**make sure you get the book, not the one with WORKBOOK printed on the bottom

Course Description

Catalog Description: A study of the meaning and fundamental principles of leadership and supervision. Consideration is given to the development of teacher leaders and to the solution of administrative and pedagogical problems that supervisors and teacher leaders encounter in the school.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLO)

By the completion of the course, you will be able to:

1. Use reading of professional literature from business and industry and readings from assignments in your textbook to broaden your perspective and increase your skill in leading others to improve.
2. Develop an understanding of various ways teachers can be leaders and how you can develop your leadership.
3. Demonstrate professional improvement in the art of reflection as a tool to increase your effectiveness as a teacher leader.
4. Contribute significantly to your campus and/or school community by initiating leadership in initiatives that will benefit teachers, classrooms, parents, administrators, and/or the community, providing meaningful applications of course content.
5. Document, through self-evaluation, how the academic and professional experiences during the course have impacted teaching effectiveness and student achievement.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Know the Course Requirements From the First Class Day. It is important to be familiar with course requirements on Day One. The two most important documents to help you are (a) the course syllabus and (b) the “Course Overview” which you can see at the top of the menu bar on the left side of the course under the Content tab. After reading “Course Overview,” you will be directed to do several things, including reading the syllabus, clicking on various links, and then submitting the “Student Information Sheet.” By submitting the Student Information Sheet you acknowledge that you have read the syllabus are familiar with the course requirements and have asked questions about items for which you need more clarification.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Examples include: Using the learning management system, using Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, using presentation and graphics programs, proficiency with the WWW etc.

Instructional Methods

This course will include Readings from the assigned textbook, quizzes and class discussions based on the textbook, and varied Leadership Lesson Assignments based on other web-based sources. It is very important to go online frequently to: (1) read any new announcements, (2) check your MyLeo-Mail, (3) review assignments, (4) check the Schedule of Assignments, (5) check for documents I return to you and comments on graded assignments, and (6) communicate as needed with your instructor and class members. More information is provided within the course shell.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Success in the course is largely based on keeping up with assignments which requires regularly logging into the course website, and not waiting until the last minute to complete assignments.

GRADING/ASSESSMENTS

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Introduce Yourself Slide Show & Student Information Sheet (Required, but not graded). During the first week of class, you will submit an information sheet that provides important information about you and your leadership experiences. You will also produce a short slide show, with pictures, to share interesting things about yourself with your classmates. The audience for your slide show is the class members enrolled in EDCI 535 and the purpose is to provide an autobiography of your personal and professional life experiences. (SLO 3)

Read the textbook and take quizzes over the content (30% of the total course grade). The text for the course is "The 360 Degree Leader: Developing Your Influence from Anywhere in the Organization (John Maxwell). You will read one or two sections in each unit of study and then take an open book quiz over the content. You can complete the assigned reading any time but all quizzes are scheduled during the final few days of each unit. (SLO 1)

Small Group Threaded Discussion (30% of total course grade). Small group discussion is a way for you to (1) interact with others about your learning, (2) express personal and professional opinions, and (3) debate issues with your group members. You will be assigned to groups of 5-8 students and use Threaded Discussion during each of the five units to share and interact. Threaded Discussion is an asynchronous venue whereby you communicate with your group members but you do not need to be in your group at the same time. During a period of about one week you and your group members will submit your initial response about a topic or question. The following week you come back to Threaded Discussion, read everything your group members have posted and respond to them in a meaningful way. (SLO 2-5)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Your participation in threaded discussion will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

Initial Entry: While there is not a minimum required length, thoughtfulness and insight are expected.

Responses to Group Members: While there is not a minimum required length, thoughtfulness and insight are expected. In order to get full credit, you must thoughtfully respond to at least 3 members of your discussion group members.

Lessons on Leadership (40% of the total course credit). In each unit, you will complete a lesson on leadership. These will be based on additional readings, videos, websites, etc. or your own research that will allow you to learn about aspects of teacher leadership and develop your leadership abilities. Each lesson includes a reflection/worksheet in which you will reflect on your learning (WHAT), how that learning influenced your thinking and beliefs (SO WHAT), and what you plan to do as a result (NOW WHAT) and submitted to the appropriate Submission Folder. (SLO # 2 – 5)

0 - Not Turned In or Not Accepted By Instructor

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Grading Policy and Due Dates:

Unless otherwise announced, all work is due by midnight on the date stated in the Schedule of Assignments. The Schedule of Assignments is the only official list of due dates and take precedence over due dates in any other documents.

Submit Work Early. Given that computer and technical problems can often crop up at the last minute, it is never wise to wait until the last minute to submit assignments. Give yourself plenty of time in the event you need to implement a back-up plan.

Attaching Assignments to the Submission Folder. You are responsible for attaching the correct assignment to the correct Submission Folder. Once you submit your assignment, you should always check to make sure the correct assignment is there.
