COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Course Components and Assignments – There will be a calendar in D2L that will help guide you through this course. If you have any questions about dates, the calendar is right!

Summarized below are the main components of the course:

1. Read Professional Materials. You will read and reflect on current social, political, and educational issues that impact K- 12 education. The main reading materials for the course will come from professional articles, conference papers, US Department of Education documents, excerpts from professional books, and sources obtained via theinternet.

2. Discuss issues with classmates. A course about controversial issues would not be complete without some serious conversation with peers.

3. Position Statement. You will summarize your learning about the controversies, discuss the positions you now hold, how those position have been influenced through the course, and your action plan for influencing peers and leadership. This position statement may be made delivered via one of three possible venues: a written composition, Power Point slide presentation, or video presentation of some sort.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

Total points corresponding to the final letter grades

- A = 451- 500 Points
- B = 401- 450 Points
- C = 351- 400 Points
- D = 301- 350 Points
- F = 300 & > Points

Weights of the assessments in the calculation of the final letter grade.

Example:

Assignments	20%
Discussions	20%
Midterm Exam	30%
Final Exam	30%
TOTAL	100%
