

Fundamentals of Acting THE 1351 Fall 2023

Instructor: Jackie Rosenfeld

E-mail: jackie.rosenfeld@tamuc.edu

Office: PAC 128

Office Hours: Mon/Wed 1-2pm T/TH 1-3pm and by appointment

Class Time and Place: T/TH 11am - 12:15pm in PAC 126 (Studio Theatre)

Catalogue Description: Basic acting techniques of characterization, role analysis, stage movement, voice and body control.

Objectives: In this course we will explore the foundations of acting skill. We will focus particular attention on the actor's work on themselves. Significant time will be given to work on imagination and communication on stage, as well as, the basics of script analysis.

Required Texts: Acting: the basics by Bella Merlin, second edition
(Paperback available in bookstore or online for about $22. Kindle edition available for $12-21.)

Program Learning Outcomes

This course applies to the following School of Theatre Program Learning Outcomes at an introductory level.

- The student will be able to analyze a script in ways that are necessary to a theatre practitioner or scholar/critic.
- The student will demonstrate an understanding of the component areas of theatrical creation, process, production, performance, and study, and their interrelationships.
- The student will demonstrate competence in one or more areas of theatre specializations.
- The student will demonstrate collaborative and/or leadership competencies appropriate to participate or take a leadership role in an effective theatrical production.
- The student will be able to complete and document a major project as a stage manager, as a designer or technician, or as an actor or director, demonstrating advanced competence in the student's specialty.
- The student will be able to present an effective presentation appropriate to the student's specialization.

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- Analyze a dramatic text and interpret a character.
- Explain fundamental concepts of modern acting theory.
- Employ standard acting vocabulary.
- Articulate a basic personal artistic process.
- Translate critical analysis into specific vocal and physical choices.
- Demonstrate the ability to work cooperatively on a creative/interpretive project.

Grading components:

1) Engagement	30%
2) Production Responses	20%
3) Performance Work & Analyses	50%

Final Grading: (0-59.4) F (59.5-69.4) D (69.5-79.4) C (79.5-89.4) B (89.5-100) A

Engagement (30%): The expectation in this class is that you are fully engaged as an artist for each class session. You must be present and ready to work at the beginning of each class. You are expected to be mentally, emotionally, and physically prepared. You will be asked to engage as a student, artist, and collaborator every day. You should meet or exceed the expectations of the course, the Department of Theatre, and the University. Your engagement will be noted and evaluated.

NOTE: You should expect to commit significant out of class time to preparation and rehearsal. You must treat this out of class work as a serious commitment. If I receive more than two complaints about any student's presence, preparation, or participation in outside rehearsals, that student will be asked to withdraw from the class. Below is a rubric for Engagement grading:

- A – Student shows a heightened level of attention, commitment, and effort.
- B – Student shows an acceptable level of attention, commitment, and effort.
- C – Student is present and not disruptive or obviously disengaged.
- D – Student is present and mildly disruptive or disengaged.
- F – Student is present and significantly disruptive or disengaged.
- o – Student is not present or asked to leave class.

Production Responses (20%): Students are required to see the Mainstage productions of A Year with Frog and Toad and Thanksgiving Play. A two-page commentary on the production is due at the class period immediately after each production closes. Specific assignments will be distributed prior to each production.

Performance Work & Analyses (50%): Throughout the course of the semester you will rehearse and perform several pieces. Each of those assignments is outlined below. More specific details will be forthcoming in class.

Breakdown of Performance Work Assignments:

Stage Direction Scenes – You will perform a short self-created scene with a partner(s) with no dialogue.

Three Words Scenes - You will perform a self-written short scene with a partner(s).

Monologue – You will rehearse and perform a new one-minute monologue of your choosing. It should be from a realistic play written in the last 30 years, and a piece that would be appropriate for you to use in a professional audition. You will also turn in an analysis for this piece, which will be detailed in class and on D2l.

Scripted Scene Performance – You will perform a scene assigned to you. You will also turn in an analysis for this piece, which will be detailed in class and on d2l. The scenes will be performed in Zoom.

Course Specific General Expectations:

3

- Your clothes should effectively cover your body through a range of movement possibilities. Hats, if worn, must be turned with the bill backwards. If you are not wearing class appropriate clothing, you will be asked to leave, and receive an absence for the day, as well as, a loss of engagement points.
- This class requires significant physical interaction between students. Please come to class clean, and with nails trimmed.
- Jewelry should be removed before class. This includes necklaces, long, dangling earrings, watches, body piercings and large rings. This prevents potentially dangerous snags on your own body or other's bodies.
- Soft soled movement or athletic type shoes shall be worn for class.
- Bring a no-spill water bottle to class. Only water is allowed. Fill it before class; you can't leave class to fill it. No food in class (this includes gum and candy).
- Hair should be kept out of the face.
- Assist in keeping the space clean, organized and ready for the next class.
- As a student in a pre-professional theatre program you should approach class in the same way that you would a rehearsal. You should be on time. You should be prepared. You should leave any outside concerns at the door.

Absences/Lateness:

Theatre is an intrinsically collaborative art, and the practical application side of your training occurs largely in the classroom. Therefore, your absence from class impacts not only your learning, but also the learning of other students. You should not miss class. You will lose engagement points anytime you do. However, I recognize that life happens. Please be in communication with me about any absences. If you do not communicate with me about an absence within 24 hours or if your absences become excessive your grade will be significantly impacted. The same is true for chronic lateness. It is your responsibility to obtain any missed notes from a classmate. It is your responsibility to check in with me after class if you arrive after attendance is taken.

- Seven (7) absences in a T/TH class will result in an automatic failure of the course.
- Course Work: All course work must be completed and turned in as indicated by the course calendar, as discussed in class, or communicated on d2l. Late work will only be accepted in emergency circumstances. It is your responsibility to pursue making up missed work, not my responsibility to make sure you do so.

General Expectations:

Please respect others as well as yourself; this includes other students, the instructor, guest speakers, and performers. The majority of the following guidelines for behavior reflect this principle.

1. Recording class in any form is not allowed.
2. Cell phones should be set to silent or turned off and stowed before you enter the room. Absolutely NO use of cell phones is allowed in class unless there is an emergency, or it is approved/ requested by the instructor.
3. Disorderly conduct or talking inappropriately in class is not permitted.
4. Failure to follow any of these expectations will result in being dismissed from class and counted absent (unexcused).

Community Guidelines:

We, as a class, will determine the guidelines of behavior for this course. They will be discussed in class and made available on D2L.

Diversity

This class engages material covering a diverse range of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, and disability. While I encourage you to formulate and express your thoughts and opinions throughout the semester, discriminatory remarks will not be tolerated.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I welcome visits during my office hours and am always happy to make appointments during a time that works best for both the student and I. I don't believe in dumb questions, though I do believe often times the syllabus has not been checked before some questions are asked. If you think it might be on there (a due date or a class policy) check there first. Otherwise feel free to e-mail me or stop by my office. Monday through Friday I will respond to e-mails with 24 hours.
