Course Requirements

Instructional Methods

Attendance is mandatory. This course will use several internet resources that will be announced throughout the semester.

Many in-class activities require group participation and will be impossible to make up. Each class meeting several grades will be taken. No makeup work will be accepted.

Assessments

Presentations, group projects, Individual assignments, creative exercises, demonstrations, individual projects and quizzes.

Grading

Grades will be determined in four sub-sections, Music, Art, Theatre, Final Project. Each instructor will oversee the grades for their subject. The Final Project section will cover class assignments that deal with all three subject areas.

The grade breakdown for the course is as follows:

Art	25%
Music	25%
Theatre	25%
Projects/Final	25%

The final average of these grades will be assigned grade rankings as follows.

90 to 100 %	A
80 to 89%	B
70 to 79%	C
60 to 69%	D
59 or below	F

It is important to note that no makeup work will be accepted.

If there is an unusual circumstance that causes the absence, then the decision to allow makeup work lies completely with the instructors.

No late work will be accepted in this course without instructor approval.

It is important for the student to realize that the instructors in this course are professionals within their given fields and their knowledge and experience far exceeds that of the other students in the course. Therefore, it is imperative that you contact the instructors with any questions you may have about assignments or course materials.

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance

Attendance Policy
