Course Description

This course will be broken up into three distinct sections.

1. Art Process- Students will be introduced to techniques and materials that are utilized in the art making process. Students will be responsible for creating new original works to gain a greater appreciation of the work and preparation that goes into creating art.
2. Critical Analysis- Students will engage in discourse about past and present artworks to compare and contrast the historical, social, political and ideological motifs. Students will examine and analyze works while employing observational techniques learned throughout the course.
3. Historical Relevance- Students will examine and explore historical artworks to gain a better understanding of the progression of art throughout history.

Learning Outcomes

1. To gain an understanding of the visual arts as an expression of human insight, imagination, and technological achievement.
2. To see the ways in which art reflects or communicates historical, scientific, social, political, ideological, and religious values and constructions.
3. To appreciate the creative process of the artist and the elements and principles of visual design as integral to the themes and meaning of works of art.
4. To master introductory studio art techniques and skills.
5. To develop critical thinking skills, conceptual constructs, specialized art vocabulary, and an expanded worldview through a better appreciation of art.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

AI Use in Courses (Draft)

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
