PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Bachelor of Applied Arts and Sciences in Organizational Leadership (ORGL) degree is a competency-based program that prepares innovative leaders for employment in an increasingly technological and global society. This program provides opportunities for students to receive credit for what they know and can do already, allows them to accelerate completion of their degree, and — because it is fully online — students are able to plan their study schedule around the rest of their day to complete the coursework.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course requires an analysis, synthesis, and evaluation of the student's knowledge and skills including academic performance, teamwork experience, and workplace experience. Using current information, technology and resources the student will construct a professional profile. Students use problem-solving skills to analyze, evaluate and recommend an implementation plan addressing an organizational leadership issue or problem. A main factor in evaluating student performance is the input from multiple stakeholders including employers and faculty. Prerequisites: ORGL 4352 or ORGL 4352 concurrent enrollment.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

REGULAR AND SUBSTANTIVE COURSE INTERACTION

As a general guide, students enrolled in a three semester hour course should spend one hour engaged in instructional activities and two to three hours on out-of-class work per week in a traditional semester. Students are expected to double this effort of engagement given that this course is being delivered in a seven-week term. Educational activities in this course are designed to ensure regular and substantive interaction between students and faculty to ensure that students are able to demonstrate competency.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed: Students must be skilled in the use of D2L, Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, ePortfolio creation, and video capturing and editing software. Broadband internet access and connection, computer speakers, headphone, microphone, and webcam or camera are required.

Instructional Methods: This course is an online course. To be successful in this course, all content and rubrics should be reviewed. All assignments must be completed. Please contact me by email for any assistance.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course: It is your responsibility to log in the course website regularly (several times each week), to comply with all the course requirements and to engage actively in all required class activities. Read carefully the expectations for required writing assignments, engage in good formal writing, and follow the APA style of referencing.
