Instructional Methods

The following methods of instruction will be utilized for this course.

- Assigned readings from the required textbook.
- Lectures and discussions during assigned meeting times.
- Weekly course work on myLeo Online.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

All students are expected to comply with the following requirements.

- All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment.
- Students are expected to regularly check the course site for announcements and updates.
- Students are expected to complete all course readings for each section of the course.
- During class, all electronic devices should be put away and remain that way until class is over. This includes laptops, cell phones, tablets, iPods/iPads, audio and video recording devices, etc. The only exception is students who have accommodation letters allowing them to use such devices.
- Students are expected to review any supplementary materials that the instructor provides, such as web links, news stories, etc.
- Students are expected to attend class regularly. Consistent with University policies and procedures, students who are absent for 5 class meetings will be administratively dropped from the class. There will be no “excused” absences aside for official university
- activities or documented medical issues. Students are required to provide documentation by the next
- class meeting to receive an excused absence.
- Students are expected to complete all assigned writing assignments, quizzes, class activities, and exams.
- Students are expected to exhibit respect toward their fellow classmates and the instructor. This includes treating everyone with courtesy and esteem in all correspondence for the course. For more information on this subject, please see the Student Guidebook.
- Texas A&M University-Commerce does not tolerate academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism (the appropriation or stealing of the ideas or words of another and passing them off as one's own), cheating on exams or other course assignments, collusion (the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing course assignments or taking exams), and abuse (destruction, defacing, or removal) of resource material. For this course, academic dishonesty includes cheating, plagiarism, collusion and/or falsifying academic work. In particular, any student who passes passing off work as their own that was actually written by someone else, without proper citation or attribution, will be considered to have committed plagiarism. This holds true whether material comes from the textbook, another publication, an Internet source, or another student. Any act of academic dishonesty on an exam or quiz will result in a score of 0 for the exam or quiz. Any act of academic dishonesty on a writing assignment will result in a 0 for the entire semester's writing assignment grade. Instances of academic dishonesty may also be referred to the appropriate offices on campus and may result in significant administrative penalties.

- Students will comply with all myLeo Online/D2L technical requirements in terms of training, computer access, & Internet access.

GRADING

Course grades are computed using the following weighted assignments.

Grade Breakdown	%
Weekly Quizzes	10%
Class Activities	15%
Exam One	15%
Exam Two	15%
Exam Three	15%
Exam Four	15%
Final Exam	15%
Final Grade	100%

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 89.5%-100%

B = 79.5%-89.4%

C = 69.5%-79.4%

D = 59.5%-69.4%

F = 59.4% or Below

Assessments

Quizzes

Students will take in-class quizzes each week that cover the assigned readings, lecture, as well as current events. These quizzes will not be announced and will be taken at the beginning of class. Missed quizzes cannot be made up, however, the instructor will automatically drop the lowest five quiz grades.

Class activities

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Each week, students will complete an activity/assignment over the material for the week. These assignments will vary in terms of format, however, they could include: brief simulations, responding to prompts, or quizzes over provided videos/news stories. The amount of time per activity will vary depending on the type. The dates and times for these assignments are at the end of the syllabus. These activities will be completed online through D2L.

Exams

Students will take four exams and one final, comprehensive exam. All exams will include material from the assigned readings. These exams will have 50 multiple-choice questions and students will have 50 minutes to complete each exam. The times and dates for the exams are listed at the end of the syllabus.

Extra Credit "Syllabus Quiz"

Students can earn up to a three bonus points toward their final averages by taking a syllabus quiz. This quiz is designed to ensure that students familiarize themselves with the requirements and expectations of the syllabus. The quiz will be available on D2L/myLeo online and it cannot be made up. The dates and times for this quiz is listed at the end of the syllabus.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If students have any questions or difficulties with the course material, please contact the instructor.

Technical Support

If students are having technical difficulty with any part of Brightspace, please contact Brightspace Technical Support at 1-877-325-7778. Other support options can be found here:

<https://community.brightspace.com/support/s/contactsupport>

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Students should rely upon e-mail, office hours, and course announcements as the primary means of communication with the instructor. However, if students have a question about a grade, they will need to meet with the instructor in person. Also, please note that the system will only send e-mail to a student's official University Email address, so students will need to check that account regularly. During normal business hours on M-F, students can expect an email reply within 24 hours. On weekends, students can expect an email replay within 48 hours.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

- Make-up exams: If a student misses an exam, that student will receive a grade of 0 for the exam. Make-up exams will only be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Any request for a make-up exam must be made in writing and include documentation explaining why the absence was legitimate. Such a request must be received within 3 calendar days of the missed exam date, unless the student is physically unable to submit such a request. Legitimate reasons may include illness severe enough to require professional treatment, death of an immediate family member, participation in University activities, and legal obligations. Students who miss any exam because they forgot about the exam dates/times will not receive a make-up exam. Please note, these reasons do not guarantee that a make-up exam will be given. Make-up exams will be exclusively essay format.
- Incompletes will be granted completely at the discretion of the instructor and only be granted in the case of serious medical illness or other serious, unavoidable circumstances and only if the students has completed at least 70% of the course work. Incompletes must be finished within two weeks of the end of the semester.

- Students must complete the “Personal Responsibility Statement” quiz available on the course site. Students who fail to do so by the time the first exam is graded will be administratively dropped from the course.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
