Instructor: Dr. Lirong Liu

Office Phone: 903-886-5684

Office Hours: by appointment

Email: Lirong.Liu@tamuc.edu

- The best way to contact me is by email. Please put the course number 'ECO 595' in the subject. Missing course number in the subject can seriously delay the response time.
- Please consult your syllabus and the course page in D2L to see if your questions/concerns are addressed before sending me an email. Please allow up to 24 hours during weekdays and 48 hours during weekend for me to reply. If you do not hear from me within that time frame, you can resend your email.
- Class meets in person on the Dallas campus every Monday 6:15 PM. For ECO 595. 81B: attendance in person on Mondays is mandatory. For ECO 595 02W: attending in person on Mondays is welcomed; attending zoom meetings are highly recommended if time permits. Reviewing the recording within the week is required if not attending live or in person.
- You are expected to join zoom regularly as long as time permits. If you cannot attend the live lecture, you should review the recordings within the week. Continuously failing to keep up with the announcements and updates included in emails or lectures can be a sign of lack of class participation.
- You are expected to check university email and D2L announcement on a daily basis to keep up with class.
- Access to a regular PC with fully functional Excel and PowerPoint is required. Students using a Mac is responsible for finding compatible software packages that can perform tasks that can be accomplished using Excel on a PC and can record voice-over presentations that can be played on a PC.
- Course schedule at the end of the syllabus is temporary and subject to changes. Announcements, updates and other information will be released either during live lectures or via email.

GRADING

Course grading is based on the following assignments:

- (a) Academic Honesty Policy (1%): you must complete this assignment within the first week of the semester any assignment can be graded
- (b) Homework (24%)
- (c) Midterm Exam on statistics (30%)
- (d) Business Research Proposal (40%)
- (e) Class participation (5%)

Late submission will be accepted with valid documentation and at the discretion of the instructor. A 10% penalty will be imposed for each of the days that the submission is late. Extensions are at the discretion of the instructor and will be given only with valid documents. Extensions may include a late penalty. Documents submitted after the grades being posted will NOT be considered.

All files submitted must be in word or ppt format depending on the type of the assignments. No pdf files are allowed with the exception for Academic Honesty Policy submission. The name of all files (including the final) must have the following format: lastname_firstname_assignmentname for individual submissions and lastname1_lastname2_lastname3 for group submissions. Failure to do so will result in penalty in grading.

All assignment must be formally submitted to the assignment folder. Email or any other formats of submissions will NOT be graded.

For writing assignments, you should keep the following assumptions in mind:

1. Assume you have been asked by a senior VP of the company to prepare research documents.
2. The VP is interested in numerous and varied issues facing the company but does not have the time to keep up with them all. You will be required to present your findings in varied formats listed above
3. You are a senior researcher for the company and your opinion is valued and sought after.
4. Spelling and grammar matter to her and you should follow standard writing conventions. She expects a succinct format that is business like.

A. Business Research Proposal (group work)

You will pick a research topic of your own and write an abbreviated version of a research proposal and record a voice-over presentation. More details are provided in proposal guideline.

Each student will choose partners (up to three group members in each group) for this assignment, and indicate his or her preference on D2L (Communication Tools->Group) by the deadline shown in the course schedule on the last page. Students failed to do so will be required to work individually.

The choice of working individually is to allow those who have inflexible schedules or who prefer to work individually to be able to do so. Note that assignments will be graded with the same requirement and standard regardless of the group/individual choice.

B. Homework Assignments

Homework on statistics will be assigned and graded upon completion. This is individual work and each student is required to submit his or her own work.

C. Class participation

Hybrid (81B): Attending classes on Mondays in person regularly is required.

Online (02W, 03W): Student should make effort to attend the live lecture if possible or listen to the recording within the same week the recordings are posted.

Hybrid and online: Students are required keep up with class materials and announcement made during live lectures and via emails, including changes to due dates or assignments. Participation will be evaluated based on attendance (attend or listen to lectures), preparedness (read all articles and materials), and engagement (respectful participation in class reflections on subject matter and applications), and awareness (keep up with all updates and announcement).

Additional notes:

- At the discretion of the instructor, students may be required to work with the writing center to have their writing assignments proofread before submission.
- All students are required to watch the videos on giving effective presentations before preparing the voice-over presentations.

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% B = 80%-89% C = 70%-79%
D = 60%-69% F = 59% or Below
