Materials

This course has been designed using Open Educational Resources (OER) and/or materials that are available through the Waters Library. All materials are embedded within the course or are accessible via the internet or accessible through the Waters Library resource portal. After taking the pretest, students are encouraged to bookmark, download, or save materials provided via the internet for use with assignments and projects in this class.

Required Course Text: The Word on College Reading and Writing. This text is in PDF format and is available in the course under "Start Here - Course Materials."

Course Description

A non-credit course providing an Introduction to College Reading and Writing, ENG 100 offers an introduction to the elements of literacy necessary for college- level reading and writing. In this course, students receive substantial feedback and instructors tailored to their specific needs. This course serves as a support course for ENG 1301 and is required of those students who are not Texas Success Initiative (TSI) complete in The syllabus/schedule are subject to change either reading and/or writing, but this course is also available to anyone who may desire additional support for ENG 1301. This course may not be used to satisfy any degree requirement.

Student Learning Outcomes

- 1. Students will identify the elements of rhetorical analysis and understand the concept of reading as part of an academic conversation
- 2. Students will analyze and respond critically to texts written for academic audiences
- 3. Students will apply academic writing conventions in their own writing to accommodate various audiences and purposes
- 4. Students will learn how to conduct basic research and understand how to use it appropriately in written works

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

REGULAR AND SUBSTANTIVE COURSE INTERACTION

As a general guide, students enrolled in a three-semester hour course should spend one hour engaged in instructional activities and two to three hours on out-of-class work per week in a traditional semester. Students are expected to double this effort of engagement given that this course is being delivered in a seven-week term. Educational activities in this course are designed to ensure regular and substantive interaction between students and faculty to ensure that students are able to demonstrate competency.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed: Students will need reliable computer and internet access for this course. Students must be able to effectively use myLeo email, myLeo Online D2L, and Microsoft Office.

Instructional Methods: This course is an online course. To be successful in this course, all content and course modules should be read and reviewed. All assignments and quizzes (both graded and not graded) must be completed. Please contact the instructor by email for any assistance.

Email your instructor as soon as you complete your pre-test so the instructor can access and grade your work.

The course is divided into four competencies:

Competency 1: Rhetorical Knowledge, teaches you to read rhetorically, understanding how texts are structured to make meaning – how all the little pieces add up to the larger whole. When you engage in this kind of reading, you look for the rhetorical strategies of the writer – the patterns, structures, figures, & methods that a writer uses in order to make their point. This kind of reading can, in turn, help you to strategize your own approach to creating effective texts for particular audiences and purposes.

Competency 2: Critical Reading, teaches you efficient academic reading strategies. Academic reading is a specific category of reading. It's helpful to remember that academic reading is an act of performance. Rather than sitting back and passively receiving information we read in college, we will be asked to directly act upon that information in some way. We will be quizzed or tested. We will be asked to debate, analyze, or critique what we read. We will need to read closely, remember the text accurately, and compare it to other texts for style and content.

Competency 3: The Writing Process, introduces you to the importance of audience and purpose and to the writing process. Purpose is your reason for writing. Are you writing to persuade, to explain, or to issue a call to action? Perhaps you have more than one purpose. Understanding your reason for writing will help you to choose an appropriate voice. This competency also teaches you skills to develop your voice as a writer. Writing is a recursive process and involves going through these steps multiple times. Additionally, every writer has their own writing processes that come into play as they write.

Competency 4: Research, teaches you techniques for finding information using library resources, including search techniques to narrow your findings and further evaluation techniques for assessing research materials for informational value, quality, and reliability. You will also learn how to read scholarly writing for information and how to apply this information in your writing.

Within each competency there is a pretest, a list of course readings specific to that competency, and a post-test. The course readings will provide you with the information you need to be successful on the post-test. While there are a few multiple choice questions on the tests, the majority of the questions on the pre- tests and post-tests are extended short answer or essay (with minimum word count expectations). Many of the questions on the post-tests specifically reference materials in the readings, so general knowledge will not be sufficient to answer those questions; reading the material is a must.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Because we are working in a 7-week term with 4 competencies, I suggest an approximate

2-week time frame for each competency. This will help you stay on track to complete all four competencies by the end of the term.

You should begin by taking the pre-test. The pre-test in each competency is meant to be a baseline from which to begin studying the material in the course in preparation for the post-test. The pre-test will give you several important pieces of information, what you already know, so you will know what to study (there is no point in studying things you are already knowledgeable about), as well as what you do not know (even if you assumed you did know).

Once you complete the pre-test, you should begin reading and studying for the post-test. All readings are listed in each competency and all are required, unless otherwise noted. When you feel ready, you can move on to the post-test. You must score 80% or better on the post-test in order to pass. If you do not score at least 80% the first time you take the post-test, you have to re-take the test.

In addition to the four competencies listed above, you will complete a final course essay that must be successfully completed in order to pass the course. You have to score 80% on the paper as you do on the post-tests. The grade you earn will be averaged into the other four competency grades.

