The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Course Description

ENG 1302 - GLB/US-Written Argument/Research Hours: 3

This course provides students with advanced training in communication skills emphasizing the writing and reading of argumentative prose and adapting writing to alternate audiences. Students will write weekly, including such texts as journals, reading responses, summaries of argumentative texts, argumentative papers, and longer papers integrating secondary research.

Activities include close reading of sample texts, both student and professional. Some sections will emphasize special topics in both reading and writing. Prerequisites: Grade of C or better in English 1301 or advanced placement or CLEP.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to analyze, evaluate, or solve problems when given a set of circumstances, data, texts, or art.
2. In written, oral, and/or visual communication, A&M-Commerce students will communicate in a manner appropriate to audience and occasion, with an evident message and organizational structure.
3. Students will be able to work together toward a shared purpose relevant to the course or discipline with a sense of shared responsibility for meeting that purpose.
4. Students will understand and practice academic honesty.
5. Students will be able to view themselves as engaged citizens within an interconnected and diverse world.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You will need:

- Flash drive or other means (dropbox.com account, for example) of storing digital versions of the essays and other written material you generate (always, always keep a backup of everything you turn in!)
- A valid, working email address that you check often (everyday). I will email the class through D2L, so be sure that email is the one you check.
- Regular internet access
- Access to a computer with a word processing program and a printer (assignments must be typed uploaded through D2L in a doc or docx file)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Instructional Methods

This class is a web enhanced course, which means that your class will meet face-to-face with readings through Top Hat. You will use D2L to submit assignments and interact in discussions with other students.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students are expected to participate in Top Hat every week, possibly multiple occasions. Students are expected to complete readings and assignments before they attend class each week. Students should check their email daily and log into D2L at a minimum of 2-3 times a week. To succeed in this course, you should also complete all the required readings and activities in Top Hat.
