Interaction with Instructor Statement

I have an “open door” policy, meaning if my door is open, please come talk to me. Email is usually the best way to communicate with me. I will usually answer within 24 hours during the week. If you email me on the Weekend, I most likely won’t get back to you until Monday.

Communication is crucial during this time. I understand that life can sneak up on us, but you will need to communicate as soon as you can. I will not look kindly on emails received at the end of the semester asking for an extension after I haven’t heard from you.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

1. Students are expected to be in class ON TIME, ready to participate. This applies to face-to-face as well as online. I respect your time, please respect mine.
2. An “excused absence” is defined as a documented university approved activity. The instructor reserves the right to change the content or format of all make-up work. The student is responsible for making up missed work.
If the absence is for one of the reasons listed below, you will be able to make up the work (within two business days or at the instructor’s convenience) To reserve this right, you MUST provide written documentation on the day of your return to class (a copy that I can keep). Please notify me ahead of time if you know you will be absent.
 - Participation in an activity appearing on the University’s authorized activity list.
 - Death or major illness in a student’s immediate family.
 - Illness of a dependent family member
 - Participation in legal proceedings or administrative procedures that require a student’s presence.
 - Religious Holy Day
 - Illness that is too severe or contagious for the student to attend class (to be determined by Health Center or off campus physician)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Required participation in military duty
3. Any student missing an exam, test, or assignment without prior arrangement will receive a score of zero.
 4. You MUST check your e-mail (LEO) regularly in case I need to communicate with you. I will not e-mail you junk, and I request that you do the same for me.
 5. While you are in class, I expect you to participate. That means that you should a) actively prepare by reading the assigned materials, b) TALK (ask and answer questions), c) bring your notes and textbook, d) bring your ideas, and e) refrain from anything that is not class-related during class (newspaper, reading for another class, text messages, etc). Students who choose to disrupt class by not participating will be asked to leave. CELL PHONES AND ALL OTHER ELECTRONIC DEVICES MUST BE TURNED OFF AND OUT OF SIGHT. DUE DATES: The due dates listed for assignments are the LAST chance to submit them. Please turn in your work early. I DO NOT accept late assignments.
 6. If you have a question or concern, TALK to me. I am here to help. If you need to reach me and I am not in my office, e-mail me.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
