Topics covered include Wildlife Management, North American Wildlife Conservation, The Wildlife Professional, Human Dimensions of Wildlife Management, Structured Decision Making, Scale in Wildlife Management, Wildlife Populations Dynamics, Diseases and Parasites, and Hunting and Trapping management, and shows students how to make themselves marketable for employers across a wide spectrum of wildlife jobs.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the North American Model of Wildlife Conservation
2. Demonstrate knowledge of the Wildlife Professional
3. Demonstrate knowledge of the Human Dimensions of Wildlife Management
4. Demonstrate knowledge of the basics of Wildlife Management.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

You must be proficient in navigating myleoonline.tamuc.edu, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, e-mailing your instructor, writing papers, and opening .pdf documents.

Instructional Methods

You will be required to read the book chapters, supplemental reading material, and instructional PowerPoint slides. Quizzes and exams will cover the material presented to you via myleoonline.tamuc.edu, and information in the text.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

To be successful in the course, students must complete all tests and assignments on the date they are due. Thus, you, the student, are responsible for keeping track of due dates. You will also be responsible for having access to secure and reliable internet service. The successful student will arrange to complete and submit required work well before the due date to avoid connectivity issues. Always have a “plan B.”

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%; B = 80%-89%; C = 70%-79%; D = 60%-69%; F = 59% or Below

Assessments

1. Forum discussions: Weekly 5 x 50 pts. each = 250 pts.
2. Attendance and Participation: 50 pts
3. Wildlife Management Critique paper(s): 4 x 50 pts = 200 pts
4. Extra credit: Wildlife seminar summary: 25 pts

Attendance and Participation:

Each student is expected to attend all classes and participate in all discussions. This course is designated as “Online” only, so we will not be meeting live virtually each week for lectures. Instead, there will be multiple recorded lectures (up to 1.5 hrs each) posted online on D2L available ahead of time to view each week. The first week of classes will also include an essential video lecture providing an overview of the syllabus, introduction to the course, and course expectations will be available on Monday, May 5, 2023. Please view the overview video first. If you have any questions about assignments and the structure of the course, I will also hold a live Zoom meeting to take any questions.

Your “attendance” grade will be based on mostly on participation. If you do not attend (participate) in class, you cannot receive credit for attendance or participation. You must participate in class discussions posted on forums on our course shell in myLeo. There will be a total of 5 forum discussions posted to which you must respond to the week's topic or questions and responses provided by your instructor and classmates.

Wildlife Management Critique Papers:

You will have 4 "Wildlife Management Critique" papers due at various intervals scheduled throughout the semester. The format of these papers will consist of 1.5-2 page essays, 1.5 spaced, where you will respond to the 2 following questions: 1) Conduct a library search for a scientific manuscript from a peer-reviewed journal related to one of the topics discussed within the past 4 lectures in the course. Provide a brief 2-paragraph summary on how the article agrees or disagrees with any perspectives discussed directly from those chapters in the textbook; provide at least 2 examples drawn from the textbook and the manuscript; 2) Provide a brief 2-paragraph summary on the following question: What did you like most about the article and how do you see yourself applying those methods/techniques/theories in the future. How have you already applied any of those methods/techniques theories already from any prior volunteer, internship, or work experiences? Provide references, in proper citation format, from both the textbook and the manuscript.

Wildlife Management Seminar Review:

Extra credit: There will be an optional opportunity to receive 50 pts. extra credit for attending a science seminar presentation online or on-campus. More details regarding the format and requirements of this voluntary opportunity will be provided later in the semester. The assignment will be due on November 11, 2022. No late assignment will be accepted for the extra credit.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Student Success

To be successful in my class:

- check the course daily (e-mail and Canvas) and read announcements
- read and respond to course email messages as needed; please understand that I will respond as quickly as conveniently as possible. Sometimes I will respond to messages late into the evening, but generally expect me to reply within regular business hours
- complete assignments by the due dates specified; If you have extenuating circumstances that prevent you from meeting a deadline, please let me know ahead of time so I can consult with you about necessary accommodations or make-up opportunities
- communicate regularly with your instructor (office hours) and peers. I am very understanding of situations that may arise in the academic environment or in our personal lives which can create challenges to your performance. Please let me know what's going on so I can provide reasonable opportunities to help you recover and/or stay on track with the course.
- create a study and/or assignment schedule to stay on track
- If you have any concerns regarding course content, need clarification on grading, or other matters related to the course, please make an appointment with your instructor to try to resolve the issue with the instructor first. If you find that the issue at hand cannot be resolved with the instructor after first consulting with the instructor, then feel free to seek support from the Chair of the department.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Penalty enforcement (I reserve the right to adjust your grade for violation of the minimum expectations).
- Make-up assignments will only be given if arrangements are made with the instructor before missing the scheduled assignment. A documented excuse acceptable by the university standards will be required.
- Otherwise, missing assignments will be counted as zeroes in the overall grade computation.
