COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

This course is designed to provide an overview of financial statement analysis with a focus on global entrepreneurship. It presents a framework for analyzing business opportunities and risks through the use of financial statement analysis, ratio analysis, and trend analysis and valuation methods. Prerequisite ACCT 2302 and a minimum of 55-semester hours credit.

Course Objectives

Your achievement level for each objective will be measured by your success in completing the homework, project, quizzes and examinations. The successful student, upon completion of this course, will be expected to have achieved the following as a result of this course:

- Understand financial statements, both from a historical viewpoint and the relationship between the Income Statement, the Balance Sheet and the Statement of Cash Flows.
- Be able to analyze financial statements and identify the strengths and weaknesses of firms using the techniques such as ratio analysis, common size analysis and cash flows.

2022

- Understand and interpret the differences between US GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) financial statements.
- Exposure to global entrepreneurship financial environment.

What does Inclusive Access mean? MyLeo/ D2L opens the first day of classes. You should receive an email about Inclusive Access for this course. When you register to take this class, you are automatically charged for access and the e-text (unless you opt out). You do not have to then purchase the e-textbook or access because they are included in your tuition and fees. You will login to myBusinessCourse (MBC) from the Content area of D2L. The directions are shown below:

1. From within your course in D2L, find and launch any MBC assignments or resources.
2. If it is your first time using MBC and you do not have an account, one will automatically be created for you. If you already have an account, you will be prompted to login.
3. You will be taken to a screen with several purchase options. Under the Enter Access Code option, enter the access code you've been provided in your email and click Submit.

You will then be sent to the assignment or resource. This completes the course enrollment/integration process. For any assistance, email mbsupport@cambridgepub.com or submit a ticket for the quickest response.
