International Business Finance
Fall 2022

Instructor: Dr. Celine Hoe
Office: BA 314G
Office Hours: By appointment
E-mail: Celine.Hoe@tamuc.edu
Preferred Form of Communication: Email

All emails must contain “FIN 471 01W” in the subject line and be sent from your myLeo accounts. The syllabus is tentative and subject to change as the semester progresses. It is the students’ responsibility to check school emails, and announcements as well as updates on D2L frequently. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR KEEPING UP IN THIS COURSE.

I. Course Description

This course provides an introduction to financial management of international corporations. The course prepares students for the fundamental knowledge of international business finance, including such topics as the international monetary system, balance of payments, foreign exchange markets, international parity conditions, foreign exchange exposure and management, foreign direct investment, international venture capital and entrepreneurship, global financing, and international cost of capital and capital budgeting. The course will emphasize the link between theory and applications.

II. Prerequisite

FIN 304, Financial Management, or consent of instructor.

III. Course Objectives

This course has been selected as a Global Course – tied to the Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP). Texas A&M University-Commerce QEP seeks to prepare students for an interconnected world.

In relation to the QEP, students completing this course will be able to demonstrate knowledge of the interconnectedness of global dynamics (issues, trends, processes, and systems). Students will be able to apply knowledge of the interconnectedness of global dynamics, with ability to measure financial decisions in a risk/return environment as related to global business.

The short report in this course will be utilized to assess the QEP student learning outcomes for each student. Students are responsible to upload a copy of the project to their ePortfolio in ManeSync.

Course Learning Objectives address COB Student Learning Objective 5: Students will be analytical problem solvers in business environments.

IV. Required Course Materials

1. International Financial Management, 12th edition, Jeff Madura, South-Western Cengage Learning (ISBN: 9781133947837)

V. Recommended Reading

Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, The Economist

VI. Policies and Procedures

The class will be conducted in an online format. You will have access to a recorded lecture through D2L, which goes over the main topics of the chapter covered in PowerPoint Lectures along with some questions. There will be Review and Q&A sessions held via Zoom from 3:00 PM to 4:15 PM every other week on Wednesday which briefly review main topics discussed and provide you with the opportunity to ask any question that you may have about course materials. Attendance is optional and live sessions are recorded for you to watch at any time after it is completed. However, it is strongly recommended that you work through the recorded webinars as soon after the regularly scheduled session as possible, so you will not miss any important information disseminated. Class Progress will be checked from time to time to monitor your utilization of course materials provided.

Email Use

The best way to communicate with me outside of class is by email. Please put your course number “FIN471 01W” in the subject. You should expect a response to your emails within 48 hours during regular business hours on weekdays. You have to send emails from your myLeo accounts.

Exams

There will be three exams, including two midterm exams and a MANDATORY FINAL exam.

There will be no makeup exams. If you have to miss an exam because of an excusable and verifiable reason, you must contact me before the exam. Failing to do so or failing to provide documentation of the reason for absence from a medical doctor or TAMU-Commerce official will result in a grade of zero on the exam. If I were to excuse you from an interim exam, the weight of the missed exam will be added to the weight of the final exam. Regardless of the excuse, if you miss two exams you will automatically fail the class.

Please mark exam dates on your calendar. “Forgetting”, being “out of town” and/or “confused” about the time that an exam must be taken is not an acceptable excuse for missing it.

Short Report

You will have to write a short report about current news items dealing with international financial developments/management. These can be based on clippings from newspapers, magazines, newsletters, or professional journals. Your written report should summarize the news item and then relate it to some concept, practice, or problem in international finance and management, including your own observations on its implications.

The written report is to be typed using a 12-point font; the pages should be numbered and have 1-inch margins on all sides. It should be double-spaced and should not exceed 4 pages (including references). The similarity with other articles/sources checked by “Turn-It-In” cannot be more than 20%. If it does, the grade of ZERO will be assigned.

It’ll be due Through D2L by 11:59PM, November 18, 2022, CST. An unexcused late assignment will not be accepted and a zero grade will be assigned.

1. Your selection of an appropriate article will constitute a portion of your grade. The article should be current news items dealing with international financial developments. The article should be from a credible source, and should be cited in a recognized format (APA, MLA, Turabian, etc). Make sure to include the url as part of the citation.
2. The first paragraph should summarize and explain the issue discussed in the article.
3. The second paragraph will discuss the chosen issue/event impacted by the techniques and knowledge learned from international financial management. Consider multiple factors as you discuss the nature of global interdependence from a financial management perspective. You should follow the citation guideline stated in (1) if you use any information from other sources.
4. The third paragraph should discuss the global implications on any of the various people groups who are or will be impacted by of the issue/event chosen.

Following table summarizes the grading rubric for the short report:

Criteria	1 (Unsatisfactory)	2 (Emerging)	3 (Proficient)	4 (Exemplary)
Article Selection	The article is not from a credible source and does not fit the requirements.	The article is from a credible source, but does not fit the requirements.	The article is from a credible source, and fits the requirements.	The article is from a credible source, fits the requirements, and covers a broad aspect of international financial development.
Citation	Failed to cite the article	Only pasted the url	Cited the article, but not using accepted format	Correct citation
Application of techniques/Knowledge	Student cannot identify any of the techniques and knowledge learned from the course affecting the issue/event studied.	Student can identify some of the techniques and knowledge learned from the course affecting the issue/event studied, but cannot demonstrate a clear impact.	Student can identify some of the techniques and knowledge learned from the course affecting the issue/event studied, and demonstrate a clear impact.	Student can identify all of the techniques and knowledge learned from the course affecting the issue/event studied, and demonstrate a clear impact.
Global Implications	Student does not discuss/understand global implications and interdependence of any of the various people groups impacted.	Student attempts to discuss global implications and interdependence of any of the various people groups impacted, but some confusion is apparent.	Student discusses global implications and interdependence of any of the various people groups impacted, and presents a basic level of analysis using techniques and knowledge learned through the course.	Student discusses global implications and interdependence of any of the various people groups impacted, and presents a thorough analysis using techniques and knowledge learned through the course.

D2L Assignments

There will be assignments posted in D2L every week or every other week. They will be multiple choice questions with 3 attempts allowed for each assignment.

You will receive a notification email when each assignment is posted. You will complete each assignment through D2L by the due date. The purpose of the assignments is to help you review the materials learned every week or every other week.

There would be no extension to the assignment deadline unless with official documents from a medical doctor or TAMU-Commerce official and such documents need to be provided before assignment answers are released.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

VIII. Other Information

- ◆ SINCE this is an online course, you need to follow your school emails very regularly. You will have regular announcements and uploads.
- ◆ You shall start studying early in the course, well before the test/exam, to give yourself a head start in learning the material. When you don't understand course material, ask questions either in class, during office hours or by email. You will not get good grades if you wait until a week or couple of days before the test/exam to start studying.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Browser support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products. Customers can still report problems and receive support for critical issues; however, D2L does not guarantee all issues will be addressed. A maintenance browser becomes officially unsupported after one year.

Note the following:

- Ensure that your browser has JavaScript and Cookies enabled.
- For desktop systems, you must have Adobe Flash Player 10.1 or greater.
- The Brightspace Support features are now optimized for production environments when using the Google Chrome browser, Apple Safari browser, Microsoft Edge browser, Microsoft Internet Explorer browser, and Mozilla Firefox browsers.
