Course Description

Introduction to Theatre gives students an overview of what makes theatre. Students learn about not just the types of the drama that exists but the many and varied roles to be found within the theatre.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify and differentiate genres and styles of theatre, placing them in their historical context
2. Discuss and analyze how theatrical performance elements come together
3. Have an understanding of how theatre is important and can be used
4. Complete a basic play analysis
5. Learn to think and write analytically about a production.
6. Gain an understanding of the global and historical influence of theatre on society.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

This class will utilize a combination of papers, presentations and quizzes for assessment. Access to d2l and document writing/slide making programs is needed.

Instructional Methods

This course will be taught in person utilizing d2l

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

In addition to the book, there will handouts made available on d2l as needed over the course of the semester. It is expected that you read them. All assignments will be available through d2l and that is also where I expect assignments to be turned in. If you experience difficulty with that, please let me know. Any changes to the calendar will be announced in class and updated on d2l. Check d2l regularly for assignments and updates.

Attendance Policy

You are allowed 3 unexcused absences for the semester. After that every unexcused absence will result in a full letter grade drop from your final grade. If you have 7 unexcused absences, you will fail this course. If you are more than 10 minutes late that counts as tardy and for every 2 times tardy = unexcused absence.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Assignments:

Quizzes (4)	25 pts (ea)
Script Analysis paper	30 pts
“Things to Think about” (10)	5 pts (ea)
Dramatic Structure project	10 pts
Acting Project	10 pts
Production Concept group project	50 pts
Design group project	50 pts
Production Response papers (2)	20 pts (ea)
Final Paper	100 pts

Total Points: 500 pts

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

Assessments

You will be graded on the timeliness and thoroughness of your work. In group projects you will be graded on your contribution as well as the project as a whole, it is possible for people within in a group to get different grades. Papers should be proofread and done in essay format. I do not require MLA formatting (but feel free to use it if you want) but your papers should be clear and well structured. Remember this is a theatre class so feel free to get creative on your projects.

A grade of “A” will not be assigned to any individual who has not completed ALL outside of class assignments. (i.e. Attendance at both departmental productions) regardless of average.

Assignments that are not turned in physically during class, must be turned in via d2l unless otherwise stated.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

LMS Requirements:

LMS Browser Support:

https://documentation.brightspace.com/EN/brightspace/requirements/all/browser_support.htm

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

Interaction with Instructor Statement:

If at any time during this course you are in need of further explanation or should need to speak with me about the course or its outcomes, please reach out to me. I am always available by email. Please communicate, I can't help if I don't know there's an issue or a question.

Email Policy:

Before sending me an email with a general course-specific question, review your syllabus/look at the handouts/check myLeo Online/ask a classmate first. If your question has already been addressed in one of those places, then you will have the answer you need. If your question does not exist, please feel free to email me.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

When emailing me: Please make your emails clear and concise, written with proper grammar in order to assure my earliest attention. In addition, please follow some common “email etiquette” procedures in order to keep our electronic communication effective and efficient. Specifically:

- Write a relevant subject line (e.g., “Intro question,” or “THE 1310 meeting request”)
- Address me by name (ie: "Dear Professor Williams" or "Hi Andrea" or just "Andrea")
- Bonus: "meaningless niceties" are never a bad idea!
- Concisely state what it is you need. If it can't be communicated in a concise manner, perhaps request an appointment. If requesting an appointment, give me times that you are available in the initial email!!! It helps things go faster if I have your availability to compare to mine.
- Use a "sign-off" ("Thank you" is always good) and sign your name.

Not following these guidelines potentially puts you at the bottom of my list for response time.

Center's crisis assessment services by calling 903-886-5145. For more information regarding Counseling Center events and confidential services, please visit www.tamuc.edu/counsel

The Writing Center

The Writing Center offers writers free, one-on-one assistance. We currently only offer 45min, online sessions that writers can book from our website: www.tamuc.edu/writing-center

We welcome all writers, majors, and disciplines—undergraduate and graduate students alike (faculty and staff too!). Research shows that all workers benefit from sharing their work with a focused reader. The Writing Center staff is trained to support writers in any stage of the writing process (from the blank page to polishing sentences), and we work with writers to verbalize writing goals and to stay on track with larger writing projects. We work with any form of writing (academic and nonacademic). The writers with whom we work usually bring projects like important emails, weekly writing assignments, midterm and final essays, and theses and dissertations. Contact us with any questions here: writingcenter@tamuc.edu
