Course Description

This class prepares the student for writing their exhibition statements and proposals proposal, through a thorough examination of writing, research practices, and exposure to important theoretical issues and significant texts in the field. This course examines how approaches to understanding and interpreting art have evolved over time. A variety of research methods such as iconography, formalism, social history, biography, as well as feminist, Marxist, and post-modern theories will be explored. This course will examine the historical context in which these options emerged as well as the implications of adopting a particular approach.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. To recognize, assess, and employ art historical methodology
2. To learn to read critically to determine an author's approach or biases
3. To learn the basic tenets of scholarly writing, citing sources, and thesis paper organization and development
4. To perform specialized research using the methods discussed in class, resulting in an exhibition statement/proposal

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using D2L Brightspace learning management system, Microsoft Word

Course Instruction Methods and Student Expectations:

This course will require both reading material located in the D2L classroom and WKly reading assignments from the course textbooks. WKly attendance with active participation is required via Zoom. Assessments include an exam and a research project culminating in an exhibition thesis and class presentation.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%		A = 360- 400 Points
B = 80%-89%		B = 320- 359 Points
C = 70%-79%	OR	C = 280- 321 Points

Course Policies:

Course Deadlines

All assignments due to D2L by 11:59 of date indicated on the course schedule.

Deadlines are firm. No extensions or exceptions will be granted except in cases of extreme hardship or medical necessity. Documentation will be required. Professional work demands do not constitute extreme hardship exemptions.

Advanced Library Research Course: Required

This is a great resource that familiarizes you with the TAMCU library. Please complete if you have done so for a prior course. It is accessed via D2L under "All Courses".

Active Class Participation:

Students are expected to attend class WKly via Zoom, having done the assigned reading and prepared to critically evaluate the theoretical implications of the readings, the contribution of the readings to the theme under discussion, and the relationship between a given WK's readings and previous WKs' themes. The success of each WK's discussion depends on the preparation of all the class participants. Posting questions to the D2L discussion board prior to class meetings constitutes part of participation grade.

Attendance: You may be absent from class twice. There is no distinction between excused and unexcused absences. On your third absence you will receive an "F" in the class. Two tardies of 20 minutes or more equals an absence. A tardy of 60 minutes equals an absence.

Art Historical Methodologies Exam: (75 points) – Nov. 22

Exhibition Statement Project: (225 points)

- Description/Abstract/Thesis Statement: 25 points, due Sept. 27
- Annotated Bibliography: 50 points, due Oct. 11
- Outline: 25 points, due Nov. 1
- Exhibition Statement Draft: 50 points, due Nov. 15
- Paper Reviews: 25 points, due Dec. 28
- Exhibition Statement Final Draft: 50 points, due Dec. 13

Academic dishonesty:

There is zero tolerance for academic dishonesty in this class. Be sure that you understand what constitutes academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty is a severe transgression in college and may result in referral to the Dean of Students, dismissal from class, expulsion from the University, and a failing grade.

See <http://www.tamuc.edu/academics/graduateSchool/GradStudAcadHonesty.aspx>

Classroom Etiquette:

Please be mindful and respectful of others in the classroom. In all communication including email and discussions, please adhere to the following guidelines:

- Use of profanity, slang or racial slurs is NOT permitted
- Be mindful of tone, keep it professional and respectful of others
- Avoid jokes, as they may not come across as such by others

Any behavior that is deemed disruptive by the instructor may result in a student being asked to leave class, and continued disruptions may also result in expulsion from the class.
