COURSE INFORMATION & REQUIREMENTS

Required Textbook:

Sadker, D.M., Zittleman, K. & Koch, M. (2022). Teachers, schools, and society: A brief introduction to education, 6th edition. New York: McGraw Hill Education. ISBN 9781264169917

Additional journal articles, case studies, internet research and supplemental materials will be used in this course. Reliable internet access is required.

Course Description

This global survey course explores a national and international view of the culture of schooling and classrooms from the perspective of current political, social, and familial issues affecting schooling and classrooms. Students will participate in early field experiences with varied and diverse student populations designed to analyze the learning environment and the human experiences of teachers and learners. Ten clock hours of Early Field Experiences are required.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the conclusion of the course, the students will demonstrate the following outcomes:

(QEP SLO1) Students will demonstrate knowledge of the interconnectedness of global dynamics. Students will be able to identify current issues in American and Global Education Systems with particular attention to education structure and student diversities (e.g. governance, curriculum, language, gender, socioeconomic, ethnic and academics).

(QEP SLO2) Students will be able to apply knowledge of the interconnectedness of global dynamics. Students will be active and engaged participants in discussions by analyzing, construction/creating, and evaluating information presented within the assignments, class activities and EFE field-experiences.

(QEP SLO3) Students will be able to view themselves as engaged citizens with an interconnected and diverse world. Students will examine current issues in education with attention to language, gender, socioeconomic, ethnic and disability-based academic diversity and equity.

(SLO4) Students will examine and analyze the culture of schooling and classrooms from the perspective of current political, social, and familial issues impacting schooling and classrooms.

(SLO5) Students will participate in 10 hours of early field-experience in diverse classrooms to gain an understanding of the roles of elementary, middle and high school teachers. Students will communicate effectively, utilizing written and oral expression, throughout the course.

GOALS: The goals of this class include, but are not limited to, providing a critical overview of historical, intellectual, social, and political foundations of American education.

- 1. Emphasis on analysis of differing views regarding the relationship of public schools and American society.
- 2. Explore current controversies that will impact schools and teachers in the years ahead.
- 3. Provide an enriched integrated pre-service experience that allows for active recruitment and support of undergraduate students interested in careers in teaching.
- 4. Provide ample opportunities for students to engage in written and oral reflection as it relates to teaching.
- 5. Examine current issues in education with attention to language, gender, socioeconomic, ethnic, and disability-based academic diversity and equity.
- 6. This course is designed to be taught through activities and quizzes, as well as face-to-face lectures and class discussion.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Early Field Experience: Participate in an Early Field Experience (EFE), maintain the agreed-upon schedule, complete a minimum of 10 clock hours of documented time observing in the assigned school, be evaluated on the work experiences by the assigned mentor teacher in the school. Concerns about student's participation and professionalism in field experience will be filed as a "Student Departmental Concern." If a student plans to pursue teacher certification, completion of the (3) required TK20 EFE forms (Log Sheet, Evaluation Form, EFE Reflection) is required prior to EDCI/SED 300.

- 2. Written Assignments: Completion of all written assignments and projects (i.e. assigned Journal Articles and Case Studies) should exhibit professionalism in appearance and content at an acceptable level of scholarship. All written assignments are to be typed in a legible 12 pt. font with 1" margins are expected to exhibit professional quality. Written assignments should demonstrate mastery of organizing, structuring and editing (for all aspects of mechanics). Excessive grammar, spelling and vocabulary errors will result in a reduction of the score according to grading rubric and at the instructor's discretion.
- 3. Assignments are expected to be completed and turned in on time according to the schedule in the syllabus. Whether each session is viewed synchronously or asynchronously, assignments are to be submitted on time according to the schedule in the syllabus, listed as the end of each recorded session and discussed during the synchronously recorded session.
- 4. Attendance & Participation: Grade points will be awarded for successful class attendance and participation, including, but not limited to, the following: on time attendance, verbal and written contributions to assigned session discussion topics; active participation in (synchronous and asynchronous) group activities; sharing of ideas, theories, and concepts related to the teaching profession and other session or content related topics.
- 5. "EDUCATION AROUND THE WORLD" Project. Students will research the educational system of selected foreign country. Specific content and submission details about this project will be presented during the first class session.

If you are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here: https://community.brightspace.com/support/s/contactsupport

Texas A&M University-Commerce provides students technical support. The student help desk may be reached by the following means 24 hours a day, seven days a week. If you encounter a technical issue that prevents you from completing an assignment, copy me the work order from the Tech Department.

Best Phone Support: Tech support available 24/7 by a techie located in Commerce, Texas – call 903-468-6000.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Questions about the Course, Assignments, Syllabus, etc.

Contact me via email any time 24/7. I check my email Monday through Friday (8:00-4:00) and often on the weekends. If you email me and do not receive a response from me after 24 office hours (not including the weekend), please resend the email. If you do not receive a response after another day, or have an urgent need to speak with me, call the EDCI Office (903-886-5307) and ask an office manager to contact me.

Office Hours

I am available most days to meet with students either at my office in Commerce, at the MPLX Center or by phone. Email me to schedule an appointment.

Email Correspondence

All emails from me (and the University) will be sent to your University Email account, not your work or home email. Therefore, it is important to check your Leo Mail every day. Always send emails to me at the university email address provided on the first page.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Late Work

Specific dates and times are established for every assignment. Each student is allowed ONE late submitted assignment, which will receive a maximum 70% grade. No assignments will be accepted or graded after 5 days late. Students should contact the instructor for possible extenuating circumstances, especially in the case of university excused absences. Work cannot be made up and extra work is not allowed to compensate for missing or later work.

Technology Failure is not an automatic approved excuse for submitting late work. If you experience a technology issue you should: 1. Contact the Tech Support Team and send a copy of the "trouble ticket" to the instructor to document your efforts; 2. Email the assignment directly to the instructor before the due date to document your efforts.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures
