Course starts: October 31, 2022

Last Day of Acceleration: December 2, 2022

Course ends: December 16, 2022 @ 5pm

Course Description

This competency-based course considers what the future of policing in the United States looks like from a police leadership perspective, emphasizing the context that includes the evolution of American policing; drivers of change in police institutions; police organizational dynamics; and specific issues widely accepted as having the potential to greatly impact police organizations of the future.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to explain the historical development of American policing.
2. Students will be able to articulate the drivers of change in American policing, and speak to what shifts may occur in law enforcement as a result of those changes.
3. Students will be able to identify the ways that police leaders should prepare for the future of law enforcement.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

4. Students will be able to think critically about the ways that police organizations will adapt to drivers of change and future events.

REGULAR AND SUBSTANTIVE COURSE INTERACTION

As a general guide, students enrolled in a three semester hour course should spend one hour engaged in instructional activities and two to three hours on out-of-class work per week in a traditional semester. Students are expected to double this effort of engagement given that this course is being delivered in a seven-week term. Educational activities in this course are designed to ensure regular and substantive interaction between students and faculty to ensure that students are able to demonstrate competency.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students will need a reliable computer and internet access for this course. Specific capabilities of the computer are discussed later in the syllabus. Students are required to demonstrate proficiency in my Leo navigation in order to participate in this course. Fluency in programs like Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Excel may further contribute to student success in this course.

Instructional Methods

This course is 100% online. As such, communication and assignment submission is all done electronically. Power points, resources, assignments and tests are all located within the online course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students are encouraged to thoroughly read all assignments and view relevant videos as directed. Critical thinking exercises will help students with practical application of the concepts presented, and students are encouraged to read through them after completing each module.

Students are encouraged to e-mail the professor as they encounter concepts that after reading and utilizing course resources (supplemental documents, Youtube videos, etc.), still do not understand.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- F = 70% or Below

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

*Students are required to achieve and 80% or higher on a posttest in each competency and on the project in order to pass the course.

Assessments

Pretest and Posttest for Each Module

The purpose of the pretests is to provide a baseline understanding of your knowledge in each module.

The Posttest is an assessment of your knowledge of the material required for the module. If you score less than 80% you will have an opportunity to review the material and re-take the module Posttest. You will have up to three attempts at passing each competency. If you have not passed the module in three attempts, you will receive a letter grade of an F. In order to demonstrate competency, a score of 80% or higher is required.

Assignments

There will be several responsive assignments requiring you to apply knowledge presented in the modules. There will be 4 written assignments in the course along with the Project Paper. These assignments will be graded and will be worth 10% of the final calculated grade for the course. They are 10 points each.

Project

You will also have a project in this course. The project will be based on expanding your knowledge and applying the information you have learned in a practical exercise. A score of 80% or higher is required.

Final Grade Calculation

The final grade will be assigned by taking 45% of the posttest, 45% of the project, and 10% of the 4 written assignments.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Participation from students regularly is encouraged. There are optional critical thinking exercises that are not required. Students are encouraged to participate in those, and to research organizational culture in practice, as regular exposure to course content will result in a better chance at successful completion of the course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The only required assignments in this course are the pre-test, the posttest, and the project. While pre-tests are required to pass the course, the grade does not count toward your final grade. A grade of 80% or higher is required on a posttest. You have 3 attempts to achieve a grade of 80% or higher. Aside from the tests, there is one required course project that each student is required to participate in and an 80% or higher is required.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
