Course Description

No description; a thesis readings course work load and assignments are determined by the student's topic and advisor's guidance.

Student Learning Outcomes

Student will produce and defend an honors thesis proposal. If the student does not complete and defend the thesis proposal during the Fall 2023 semester, the instructor will assign a grade of "I" and the student will defend the proposal in a subsequent semester.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Instructional Methods

This course will consist of independent coursework and student/advisors meetings to review student progress.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Participation in one's creative practices will provide you with the most success in this course. Setting aside time each week to focus on readings, making art, contemplating, and critically engaging your work will be critical to making an honors thesis proposal.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%. B = 80%-89%. C = 70%-79%. D = 60%-69%. F = 59% or Below

AI Use in Courses (Draft)

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
