COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Enrolled students will need a working knowledge of how to access the course online, access materials and resources the instructor posts, recording/posting videos, and the use of word processing programs for submitting assignments. Instructional Methods This course will be facilitated using D2L, the learning management system used by Texas A&M University-Commerce. The instructor has included various forms of instructional tools in the course such as lecture slides, videos, helpful websites/resources, scholarly articles, and discussion topics.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Students will be responsible for completing assigned readings and activities in required timelines. To be successful in this course, students should plan sufficient time to read all assigned readings and any other activities (for example, watch videos or locate websites). All work must be completed within time limits, so time management is a priority. Students must complete all assignments before the due date. In addition, students must work diligently as collaborative group members. Students who do not exhibit good citizenship to the class and to their group will not receive a high grade and will have difficulty passing the course.

Instructional Methods

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90% - 100%

B = 80% - 89%

C = 70%- 79%

D = 60% - 69%

F = 59% or Below

Before turning in your assignment:

- Read rubrics and weekly schedule for each assignment
- Check your grammar errors and format requirement (e.g. APA),
- Use people first language, and
- Submit all written assignments in myLeo (Activities-Assignments).

All assignments will be evaluated within a week after the due date, please send me a reminder if you do not see your grades on time.

Assignment	Points
Weekly Assignments: Quiz or Discussion	40
Resource Guide Repository	25
Case Study	30
Professionalism and Good Conduct	5
Total	100

1. Weekly Assignments:

For each week, you will be given assignments to read, go through a PowerPoint lecture, and weekly assignments that will cover all the information for that week. Please read carefully the information that follows about each type of assignment.

Typically, the weekly assignments will be open for the entire week, and generally, will close on Sunday at 11:59 pm but you are responsible to verify the closing date/time of each assignment.

a. Quiz (D2L-Activities-Quizzes). You will be allowed to take the quiz only one time unless otherwise noted. These quizzes are open book, open notes, but do not copy and paste your answers or plagiarize. Your answers should be in your own words. The quizzes will be timed so, even though you can have access to your book, you will need to have a good understanding of all the material in advance of taking the quiz to complete it timely.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

b. Reflective Discussion (D2L-Activities-Discussions). For each discussion, you are to contribute thoughtful reflections to a thought-provoking question based on assigned readings/lectures/ videos, etc. As these are individualized reflections, you cannot copy your opinion from the text, Google, etc. and your opinion may differ from your classmates. For all discussion forum, you will be required to respond to at least one posting of one of your classmates. In responding to another person's post, be considerate and respectful. Your peer response must be posted by the next Sunday. Provide your own opinion about the discussion prompt. Provide evidence to support your opinion. Evidence must be from readings, lecture slides, other peer-reviewed articles. Please adhere to APA citation guidelines.

2. Resource Guide Repository: Students will be required to create a cloud-based repository where specific products and resources will be stored and shared with the instructor. The purpose of this assignment is to provide the student a professional resource repository to use while practicing as a service provider for individuals with social communication impairments, including ASD.

3. Case Study will include: (a) Case information - Describe demographic and contextual information on the student (b) Literature review - Review at least 5 peer-reviewed articles to support your case study. (c) Methods: Describe your case study methods (e.g. interviews, duration/frequencies, observations-durations/frequencies, illustration of the educational and cultural milieu, etc.) (d). Findings: Illustrate key findings (e.g. academic, behavioral, and functional performance, educational trajectories, postsecondary goals, special education and related services) (e.) Reflection: Provide your suggestions that can improve the student's academic achievement and functional performance. Explain how this case study impact your professional knowledge and goals.

4. Professionalism, Participation, and Good Conduct: It is expected that all products are completed in a timely manner and free of spelling and grammatical errors. Additionally, students are expected to use professional vernacular of (dis)ability culture, which includes using person-first language at all times when referring to individuals with a disability (e.g., a child with autism or a student with behavioral problems). Respectful and culturally responsive discourse on discussion boards and interactions with the instructor are required! Professionalism in communications with the instructor and peers WILL BE EVALUATED—this is a course in social skills and students will be expected to display them throughout the course.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Professional Conduct. Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature and responsible adults while enrolled in this course. Be cognizant that side conversations in class can be distracting to the instructor and your classmates. Please show respect for others when they speak. If you do not agree with their point of view, ask for clarification or offer alternative viewpoints. Behavior meant to demean or belittle a class member will not be tolerated. Also, student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at TAMUC. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor will seek the assistance from the proper authorities (e.g. Chair of Psychology, Counseling, & Special Education and/or Dean's Office).

E-mail and myLEOonline (D2L Brightspace). All Students should activate and regularly check their Leo Mail and myLEOonline (D2L Brightspace) accounts associated with this class. All assignments will be turned in on myLEOonline (D2L Brightspace) (when applicable) unless otherwise instructed to do something differently by the instructor of this course. All class communication will be done through D2L. I WILL NOT send communication about the class to personal email accounts.

Late Assignments: Late assignments will NOT be accepted unless you have provided adequate documentation allowing your absence to be excused (doctor's note in case of illness or copy of a funeral program in case of a death of a loved one). In the event your absence is excused, the missing assignment or exam must be completed within 1 week of your return to class or the student will receive a grade of 0.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advanced.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/netiquette>

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, Chatbots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed. For this course, such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the Drop Policy. Students are responsible for officially dropping/withdrawing themselves from the course; failure to do so will result in a grade of "F." Please refer to the academic calendar in order to be aware of drop dates. The instructor reserves the right to do an administrative drop in certain situations.

Academic Integrity

All students are expected to conform to the Texas A&M University- Commerce's Code of Student Conduct Procedures as it relates to academic integrity. This states in part that all instances of cheating, fabrication and plagiarism are prohibited and will be reported. Any student who assists in any form of dishonesty is equally as guilty as the student who accepts such assistance. Any work submitted to me with your name alone on it should represent your work alone. Even in the event you are assigned group projects each student is still expected to complete their own part of the assignment. To the extent that others contribute ideas, suggestions, they must be directly credited by name (and fully cited as appropriate). Disciplinary action will be taken against any student found in violation of the Code, which may include failure of the given assignment, failure in the course, and possible expulsion from the University. In the event a student fails to abide by the rules set forth in the TAMUC policy, they will receive a grade of 0 on that assignment with no opportunity to make that grade up and the student will be reported to the appropriate university officials.

Students at Texas A&M University-Commerce are expected to maintain high standards of integrity and honesty in all of their scholastic work. For more details and the definition of academic dishonesty see the following procedures:
