- E-mail: Students must routinely check e-mail sent to his or her Texas A&M-Commerce account. This is my primary mechanism for communicating with the class. I check my e-mail every day, so this is the best way to reach me.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is highly valued at the Texas A & M University-Commerce. You must always submit work that represents your original words or ideas. If any words or ideas used in a class assignment submission do not represent your original words or ideas, you must cite all relevant sources and make clear the extent to which such sources were used. Words or ideas that require citation include, but are not limited to, all hard copy or electronic publications, whether copyrighted or not, and all verbal or visual communication when the content of such communication clearly originates from an identifiable source. Please see the Texas A & M University-Commerce Graduate Catalog for more information about academic honesty, including the consequences of academic dishonesty.

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

Scholarly Expectations

All works submitted for credit must be original works created by the scholar uniquely for the class. It is considered inappropriate and unethical, particularly at the graduate level, to make duplicate submissions of a single work for credit in multiple classes, unless specifically requested by the instructor. Work submitted at the graduate level is expected to demonstrate higher-order thinking skills and be of significantly higher quality than work produced at the undergraduate level.

Course Objectives

- CO 1. Students will demonstrate proficiency in written communications by creating clear and well-structured business documents.
- CO 2. Students will identify and evaluate the value of various services to develop CRM
- CO 3. Students will identify and evaluate the applications of services in businesses
- CO 4. Students will be analytical problem solvers in CRM

We are exposed to customer service (of one kind or another) at least once a day, every day of the week, fifty-two weeks of the year. There are times when individuals, organizations, and companies take the provision of good service, and the people who deliver it, for granted. We should not – giving top-quality Customer Service is an art form.

Customers love and cherish companies that treat them the way they (the customer) want to be treated. People are now prepared to pay more for good service. So, the providers of the good service – YOU – are gems beyond price these days.

Whatever your reasons for considering this course, we can promise you that you will get even more than you might have thought from its contents. You will most likely pick up things you might not have considered before, or even been aware of – CRM for example!

OUR SCHEDULE WILL RUN ON CENTRAL STANDARD TIME.

Requests from students with disabilities for reasonable accommodations must go through the Academic Support Committee. For more information, please contact the Office of Advisement Services, Business Administration Building, Room 314, (903)886-5133.
