Course Description

Focuses on formal and informal assessment strategies to be used by teachers in K-12. Topics will include reliability, validity, bias, performance assessment, portfolios, affective assessment, standardized test score interpretation, and formative assessment. Particular attention will be given to practical applications of the assessment of learners within a particular classroom setting and curricular context.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes (Should be measurable; observable; use action verbs)

1. Discuss global and classroom assessment issues
2. Evaluate the reliability, validity, and fairness of assessments.
3. Synthesize research regarding an issue in assessment.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

This course requires the use of D2L and word processing skills.

Instructional Methods

In this Online course, students can expect to learn through readings, student-centered activities, and discussion.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students should log in to D2L daily (this is a 10 day course, so you don't have time to get behind). Be sure to review directions for all assignments and discussions and review rubrics. Sometimes discussions require multiple parts, so be sure to read through those directions. Review feedback and rubric scores each time an assignment or discussion has been graded.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

- A = 90%-100%
- B = 80%-89%
- C = 70%-79%
- D = 60%-69%
- F = 59% or Below

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Assessments

Module Discussions and Assignments	100 points
Annotated Bibliography	100 points
