Course Description

LNTC 405 Global Fluency examines the impact of the interconnected world on educational delivery systems in light of the dynamics of global sociology.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes

In this online course the engaged learner will:

1. Recognize and discuss issues related to how the global environment shapes one's own opinions;

2. Demonstrate an understanding of the complex and diverse nature of contemporary society and is able to situate his/her own and other cultures in the wider social context; and

3. Understand, reflect, and present examples on how individuals, groups, and institutions influence society.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students should be able to use the learning management system, Microsoft Word, and video presentation and graphics programs.

Instructional Methods

Assignments:

Specific modules will contain an assignment related to assigned reading from the course textbook. Assignment should be in paragraph format and cited in APA format for each module assignment. Students will use the template available in Shared Resources for all assignments. Review assignment for correct grammar and spelling. Follow the due dates for each assignment. Artificial Intelligence (AI) software is not to be used for any writing assignment.

Discussion Boards:

Each discussion board thread topic will require a "post" and a minimum of two "replies" to fellow classmate's posts.

Initial Post: Student provides thoughtful and thorough response to each topic for discussion. Students will need to complete an initial "post" to each discussion board by the due date. Review "post" content for correct grammar and spelling.

Replies: Student provides constructive comments to a fellow classmate's post. Reply content must relate to discussion topic. Review "reply" content for correct grammar and spelling. It is suggested that each reply consist of a minimum of four to five complete sentences.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Follow the due dates for each Discussion Board. It is critical that students read all the postings for each topic. This will ensure that you not only respond to the topic questions, but to your colleagues' comments as well. Also, it will help in ensuring against anyone plagiarizing your work.

Final Video Presentation:

Each student will prepare a final video presentation. Specifics and grading rubric will be available in the online course.

Civility Statement - Texas A&M University-Commerce enhances civility and collegiality of administrators, faculty, staff, students, and guests through intentional acts of respect, trust, self-accountability, and collaboration. We recognize our strength is found in togetherness as we commit to kindness through one on one communication, fostering a healthy environment of conflict resolution and teamwork. The university is also committed to incorporating the tenets of civility in ways that do not silence traditionally marginalized voices.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Use in Courses

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
