COURSE INFORMATION

Course Description

Learning to leverage your natural talents allows you to become more productive, engaged, and successful in your work by focusing on what energizes you. This interactive class includes access to Gallup's StrengthsFinder tool- a powerful self-assessment that identifies your unique top 5 themes of talent- with opportunities to build on your report findings in ways that enhance how you see yourself and work with others. Understanding natural talent is just the beginning of strengths discovery so plan to go beyond foundational awareness and dig into intentional investment into your innate talents to apply to your work and life. Learn what you do best and then maximize your potential.

Student Learning Outcomes

Completion of this course provides the student with the knowledge to:

1. Identify their unique talents and strengths through validated talent and strength assessments.
2. Analyze how their talents and strengths relate to their academic, personal, and professional goals.
3. Develop strategies to further cultivate their talents and build upon their strengths.
4. Apply their talents and strengths to enhance learning, productivity, achievement, and engagement across domains.
5. Evaluate how effectively they are leveraging their talents and strengths to attain excellence and persistence in meaningful activities.

Investing in US Description

"Investing in Us" offers a professional development program at no cost to Texas A&M University-Commerce faculty and staff through a series of credit-bearing, academic, master classes. The program promotes a supportive environment for employees seeking to learn, grow, and thrive in their careers. "Investing in Us" seeks to invest the university's significant and relevant academic knowledge and experiences into its faculty and staff, which will best position them to build on their strengths, talents, and skills and invest them back into serving students at Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Course Materials & Requirements

All materials for this course will be provided in class or online. Course participants will be issued an online access code (valued at $25) to redeem for free access to the StrengthsFinder assessment. Assessment completion includes a personalized CliftonStrengths report that includes student-specific insights, reflective exercises, and action items.

Other reading or course materials will be provided in class or through the D2L course shell.

Instructional Methods/Activities

Students enrolled in the course should come to class prepared to participate. Regular attendance and active participation are expected over the eight-week course. You will get out of the class what you put in so engaging for the whole hour is essential. Your reflection and feedback are not only valuable for your growth and development but for your peers as well.

Some written assignments will require greater time and reflection but are integral to your course experience. These assignments will be identified and should be completed in advance of class to either bring with you to the next class meeting or upload in D2L by the assigned date.

All in-class activities will build towards your final project: a group action plan or individual presentation completed in class.
