	Quizzes-Writing:	20%	(20 points)
	Quizzes-Answer:	20%	(20 points)
			(100 points total)

Quizzes:

Quiz writing assignments require you to write multiple choice questions & workshop to refine them with other students during specified class periods (which will be announced later).

Quizzes answering assignments will be on D2L and will be open for a 1 week period. There are 2 of these. There will be no makeups, nor will late quizzes be accepted.

Required Readings:

Everyone will read the books in the required section above and one additional book of their choice. No one will read the same additional book as another student. This additional book will be used for the book review assignment.

TURNITIN.COM:

The book review must be submitted electronically in D2L before the assigned due date for a grade to be received. These submissions will be checked by TURNITIN.COM for plagiarism. Late submissions will count as late papers.

Attendance and Participation

Attending class benefits you. I will track attendance for record-keeping purposes on lecture days and missed notes will negatively affect your ability to pass quizzes. Additionally, missing discussion days or the exercises to refine quiz questions will reduce your grade. Please do not be late.

Class Calendar & Due Dates

The calendar will be adjusted at my discretion as necessary. Such decisions will be announced in class. Assignments are due at the beginning of class. You may not disrupt the class to turn assignments in during the middle of class. Assignments turned in at the end of class or later will be considered late.

Book Reviews

The review should follow the formatting and style of the template book review that will be provided, be typed with 1-inch margins, free of grammatical and spelling errors, provide correct citation where necessary, include in the final paragraph discussion of a published academic review of the assigned book, and should be no less than 3 full pages & absolutely no more than 5 pages. You must upload a file to the course website. Each weekday a paper is late without a documented excuse I will deduct 10% off its earned grade.

STUDENT ACADEMIC HONESTY QUIZ

No submissions of other assignments will be accepted before this quiz is complete. Standard late penalties will be applied to these assignments. You must read and understand the policies on Academic Honesty and Plagiarism to succeed in this course.

INTERACTION WITH INSTRUCTOR STATEMENT

If you need to reach me outside of class or office hours, please use email. I typically respond to email within 12 to 36 hours during the week. Do not expect a response during the weekend.

When sending an email always do the following:

- 1) Use a subject line. This tells me what the topic is and prevents your message from ending up in my junk mail.
- 2) Include your class and section (or classtime). I need to know exactly which of my courses you are in.
- 3) End the email with your name, that is “sign” your message. I also need to know who you are.

COURSE PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures

Attendance

You must attend class. I will track attendance. If you are not attending, you will not be capable of completing course requirements correctly. Excessive absences for this course are FOUR or more for purposes of the University Attendance Policy and Procedures as linked below.

Academic Honesty and Dishonesty

You are expected to do your own work. Dishonesty will not be treated lightly. On each graded assignment I expect each student to honor the following pledge: "I hereby give my word that I have neither given nor received aid while completing this assignment." Any student found violating this policy will receive a grade of zero for the assignment, and further action may be taken.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism is taking someone else's work and passing it off as your own words, thoughts, or ideas. This includes, but is not limited to, using direct quotes out of a book or from the internet as your own words, properly using quotation marks but noting the wrong person as the author, purchasing a paper or exam from friends or strangers, using material from the internet verbatim as your own words, and cutting and pasting entire papers or internet pages and passing it off as your own work. Cheating on exams and discussion posts or allowing others to copy your answers is another form of academic dishonesty.

It may be acceptable to use other people's words and ideas as long as they receive credit in citations. If you are unsure about the precise definition of plagiarism and/or think you may have committed this form of academic dishonesty, see the instructor or visit the Online Writing Lab before you turn in the assignment.

Cell-phones, Laptops, Pagers, etc

You may use a non-phone device for taking notes. Do not use your device for any other purpose during class, as it distracts those around you. All cell-phones and pagers should be turned off or set to silent and placed out of sight during class. Do not check or use cell-phones or pagers during class, unless given express permission by the instructor. Disrupting class by using one of these devices may get you an invitation to leave for the remainder of class; this includes texting. If you aren't going to be mentally present in class, you can do that more efficiently from a different physical location.

On exam day, you may not use devices and should turn off pagers and phones before entering the room. If a pager or phone goes off during the exam, wait for me to come to you before turning it off. Anyone using one of these electronic devices during an exam will automatically receive a grade of zero and may be asked to leave the exam room.

Extra-credit

I do not usually give extra credit. Do not ask; that will lower the possibility.
