Course Description

This course will introduce the basic concepts of letterpress printing through demonstrations and hands-on experience. Course content will address letterpress history, type anatomy, terminology, formal, and aesthetic issues, tools, materials of the trade, and safety issues. Thumbnail ideation, writing, typesetting, and linoleum carving will be explored.

Course Objectives

- Develop a working knowledge of type, presses, and equipment within the studio environment, including preparing for printing, cleaning, general safety, and upkeep.
- Learn to print proficiently
- Consider the historical, present, and future applications of the letterpress
- Combine text and image, and discover new ways to unite the two
- Develop original ideas into fully realized concepts.

Course Structure

The class will be a combination of lectures, class demonstrations, printing, and critiques. A basic understanding of typography and design will play a crucial role in your letterpress experience. Explore new concept possibilities using limited color to accomplish dramatic letterpress prints.

- Type Distribution/cleanup (points will be taken off final grade if a student does not follow policy)
- All type must be redistributed as each project is completed.
- Efficient redistribution will allow other students to use the type.
- Distributing furniture, leading, and rags in their proper areas.
- Cleaning ink off presses, tables, and ink knives will maintain a good working pressroom.
- 10 Points will be taken off your assignment grade if the type is not distributed back into type cases after printing is complete.

Attendance

- Attendance will be taken at the start of class
- You may be absent from class twice.
- In your first absence, you will receive an email warning, which is copied to Lee Hackett.
- In your second absence, you will receive an email, and Lee Hackett will contact you.
- In your third absence, you will receive an F in the class. If you wish to drop the class, you will receive a drop/fail.
- Two tardies of 15 minutes or more equal one absence. Absent is absent.
- A tardy of 60 minutes equals an absence.
- Two late returns from a break of more than 10 minutes equal one absence.
- If a student is over 10 minutes late for the final, a full grade will be deducted from his or her final grade.
- If a student does not show up for the final, they automatically fail the class.
- There is no distinction between excused and unexcused absences.

Critiques

Critiques are a valuable part of learning a skill and developing as a creative individual.

Critiques provide an opportunity for the class to gather and create intelligent discussion around the work produced and further the process. Students have varying backgrounds and experiences: this is an asset to the class. No student should feel they do not have the knowledge to make a meaningful comment. Concerns of design and layout depend heavily on intuition and impulse: everyone's contributions are valuable.

Class Policy

Violations of class policy with respect to the unauthorized use of computers, cell-phones, ear-buds, or other technology will result in point deductions from the current assignment. The Instructor reserves the right to alter this policy if class disruptions become an on-going problem and class distraction.

Grading Scale

A 90 to 100 points: Excellent (superior effort and results above and beyond)

B 80 to 89 points: Good (significant effort and hard work)

C 70 to 79 points: Average (minimal class requirements met)

F 50 to 59 points: Poor (inferior work and attitude)

In addition to the project, quiz, and test grades, students' final grade will also be based on critique participation and application, work ethic, and attitude. All exercises and projects are given with weekly steps to be accomplished by the beginning of the next class meeting. Meeting these mini-deadlines is part of the overall assignment and plays a major role in project grades. All work is due on the assigned date. Late work is accepted at the instructors discretion. You are responsible for turning in work on time, regardless of attendance. Late projects will be accepted with one letter grade off for everyday assignment is late.

Grade Evaluation

Your final grade will be based on an average of all assignments, attendance, and participation. The participation grade is based on dedication to methodology application, conceptual thinking ability, craftsmanship, daily class involvement, contributions to your classmates, and both a desire and capacity to show progress and meet deadlines from week to week. Grades will be discussed individually by email for a Zoom appointment only—not in a class.

Words To-The-Wise

Show up, be committed to your work, and immerse yourself in the process. It is your show to enjoy! If you fall behind, run like hell to catch up! Also, please email for a Zoom appointment. I am here to help.
