

MUS 149
Piano Lessons for non-music majors
Course Syllabus: Spring 2024

Instructor Information

Instructor:	David Vergara, instructor
Office Location:	Music Building 216
Office Hours:	set up appointment.
Phone:
University Email Address:	David.vergara@tamuc.edu
Preferred communication:	Email
Reply response time:	within 24 hours

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact the instructor via email or set up an appointment to address your concerns as soon as possible. Contact information for adjunct instructors or teaching assistants associated with the course will be given at the first lesson and can be found on D2L.

Course Information

Course Description

MUS 149 is applied music at the beginner level intended for students majoring in subjects other than music.

Student Learning Outcomes

- 1) Successful performance of a jury consisting of:
 - a. technical skills as determined by teacher according to skill level of student
 - b. piano solo (memory requirements determined by the teacher)
 - c. second piano solo from a different style period or other skill demonstrating work done during the semester
- 2) Semester study will include other skills not played at the jury that are agreed upon by the teacher and student, especially as determined by future job aspirations or personal interests.

Required Textbook

At the first lesson after music is chosen for the semester, a list of expected music purchases will be given to the student. Once the list is given, the student has two weeks to purchase the books. The teacher will provide photocopies of technical exercises, etudes, accompaniments, or any other individual pieces to be covered during the semester.

Course Requirements

Instructional Methods: Required Practice of Piano

Students are expected to practice daily for a minimum of thirty minutes to one hour. It is almost impossible to “cram” at the last minute and perform well on the jury. The jury is a performance, not a written test like those given in other classes. Students are not only expected to play the elements on jury well, but to do so in a performance setting in front of multiple jurors. Daily preparation is the only way to overcome nerves and to give the best performance possible!

Piano Studio Recital

The “Just for Fun” Piano Studio Recital will be scheduled later in the semester at 6pm in the Recital Hall. Students are encouraged but not required to perform in the recital. Performances can include solos, duets, trios, quartets, accompaniments, etc.

Assessments

Assessment type, percentage of final grade, and relationship to student learning outcomes

Attendance and preparation for lessons	40%	SLO 1, 2
Jury performance	60%	SLO 1, 2

Grading Scale

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or below

Course Calendar

Week 1-15 Regular instruction

Week 16 Jury performance

Course and University Procedures / Policies

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all 30-minute lessons and studio classes scheduled by the instructor. Only one absence is allowed. Each additional absence will lower the final grade by 50 points (half a letter grade). A student may be dropped from the course after four absences. Repeated tardiness will lower the final grade by 5 points for each instance. Lessons will be counted as a tardy if all necessary materials are not brought by the student. There is no regularly scheduled studio class for this course.

Late Assignments and Missed Exams

Lack of preparation is not an adequate excuse for rescheduling a lesson. Lessons will only be rescheduled in the case of a medical excuse or university sponsored trip when advanced notification is given. It is the student's responsibility to appropriately plan the activities of the week to complete adequate practice and come prepared to the lesson. Jury performances are scheduled for a specific day/time and will not be made up for any reason other than a verified medical event or university sponsored trip.

Academic Integrity

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures: Undergraduate Academic Dishonesty 13.99.99.R0.03

Students with Disabilities-- ADA Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability requiring an accommodation, contact the Office of Student Disability Services at 903-886-5150, 903-886—5835; email studentdisabilityservices@tamuc.edu; online at Office of Student Disability Resources and Services; or in-person in Room 162 of the Velma K. Waters Library.

Tenets of Common Behavior

All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. (See current Student Guidebook);

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

Campus Concealed Carry - Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to <http://www.tamuc.edu/aboutUs/policiesProceduresStandardsStatements/rulesProcedures/34SafetyOfEmployeesAndStudents/34.06.02.R1.pdf> and/or consult your event organizer). Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.