and Sciences in Organizational Leadership (ORGL) degree is a competency-based program that prepares innovative leaders for employment in an increasingly technological and global society. This program provides opportunities for students to receive credit for what they know and can do already, allows them to accelerate completion of their degree, and — because it is fully online — students are able to plan their study schedule around the rest of their day to complete the coursework.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course focuses on the principles and practice of management in an organizational setting. The course is designed to provide students with the knowledge and skills that can be used to analyze organizational processes and address challenges inherent in managing organizations, operations, and projects. Management theory is applied to practical problems in planning, organizing, leading, and controlling workplace situations and business activities. Prerequisites: ORGL 3331 or ORGL 3331 concurrent enrollment and ORGL 3332 or ORGL 3332 concurrent enrollment.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Completion of this course provides the student with the knowledge to:

1. Describe the leadership role at all levels of an organization within fundamental concepts and effective leadership principles.
2. Explain the significance of how historical theories have shaped the practice of leading organizations.

3. Analyze challenges facing modern organizations.
4. Appraise the activities necessary for the planning functions within all levels of an organization.
5. Apply the organizing functions at all levels of an organization.
6. Analyze internal and external environments to determine an organization's condition and select a strategy for improvement.

REGULAR AND SUBSTANTIVE COURSE INTERACTION

As a general guide, students enrolled in a three-semester hour course should spend one hour engaged in instructional activities and two to three hours on out-of-class work per week in a traditional semester. Students are expected to double this effort of engagement given that this course is being delivered in a seven-week term. Educational activities in this course are designed to ensure regular and substantive interaction between students and faculty to ensure that students are able to demonstrate competency.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed: Students will need reliable computer and internet access for this course. Students must be able to effectively use myLeo email, myLeo Online D2L, and Microsoft Office.

Instructional Methods: This course is an online course. To be successful in this course, all content and course modules should be read and reviewed. This course contains graded post-tests at the end of each module. All post-tests and culminating project must be completed. Please contact the instructor by email for any assistance.

Email your instructor as soon as you complete an assignment so the instructor can access and grade your work.

Instructor Interactions: Announcements will be sent out regularly to make students aware of upcoming deadlines and other information that you may need. Students may send the instructor an email message through the classroom. Instructors typically respond to emails within 24 hours and grade assignments within 72 hours. The instructor reads through the discussion boards and add to the discussion as is needed to clarify students' learning. The pre-tests contain true/false, multiple-choice, and matching questions that are automatically graded by D2L. Post-tests contain true/false, multiple choice, matching, essay, and short answer questions. Post-tests and project assignments are typically graded within 72 hours. To facilitate faster grading, email your instructor as soon as you complete your pre-test so the instructor can access D2L and grade your work.

Please do not wait until the last minute to ask questions about an assignment. I love answering student questions, and am happy to help you. If you wait until the day or hours before an assignment is due to ask a question, I may not have time to respond or I may be asleep if it is due at 11:59 PM. For this reason, I request that project assignments be submitted by Tuesday evening before the Friday due date so I have time to review and provide feedback and you have time to make changes if needed.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course: To be successful in this course, all content and course modules should be read and reviewed. This course contains graded post-tests at the end of each module. All post-tests and culminating project must be completed. Please contact the instructor by email for any assistance.

ASSESSMENT

Students must achieve 80% or higher for each module post-test and culminating project to demonstrate competency and pass the course.

Module Pre-tests

The purpose of the module pre-tests is to provide a baseline understanding of your knowledge of the competencies of each module. The required pre-test should be taken before you begin studying the module's materials. If you do not make at least 80% on the pre-test, you should read and watch the course content and complete the module assignments to prepare for the module post-test and culminating project assignment(s).

Content	Description	Time	Value	Notes
Pre-tests	This is the initial assessment in each module to provide a baseline understanding of your knowledge of the module content and competencies. The pre-test for each module must be taken before the content for the module is available.	80 minutes	100 points	Required before completing any other work in the module. The grade on the pre-test does not count in the final grade for this course.

Learning Objective Essays

The learning objective essays are brief, short-answer items that you submit for the instructor's review. Your response should synthesize and apply the concepts, theories, processes, etc. that are introduced in the module. As essays are submitted to the instructor, they do not require comments or discussion with other students in the course. Discussions and essays use a rubric to assess essay submissions and are not required and are not included in the calculation of the final grade.

Note: While your personal experience is important, I am assessing your understanding of the course content. I expect that you incorporate information from all assigned readings with appropriate APA citations to submit a fully developed answer. If your discussion is primarily a story from your experiences without integration of the course content, I do not have a way to assess that you know the content.

Learning Objective Quizzes

A brief assessment at the end of each module that is intended to emphasize key concepts, theories, processes, etc., introduced in the Learning Objective Module.

Course Module Post-tests (Required)

The post-tests are an end-of-module comprehensive quiz that assesses your knowledge and understanding of the major concepts and theories in the module. A score of 80% or higher is required on each post-test to demonstrate competency.
