Course Description

Honors-designated internships are on or off-campus experiential learning activities designed to provide students with opportunities to make connections between academic study and the practical application of that study to a professional work environment. Internships offer the opportunity to gain relevant experience, marketable skills, and professional connections. Internships are completed under the guidance of an on-site supervisor and Honors College sponsor, who in combination with the student will create a framework for learning and reflection.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- An understanding of how major coursework ties together a variety of professional disciplines and areas of potential interest.
- Gain insight into various career paths while learning about the industry in which the organization resides, organizational structure, and roles and responsibilities within that structure.
- Develop professional connections and identify a strategy for maintaining those connections after internship completion.
- Reflection on the internship experiences, including:

- Ability to articulate what was learned and how it will be apply to your professional career goals (marketable skills development).
- Identification of professions that may be of interest as a result of this experience
- Identification of additional skills that will need to be developed to ensure career readiness. This might include learning a new technology, developing a broader network, additional coursework, etc.

Instructional Methods: This course is an online course conducted through D2L/Brightspace. Class consists of presentations, online discussions, and writing assignments. Students should engage with the online class frequently and participate as if they were engaging with fellow students in a face-to-face class but no set or synchronous meeting time is required.

Course Assessments: Course learning objects will be measured through various oral and written assignments. Assignments will help students integrate experiences from the entirety of their college experience and apply to real-world problems. Students will also work collaboratively and evaluate each other’s work. Assessment details and due dates will be posted in D2L through the course calendar and course content tabs.

Participation & Attendance: Class attendance and participation is measured by on-time completion of assignments listed in D2L as well as providing meaningful feedback to classmates. Students’ course grade is calculated according to the following scale:

A = EXCELLENT	90% -100%	(360-400 points)
B = GOOD	80% - 89%	(320-359 points)
C = AVERAGE	70% - 79%	(280-319 points)
D = POOR	60% - 69%	(240-279 points)
F = FAILURE	59% or below	(239 points or below)

Assignment	Description
Weekly journal 10 @ 10 points each (100 pts)	Write down your experiences and identify skills being developed by documenting in a weekly journal or blog. Distinct topics will be provided.
Informational interview (25 pts)	Conduct an informational interview with an individual in your department or organization other than your site supervisor to explore a profession of interest and summarize your findings.
Midterm assignment (50 pts)	Identify what you have learned to date and how this will be relevant to your career goals. Establish goals for the remainder of your internship and actions to achieve those goals.
Final Presentation (150 pts)	Analyze your internship experience, reflecting on lessons learned and how your education prepared you for the internship. Discuss the problem or project you were tasked to work on, progress made and lessons learned.

Final Presentation Feedback (10 pts)	Students will watch each other's final presentations to evaluate and provide feedback.
Submit an updated resume 25 points	Add details about your experience including new skills developed and results obtained during the internship. Submit to the Berry Career Institute and faculty sponsor.
Supervisor's assessment (40 pts)	Should be submitted directly from the site supervisor to the Honors Academic Coordinator.

*Note that some completed assignments may become a permanent part of departmental and/or College records which other faculty and staff may read as part of the ongoing process of assessment. Course requirements and documentation of internship activity (may be edited/alterd by the Instructor)

Class Meeting Schedule

The specific dates and times that you will be at the internship site will be determined by your site supervisor, in consultation with you. In general, you will be expected to work approximately 150 hours of work over the 10 week summer term (June 5-August 10). This course will not meet at a set time and all required readings, assignments and course-related activities will be completed online through D2L (MyLeo Online).

Grievance Procedure:

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with my supervisor, Dr. Karen Roggenkamp. Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 (“Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation”).

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.
