INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

Instructor: Mrs. Tina Lancaster

Office Hours: Online, 10 a.m. – 8 p.m. Monday-Saturday

Phone: (903)-669-6221 Text only and only in emergencies

University Email Address: Tina.Lancaster@tamuc.edu

Preferred Form of Communication: Email

Communication Response Time: 4 -12 hours

Required Text

Materials – Textbooks, Readings, Supplementary Readings

Required Textbook:

Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th Edition); ISBN: 9781433832161.

For information on APA formatting (which is required in this course), visit here : Purdue Owl

Course Description

The purpose of this course is to investigate the techniques of the research process as applied to topics of your choosing. Experience is gained in defining a research problem. Also, an analysis of pertinent literature on your topic is conducted. Clear and concise writing is emphasized while learning to use the APA style of writing.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Define your motivation.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

2. Choose and identify the various components of the APA style and paper elements and format. Use precise grammar, punctuation, and style.
3. Demonstrate clear and concise writing by organizing a research paper, using acceptable grammar and punctuation, and APA formatting.
4. Discuss and identify plagiarism in all its forms.
5. Create a review of the literature about your career topic using scholarly sources.
6. Create an APA formatted annotated reference list using scholarly sources.
7. Create a problem statement that addresses your aspiring career interests.
8. Discuss the scientific research method through an analysis process using descriptive research methods involving a researched question/problem.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students must become proficient in using D2L Brightspace and should be able to use Microsoft Word. Students should know how to rename files and attach files to an email and the appropriate drop box for file submission.

Instructional Methods

Instructional methods in this course involve writing assignments that will build toward the final research paper. There are also discussions in which the student will participate. The student must introduce themselves to their classmates and show understanding and acceptance of the Academic Honesty policy.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students are expected to log into the course at least three times per week and check their emails. Announcements and emails are posted on Mondays and may come periodically. Also, even though the homework isn't due until Saturday nights at midnight, get your questions in early and often.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

A = 90%-100%
B = 80%-89%
C = 70%-79%
D = 60%-69%
F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Grading, Key Content Areas, and Assignments: Grades in BGS 402 are based upon a student's work in three key content areas: quality, consistency, and quantity. These content areas reflect the course objectives and the core communication skills students are expected to learn. Each content area represents a fixed percentage of the course's content. Since this is a senior-level course, grading will include consideration of content, grammar, spelling, style, and organization. Extra credit will not be assigned.

Research Paper 40%
Module Assignments 30%
Discussions 25%
Quizzes 5%
Total 100%

Research Paper

The research paper is worth 40% of your final grade. Students must use APA Style formatting and citation. Additional format instructions are provided, along with assignment details. Assignments are expected no later than 11:59 p.m. (CST) on the due date. The research topic will be selected by you and approved by the instructor.

Submitting papers: All written assignments/research papers must be submitted to the appropriate folder within D2L and be produced thus:

- 12-point, Arial or Times New Roman type, and double-spaced, with one-inch margins.
- Always use block left format with jagged right margins.
- Always use tabs to indent the beginning of paragraphs.
- Proofread carefully. Grammar, punctuation, spelling, and style count heavily in this course. You should get the free software Grammarly and check your papers against it.
- All assignments in this class will be automatically submitted to Turn-It-In for plagiarism check. Your research paper and all projects must have a 10% or less similarity index.

Module Assignments

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- There will be module assignments given most weeks. These are worth a total of 30% of your grade.
- The module assignment will consist of a case study, research of relevant topics, or other written assignments.
- As a general guideline, your grade on this portion will be a function of quality, quantity, and consistency.
- The Rubric for Writing Assignments and the Research paper can also be found in D2L within the assignments or at Grades, Class Progress.

Discussion Boards

The discussion board is worth 25% of your grade. The preferred pattern for the discussion activity is that it becomes a conversation, not necessarily a series of posts and replies.

- The format for grading the discussions will apply to both semester-long and other discussions (including the section/readings).
- Grading will include the number of postings and replies, quality of postings and replies, number and variety of topics discussed in discussions, frequency and regularity of discussions, and timeliness.
- Students are expected to share their thoughts, responses, and/or ideas to learn from each other's opinions.
- Initial postings and replies are not considered differently in the grading process. Although some professors may set minimum numbers or "appropriate" numbers of postings and replies, students in this class should be aware that the number of postings and replies is only one factor that goes into the grading.
- Grading of the discussions tends to be somewhat cumulative, in that a few really outstanding posts or replies may not provide many points. On the other hand, many low-quality posts do not add much value to the discussions.
- Students should also be aware that copying things off the internet and posting it should include an appropriate reference.
- Also remember that simply making this kind of posting without making personal observations is not a quality post.
- Duplicated posts that someone else has already made and replies that are essentially "me too" or "I agree" without further discussion are not quality postings. It is the responsibility of each student to keep up with the scheduled readings and discussions for the chapters.
- Please also note that heavy activity during the last few days cannot compensate for a lack of participation during the term. Plan to participate throughout the entire semester. Once the chapter discussions have been closed, they will not be re-opened and will be in read-only format.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- The Rubric for Discussion posts can be found within D2L within the assignments or at Grades, Class Progress.

Quizzes

There are 2 quizzes, one on the Syllabus and one over References that are 5% of your grade.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I strongly prefer email as the standard form of communication in this class. I expect your emails to be professionally prepared. For example:

Dear Mrs. Lancaster, Hello, Greetings, Good Morning/Afternoon, etc.

Your message.

Sincerely, Thank you, Regards, etc.

Your full name

- Remember to professionally compose your e-mail messages with proper grammar, spelling, and a professional tone.
- Properly addressed and signed e-mails will be replied to within 4-12 hours Monday-Saturday, 10-8.
- If a face-to-face conference is required between the student and the instructor virtually, an appointment must be made several days in advance by the student.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
