Course Description

A broad interdisciplinary course in the historical development of the United States and North America from 1865. Note: Assignments will focus on reading, writing, and analysis. Prerequisites: ENG 1301 or concurrent enrollment or ENG 1302 or concurrent enrollment.

Instructor's Description:

A survey of US history from 1865 to the present. This course interrogates US social, political, and economic history while placing particular attention on themes like identity, agency, and power.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to form substantive and evidence-driven arguments to propose solutions to problems or explain phenomena.
2. Student communication will follow conventions of grammar and syntax appropriate to the audience, purpose, and message.
3. Students will demonstrate awareness of the societal and/or civic issues.
4. Students will be able to understand their role in their own education.

Course Requirements

Instructional Methods

Course material will be delivered through a variety of modes including, but not limited to, readings, primary and secondary source analysis, online group discussions, and exams. The course will be managed through the university's D2L system, through which students can access relevant information such as primary source documents, discussion boards, and announcements. Students are responsible for checking D2L periodically to access course assignments and potential changes to the syllabus.

Grading:

Final grades in this course will be based on the following 100-point scale:

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	<59

The grade each student will receive in the course will be determined according to the completion and quality of the following assignments and requirements:

Assignment:	Points:
Academic Honesty Quiz	5 points
Short Responses	50 points (5 points each)
Concept Paper and Adobe Project	15 points
Mid-term Exam	15 points
Final Exam	15 points

	100 points total available

Classroom Expectations

Students are expected to always be respectful and courteous to everyone in the class. Ask questions when you have them.

Late Policy

Students may take makeup exams if they miss class for legitimate reasons (such as a university-sponsored program or athletic event, an illness, or a family emergency). Approval for makeup exam must be given by instructor and must be taken within a timely fashion.

Assignments and Exams:

Every effort will be made to have assignments and exams graded within 10 days after the due date, except for the Final Exam. This allows time for careful grading of all assignments.

Academic Honesty Quiz: 5%

The academic honesty quiz will be made available to all students on D2L. It provides information on academic honesty and the potential consequences for violating these policies.

Short Responses: 50% total

In addition to reading the assigned chapter for the week, students are responsible for reading 2-4 primary source readings per chapter. Students are then expected to analyze the primary source readings by responding to a question(s) provided by the instructor.

Concept Paper and Adobe Project: 15%

Students are required to select a topic or concept examined in class and write a response elaborating on their understanding of this topic. It must be 2 pages in length (double-spaced, Times New Roman, one-inch margins). Guidelines for this assignment will be provided on MyLeo and will incorporate an Adobe component.

Mid-Term and Final Exams: 15% each

There will be two exams during the semester including the final exam at the end of the semester. The format of the exams will be part multiple-choice and part short-answer responses. The final exam will not be comprehensive.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

Students should feel free to contact me directly via e-mail (see above) if they have questions about anything related to the course. E-mails should include a greeting (“Good morning, Professor..”) and a closing (“Sincerely, [your name]). Also, on the subject line or within the email, note what class you are enrolled in.

Statement on Student Grievances

Students who have questions or concerns about the Instructor’s course policies or the conduct either of the Instructor or a classmate should first consult with the Instructor. In the event of a lack of resolution or satisfaction on the matter, the student may bring their concerns to the head of the History Department, Sharon Kowalsky (Sharon.Kowalsky@tamuc.edu). If this does not result in a satisfactory conclusion to the matter, students may bring the issue to the attention of the Associate Dean of Students per procedures outlined on pp. 15-19 of the Student Guide Book.

Technology Requirements

Part of this course will require internet access to read materials and submit assignments online.
