3. Explain Collegial Theory.
4. Explain Bureaucratic Theory.
5. Explain Political Theory.
6. Explain Organized Anarchical-Cybernetic.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, using presentation and graphics programs, ability to watch and listen to video presentations or view through assistive technologies.

Instructional Methods

On the left-hand side of the course, you will see a table of contents view of the course. Before beginning with the content in each module, there is a pre-test available for you to take. This test must be completed before you can continue in the course. This test will help us in several ways, as it provides a potential learning path based on your current knowledge of the subject matter, it allows us to evaluate the effectiveness of our content, and it provides you with a look at what test questions will be like for this course. If you don't know the answer to a question, please do not hesitate to leave it blank. This test will not count for or against you.

The content for this course is divided into 6 modules. Each content module specifically addresses a desired learning outcome for the course.

Please start with the first module CLO1. In each learning outcome, you will find a reading and additional resources for the outcome along with an assessment called a posttest.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

It is highly recommended that you log into your course early. To be successful in this course, all content and course modules should be read and reviewed. All assignments and quizzes (both graded and not graded) should be completed. Don't attempt to cram the course in the last week as you may not have the time needed to successfully study, retain, and complete the course. Please contact the instructor by email for any assistance.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

ASSESSMENT

Students must achieve 80% or higher for the both the 6 Post Tests and Culminating Project to demonstrate competency and meet the course requirements to pass. Students will not be allowed to view any of the assessment materials before or after they have been taken.

Dropping the Class

If you need to adjust your schedule by dropping this course, please contact your Academic Coach at orgladvicing@tamuc.edu. Please be aware that dropping your course may impact your financial aid, veterans and military benefits, three peat, 45-hour, and 30-hour rules. It is the student's responsibility to drop the course. If you fail to officially drop the class, a failing grade will be assigned. You may not drop a class due to a pending academic misconduct charge.

Student Grades

The standard grading system used in all ORGL courses are the grades of A, B, and F. No incomplete grades are granted unless under special circumstances. Students who do not achieve a performance grade of at least 80% in any or all competencies associated with a particular course will receive the “F” grade. The earliest that students can repeat courses that they have failed will be in the subsequent TAB term.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Withdrawal

Students wishing to withdraw from all courses before the end of a term for which they are registered must clear their records by filing an application for voluntary withdrawal.

Please contact your ORGL Academic Coach at orgladvising@tamuc.edu.

This action must be taken by the date stated in the Academic Calendar as the last day to withdraw. Students who withdraws from the university is subject to the conditions outlined in the section regarding Scholastic Probation or Suspension in the university catalog. It is the students’ responsibility to withdraw from classes if they do not plan to attend during the semester in they have enrolled. Students have one year from the first day of a semester to appeal a withdrawal refund. Courses withdrawn are counted as attempted hours and count towards the three-peat, 45-hour and 30-hour rules and financial aid and veterans and military benefits.

Course Calendar for Current Term

Due to the nature of this competency-based course, time is tied to the dates of the current term. All coursework must be completed by 5:00pm on the last day of the term. Failure to submit all coursework by the last day of the term may result in earning a non-passing grade.
