COURSE INFORMATION

Textbook(s) Required:

Joyce, Bruce, Weil, Marsha, and Calhoun, Emily. (2014). Models of Teaching (9th Edition). Boston: Pearson Education.

Course Description

This course explores the models of instruction, with emphasis on the associated theories of teaching and learning. The course encourages teachers to integrate the models into practice and offers opportunities for research on the connections between teaching and learning theories, cognitive psychology, and educational philosophies.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Student Learning Outcomes:

This course has been designed to provide instruction on the models of instruction and teaching and learning theories. The following are general instructional objectives for this course:

1. To examine the models of instruction according to the associated philosophical, theoretical assumptions.
2. To develop a sound understanding of the branches of educational psychology and teaching and learning theory.
3. To explore through research the application of the models to educational practice.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements will constitute the grade for this course. More specific details about each assignment will be included in Brightspace D2L.

Models of Instruction Demonstration and Reflection:	25%
Participation in weekly readings, chat, discussion postings: (Each week worth 10 %, with 5 sessions total)	50%
Final Examination:	25%

Total = 100%

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Learning in an online environment necessitates regular (daily) involvement in class materials and activities. Each week, students will need to view the online lectures, post comments on the discussion boards, complete the assigned readings (with accompanying journals), and participate in the chats. Attending the chats is strongly encouraged; however, the chats will be archived for later viewing. Students electing not to attend the chats are still responsible for viewing the material and completing the alternate assignment by the deadline.

See the course D2L Brightspace page for additional details about assessments.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Students should be able to submit Word documents and presentation materials, operate a video camera, participate in Zoom/ online conferences, navigate Brightspace D2L, and use technology for presentations. The use of photography, video, and other multimedia is encouraged. The use of artificial intelligence as a substitute for students' writing is prohibited.

Instructional Methods

As a social constructivist educator with strong considerations for thinking and inquiry within the disciplines, my teaching style involves peer collaboration, dialogic learning, analytical and aesthetic thinking, and inquiry methods.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Please review course materials and the calendar. I recommend checking your MyLeo email regularly and the course announcements page for updates. Also, if you need assistance, please reach out to me to schedule a personal conference. Peer support groups are encouraged.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

LMS

All course sections offered by Texas A&M University-Commerce have a corresponding course shell in the myLeo Online Learning Management System (LMS). Below are technical requirements

ACCESS AND NAVIGATION

You will need your campus-wide ID (CWID) and password to log into the course. If you do not know your CWID or have forgotten your password, contact the Center for IT Excellence (CITE) at 903.468.6000 or helpdesk@tamuc.edu.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Note: Personal computer and internet connection problems do not excuse the requirement to complete all course work in a timely and satisfactory manner. Each student needs to have a backup method to deal with these inevitable problems. These methods might include the availability of a backup PC at home or work, the temporary use of a computer at a friend's home, the local library, office service companies, Starbucks, a TAMUC campus open computer lab, etc.

COMMUNICATION AND SUPPORT

If you have any questions or are having difficulties with the course material, please contact your instructor.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Assignment Submission Policy: The instructor reserves the right to change course assignments, projects, and examinations throughout the semester. Each assignment/project must be completed and turned in by the due date given. All assignments are due by 11:59 midnight on the date indicated on the calendar. All assignments are submitted electronically on D2L Brightspace. Late assignments shall be subject to letter grade reductions (usually a 70 or half credit) or non-acceptance at the instructor's discretion.

In the case of unexpected emergencies, students must provide written documentation regarding their missed assignments. The instructor reserves the right to deny make-up opportunities, especially in cases of negligence. It is expected that all course assignments/projects (inside and outside of class and including examinations) will be completed at mastery level (as designated by the instructor). If (in the professional opinion of the instructor) an assignment/project is not satisfactorily completed, it may be returned to the student, and the student may be required to re-do the work until it is at mastery level. The instructor reserves the right to limit the number of times an assignment/project may be re-submitted and to establish a reasonable time frame for resubmissions. If any course assignment/project is not completed at a mastery level by the final resubmission deadline, the instructor reserves the right to assign the student a grade of "I" or "F" for the assignment and/or course--at the instructor's discretion.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.
<http://www.tamuc.edu/Admissions/oneStopShop/undergraduateAdmissions/studentGuidebook.aspx>
