COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is intended to be taken at the end of a student's college career, and uses design thinking to address the 'wicked problem' of designing your life and career. The course employs a design thinking approach to help students from any major develop a constructive and effective approach to finding and designing their vocation after A&M Commerce and prepares students to articulate their marketable skills to future employers. Topics include the integration of work and worldviews, the realities of engaging the workplace, and practices that support vocation formation throughout your life. The capstone assignment is the creation of an action plan following your A&M – Commerce graduation and draws upon skills, knowledge, and key assignments.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Completion of this course provides the student with the knowledge to:

- Understand Design Thinking and appropriate mindsets/dispositions and how it differs from traditional thinking
- Understand the principles of design thinking, and be able to explain how they can use this technique to better understand the challenges their work faces due to technological disruption
- Design a plan that will guide their career and academic decision making
- Evaluate how to design their lives in the changing landscape of work
- Uncover the importance of skill development throughout their well-designed lives and the need to continue lifelong learning
- Use design thinking to demonstrate a growth mindset that is an essential foundation for life design.
- Practice the skills of self-management and wayfinding to chart a personal life and career path.
- Integrate educational and career planning strategies to design a successful post-A&M Commerce life
- Apply proven story-telling techniques to persuade and influence others

Regular and Substantive Course Interaction

As a general guide, students enrolled in a three semester hour course should spend one hour engaged in instructional activities and two to three hours on out-of-class work per week in a semester. Educational activities in this course are designed to ensure regular and substantive interaction between students and faculty.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed: Students will need reliable computer and internet access for this course. Students must be able to effectively use myLeo email, myLeo Online D2L, and Microsoft Office.

Instructional Methods: This course is an online course. To be successful in this course, all content and course modules should be read and reviewed. All assignments and quizzes (both graded and not graded) mustbe completed. Please contact the instructor by email for any assistance.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course: To be successful in this course, all content and course modules should be read and reviewed. All assignments and quizzes (both graded and not graded)should be completed. Please contact the instructor by email for any assistance.

ASSESSMENT

- Participation (10%)
- Life Design Activities (20%)
- Career Research Activities (20%)
- Odyssey Plan and Presentation (20%)
- Career Capstone Project (30%)

Participation (10%): Your active, informed participation is essential for doing well in this course and designing your life. Essentially, your perspective is essential to the conversation. Therefore, your preparation and participation in each week's assignments is important, specifically, completing assigned readings before the class and completing weekly journal prompts. For full participation credit, students should complete the initial introduction post, mid semester check in post, the wrap up discussion post in week 16, and complete thoughtful journal entries (weekly prompts in D2L).

Life Design Activities (20%): Students will complete a variety of life design activities throughout the semester – detailed instructions and worksheets are available in D2L.

- Worldview/Workview (10%): Students will create a Worldview and a Workview. Students will be challenged to recognize that connecting the dots between who you are, what you do, and what you believe, increases coherence and meaning making.
- Energy Management Worksheet (10%): Students will experience a shift in mindset from time management to energymanagement. There is worksheet and exercise to be completed to evaluate energy and determine themes foractionable change.

Career Research Activities (20%): Research is an invaluable step in the career development process. To determine if a profession is right for you, begin by learning about it and how it fits YOU. Details for each assignment are available in D2L.

- Complete You Science Assessment (10%) This information will not only help you succeed in this class, but will also serve as a tool for getting to know yourself, verbalizing your strengths and weaknesses, and help you make informed career decisions.
- Complete an Appointment with Your Career Coach (10%): After you have completed your YouScience assessment, please visit https://tamuc.joinhandshake.com to schedule an appointment with your career coach for this course, Chelse Woods by week 4. These appointments should be completed after the YouScience and worldview/workview, weeks 5-16. She will go over strategies for you to implement based on your discussed goals such as resume, interview, etc. After the course is over, please continue to use her as a resource for your job search!

NOTE: It is very important that you schedule and complete this appointment far in advance of the deadline. There are 70 students and one career coach. You have the entire semester to complete this appointment, but you MUST schedule this in a timely matter. Do not expect to wait until the last week to schedule and complete the appointment, it will not be possible.

Odyssey Plan & Presentation (20%): Students will create three alternative five-year plans using the worksheets provided in class. Students will be required to provide each alternative a descriptive six-word title and write down three questions that arise out of each version of the student. On the worksheet, student will complete a gauge on the dashboard – ranking each alternative for resources, likability, confidence, and coherence. Once you complete the worksheet, you will record and submit a 3-5 minute video presentation to D2L explaining your odyssey plan. To get full credit, you must submit the completed PDF and submit a link to your video uploaded to YouTube. Do not upload a video, it will be too large to download – you must share a YouTube link.

Career Capstone Project (30%): Students will complete a Career Capstone Project, which is a "passion" project that requires students to demonstrate their interest(s) in learning about a particular topic. This could potentially come out of the Odyssey Plan or another element of the course. Ideally, the focus would be in an area of interest and anticipate pursuing after graduation (a specific role, industry, or organization, a hobby, additional education, a side gig, or research project, etc.). Through the Career Capstone Project students should focus on a topic they are interested in learning, discovering, researching more. Students will present their by video (recorded) to the professor in Week #15. More details to come later in the semester as we progress through the components of the course. Students will present their project by video uploaded to YouTube by December 10 at 11:59 PM.
