Brief Explanation of Course Assessments

Quizzes:

Twenty multiple choice topical quizzes covering the 20 topics within the course will be administered worth 10 points each. Sample multiple choice quizzes are available at the end of each of the first twenty chapters in the textbook. These sample quiz questions and those presented as assessment quizzes come from the Project Management Institute's Project Management Certification Exam and cover the principles that support the knowledge areas and domain groups in the PMBOK® Guide. Quizzes are timed and can only be accessed once each; so, be ready to complete the entire quiz once it is entered. Quizzes automatically close at the posted deadline and will not be reopened for late submission. Each quiz MUST be completed by the posted deadline or a zero will be earned.

Presentation Projects:

Presentation Projects will address various aspects of Project Management and may include individual and/or group assignments and peer review activities. Project presentations will be made in video format using Jing or other Web 2.0 technologies as assigned. Project details and specific requirements will be provided for each activity

Midterm and Final Exam:

The mid-term and final exams are evaluations of the learners' overall understanding of the principles that support the knowledge areas established by the premiere project management certification organization in the U.S., the Project Management Institute (PMI).

The questions for the exams will come from a test bank of randomly presented questions from the end of each chapter in a section labeled Studying Tips for the PMI® Project Management Certification Exam. Expect each exam to consist of 50 questions from a test bank of several hundred questions used in preparation for the PMP and CPMP Certification examinations. The mid-term and final exams will cover material from approximately and first and second halves of the term, respectively.

The final will cover content addressed after that which is covered on the mid-term exam. The exams are timed and can only be accessed once; so, be ready to complete the exam in its entirety once it is entered. Exams automatically close at the posted deadline and will not be reopened for late submission. Each exam MUST be completed by the posted deadline or a zero will be earned.

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

This class will operate according to the following policies to ensure fairness and equal treatment to all students:

- Work, vacation, travel, and sickness/accident/death outside your immediate family do NOT constitute approved excuse for failing to complete assignments and/or meeting course deadlines and due dates.
- If you find it necessary to miss a deadline/due date and you believe you have a valid reason that meets university guidelines and course policy, notify the instructor immediately in writing!
- Grading policies and requirements identified in this course syllabus are non-negotiable and will be adhered to in this course of study with all students held to an identical and equal standard.
- If you do not agree with any requirement herein, believe any requirement to be “unfair” or “unreasonable,” or believe that less should be expected of you than your classmates in order to earn a comparable course grade, you should WITHDRAW IMMEDIATELY from this course and re-evaluate your dedication to the principle of academic integrity and success!
- Grades earned in this course will be based on a numerical value and the final course grade will be recorded/posted as a letter grade (see “Grading Scale”).
- Numerical scores that determine the final course grade will not be rounded-up.
- The writing and reference formatting style identified in the current edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA) is required for use on written assignments in this course and all courses offered within the TAMU-C Department of Engineering & Technology. The most critical aspect of writing with APA in this course is the observation of correct citation and reference requirements. Failing to properly cite the work of others constitutes plagiarism, an act of academic dishonesty resulting in disciplinary action. The approved TMGT Manuscript Guide provides program specific information on required and allowed variations from APA Style. These two sources are essential references in preparing written assignments for submission. Only specific assignment instructions supersede these established formatting and style requirements.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

- In the workplace, you are expected to produce documents that are clear, error-free, and visually effective in communicating the intended message. All work submitted for credit in this course must also satisfy these general professional expectations as well as be appropriate for the specific purpose and audience for which the communication is intended. Quality of work will be reflected in the assignment scores.
- Make-up, extensions, resubmissions, or extra credit assignments are not available in this course unless student has a verified university recognized excuse for absence (per University policy and student handbook). Health issues must be confirmed by a valid institution.

NOTICE: If you are not willing to devote the time and effort necessary for the successful completion of this course or if you do not have the prerequisite knowledge/skills to successfully complete this course, you need to discuss this matter with your academic advisor immediately.

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:

Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty 13.99.99.R0.03

Plagiarism

United States law recognizes that words and ideas have value and can be stolen. The expression of original ideas is considered intellectual property and is protected by copyright laws. Almost all forms of expression fall under copyright protection as long as they are recorded in some way (such as a book, article, musical composition, or computer file).

All of the following are considered examples of plagiarism:

- Turning in someone else's work as your own.
- Copying words and/or ideas from someone else without giving proper credit (references).
- Failing to put a quotation in quotation marks.
- Providing incorrect information about the source of a quotation or information source.
- Changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving proper credit.
- Copying so many words or ideas from a source that it makes up the majority of the work you have written, whether you give credit or not.

Be aware that your instructor will be actively looking for all occurrences of plagiarism and, when caught, the results may be devastating to your academic career (see "Academic Integrity"). To avoid plagiarism, a student must give credit whenever they:

- use another individual's idea, opinion, or theory.
- use facts, statistics, graphs, and drawings that are not common knowledge.
- use quotations of another individual's spoken or written words; or
- paraphrase another individual's spoken or written words.

Any works referenced should be properly cited in accordance with the APA 6th edition Publication Manual. Turnitin, or other similar plagiarism verification services, may be utilized to verify the absence of or presence of plagiarism in any or all student assignments, projects, and examinations or other coursework. In most cases plagiarism can be avoided by citing sources correctly. Simply acknowledging that certain material has been borrowed, and providing your audience with the necessary information to locate that source is usually enough to avoid a plagiarism charge.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change

Plagiarized assignments, projects, and examinations will receive a grade of F with zero (0) points

Collaboration

All work in this course is to be completed individually, without collaboration from others.

Use of Outside Sources for Written Work, Papers, and Assignments

In this course, if it is determined that a student used paid services to obtain previously written work, have the service write course papers, or prepare course assignments, that student will receive a failing grade (0 points) on the work in question. In addition, the student may be subject to recourse according to University policy (see “Academic Integrity”).

This type of practice is unethical and is not in keeping with the established tenets of obtaining a higher education degree. Zero tolerance applies to this policy!
