COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

- Assignments are expected to be submitted on the assigned due date. Late submissions will be considered on a case-by-case basis, and if granted an extension, a penalty of up to one full letter grade per day may apply. Except in documented emergencies, work will not be accepted if it is more than 3 days overdue.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- In this writing course, daily in-class writing activities significantly impact your overall grade and cannot be made up if missed. Consistent attendance at every class meeting is crucial for your academic progress.

However, I understand that unexpected situations may arise. To accommodate this, I've allowed for 4 "leave" days, meaning you can be absent up to 4 times with no need to provide an explanation. Both attendance and writing activity grades will be unaffected by these 4 absences. Excessive absence beyond this limit will be addressed on a case-by-case basis and will require documentation.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

You are invited to contact me via email with any questions or concerns at any time during the semester. Monday - Friday, I will answer all emails within 24-48 hours (usually sooner), and 72 hours on weekends. Please note that I am not usually available after we leave class on Tuesdays and Thursdays so any emails sent on those days will not be addressed until the next morning at the earliest.

Grievance Procedure

Students who have concerns regarding their courses should first address those concerns with the assigned instructor in order to reach a resolution. Students who are unsatisfied with the outcome of that conversation or have not been able to meet individually with their instructor, whether in-person, by email, by telephone, or by another communication medium, should then schedule an appointment with Dr. Gavin P. Johnson, the Director of Writing (gavin.johnson@tamuc.edu). In the case when the Director of Writing is the instructor, the student should contact Dr. Hunter Hayes, Chair of the Department of Literature and Languages (hunter.hayes@tamuc.edu). Where applicable, students should also consult University Procedure 13.99.99.R0.05 ("Student Appeal of Instructor Evaluation").