Assessment

Students must achieve 80% or higher on the four post-tests and the final essay to demonstrate competency and pass the course.

NOTE: It's in your best interest to only click on quizzes, exams, or tests when you are prepared to take them. In other words, please don't click on these unless you have the knowledge and time to complete them.

Pre-tests

The purpose of the pre-test is to provide a baseline understanding of your knowledge in this competency. Pre-tests are taken once and should be completed upon the first couple of days of a CBE academic term or entry into a course if a student is an accelerator. The pre-test is required before you begin studying course materials. If students do not make at least 80% on the pretest, they will be expected to complete assignments, quizzes, and other course content to prepare for the post-test and final essay. Students are required to complete the post-test even if scoring 80% or higher on the pre-test. The grade on the pre-test does not count in the final grade for this course.

Post-tests

The end-of-module comprehensive exams that assesses student knowledge and understanding of major concepts, theories, processes, etc., in the course/module. A score of 80% or higher is required to demonstrate competency. DUE: Last day of week 7, Friday by 11:59 PM CST.

If you score less than 80% on the post-test, you will have an opportunity to review the material and retake the post-test two additional times. Students who fail the post-test should review feedback from the instructor before reattempting the post-test. If the post-test score is less than 80% within three attempts, students will receive a grade of "F" in the course and will be required to retake the course in the new term.

Final Course Essay

The final course essay is worth 20% of your final grade. A score of 80% or higher is required to demonstrate competency. DUE DATE if you want feedback for revisions: End of week 6. HARD DUE DATE: Last day of week 7, Friday by 11:59 PM CST.

If students score less than 80% on the Final Essay, they will have an opportunity to review the material and resubmit the Essay up to two additional times. If the Final Essay is less than 80% within three attempts, students will receive a grade of F in the course and will be required to retake the course in the new term.

GRADING

Grades

Your final grade in the course is based on the average of your scores on four posttests and one final course essay (each post-test is worth 20% of your final grade and the final course essay is worth 20%).

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% B = 80%-89% F = 79% and below

Acceleration Process

Students enrolled in competency-based education courses in the College of Innovation and Design are permitted to accelerate from one CBE course to another during a seven-week academic term under certain conditions. The request to accelerate from one course to another must be initiated by the student upon successful completion of currently enrolled CBE courses. Students are responsible for maintaining communication with faculty and their assigned advisor(s) throughout the acceleration process. Students who fail a course or who drop/withdraw from a CBE course are not eligible for acceleration. Student may only request permission to accelerate in one course at a time. Request to accelerate is initiated and completed by 5:00 pm CST on the fifth Friday of a seven-week academic term.

Process

- 1. Student successfully completes all required coursework in their CBE courses(s) with a grade of "A" or "B."
- 2. Student receives emailed verification from the assigned instructor that the course has been satisfactorily completed (Grade of A or B only).
- 3. Student contacts assigned advisor to provide proof of completion and discuss eligibility for acceleration into another course.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

Communication

Interaction with Instructor Statement

This is an online course; therefore, expect most communication to be online as well. If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your instructor. Correspondence will always be through university email (your "myLeo" mail) and announcements in myLeo online (D2L). The instructor will make every effort to respond to emails within 24 provided the correspondence follows the requirements listed below. Students are encouraged to check university email daily.

All emails from students should include:

- Course name and subject in the subject line (ex. EDCB 517 Posttest)
- Salutation
- Proper email etiquette (no "text" emails use proper grammar and punctuation)
- Student name and CWID after the body of the email

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

Respect & Student Conduct

Each class is made up of diverse individuals with a variety of backgrounds and beliefs, so we won't always agree with one another on every issue. You will probably feel uneasy, uncomfortable, or challenged at some point in this class. In fact, those moments can often lead to greater insight and understanding.

However, rudeness and insults will not be tolerated. Our classroom should be a respectful space where we all feel comfortable and safe sharing our thoughts, and professionalism and boundaries are very important to me as a professor.

These respect guidelines also apply in feedback and email correspondences we will have with one another. Emails should include a proper opening and closing salutations and a clear message.

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook. http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty 13.99.99.R0.03 Undergraduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form Graduate Student Academic Dishonesty Form

CID Policy on Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty includes cheating, complicity in cheating, multiple submissions (or substantial portions) of the same work for credit without authorization, submitting another's work, plagiarism, submitting algorithmically (AI) plagiarized work, and other acts that may reasonably be called academic dishonesty.

- Students who commit academic dishonesty will receive a grade of 0 for the assignment in the course and be issued a Written Warning that is reported to the CID Assistant Dean's office and listed in a database.
- If the student does NOT have a previous Written Warning for academic dishonesty reported in CID courses and has additional attempts available for the assignment, the student may resubmit the assignment (this applies to CBE courses only).
- If the student has a Written Warning of academic dishonesty reported in CID courses, the student may NOT resubmit the assignment, and the instructor will follow the procedure detailed in Policy 13.99.99.R0.03 for Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty and report the incident to the Provost Office.

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities.
