COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to provide the student with information about the application of psychological theories to the learning processes and provide information about the development of children and adolescents. Principles and procedures of measurement and evaluation are also included. The primary objective is to facilitate a clear understanding of the complex and dynamic processes of learning and development.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The four major areas that will be covered in this course are:

- 1) development;
- 2) learning and motivation;
- 3) measurement and evaluation; and,
- 4) professionalization issues, including critical thinking.

Student Learning Outcomes

- 1) distinguish age-appropriate behaviors as they relate to learning and teaching;
- 2) apply the theories of the teaching-learning processes to how people learn, what factors motivate them, and how they retain knowledge;
- 3) distinguish between measurement and evaluation and the implication of each for assessing student progress.
- 4) Apply the theories of learning processes and development in real-world scenarios.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Be able to use

- the learning management system
- Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- Windows system or Mac system.

Instructional Methods

This is an online course, which is not to be interpreted as self-paced. Rather, you are required to log on regularly (preferably every day) in order to succeed. You may consume the material at a more rapid pace than set by the below schedule, but assignments, quizzes, and exams will still take place according to the schedule. Quizzes and Exams will be open for 2-3 days. If you are unable to complete the exam in this time frame, you must contact me ahead of time to re-schedule.

Student Responsibilities and Tips for Success in the Course

Read the text: Read the chapter we are covering when it is assigned. This prepares you to complete the assigned work.

Ask questions: If there is something you do not understand, ask questions. You may email me directly! Ask questions as early as you can! – The most important!

Please feel free to contact me any time you have questions. I make a rule for myself, and I would like for you to follow it. If I spend an hour on something, and really give it my all, but I still can't get it, it's time to ask for help. Don't be afraid to ask for help! Don't just sit there getting frustrated!

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Take notes: Take GOOD notes while you read. It is a good study habit to go over your notes at the end of each week, filling in the blanks from the supplemental video(s) and assignment. It is also a good idea to make friends in the course and get the phone numbers of a couple of people who you can clarify notes with.

Utilize D2L: All instructions, due dates, and submission of graded material are to be completed in D2L. Email submission will not be accepted. Please take some time to familiarize yourself with the system and contact me or IT with questions in advance.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale: 400 total points

A 360 – 400 = 90% - 100%

B 320 – 359 = 80% < 90%

C 280 – 319 = 70% < 80%

D 240 – 279 = 60% < 70%

F below 240

Assessments

Discussions	(10 x 10pts)	100 points
Quizzes	(15 x 20pts)	300 points
Total points possible		400 points

1.) Discussions (10 discussions, total 100 points): Each discussion is worth 10 points and is designed to encourage participation, reading, and to ensure that you engage in content thoroughly with peers. The initial post should be substantial discussion on the topic you pick. At least two peer responses are needed to the full credit. There are no make-up opportunities for missed or late submissions for missed discussions and peer responses.

2.) Quizzes (15 exams, total 300 points): Each exam is timed and worth 20 points, consisting of 20 multiple choice questions.

NO MAKE-UP EXAMS WILL BE GIVEN. All exams (including the final) will be due at 11:59 pm on Sunday. However, you're strongly encouraged to complete it by Friday. Exams may be rescheduled, without penalty, only when arrangements have been made 48 hours in advance of the testing date. Please contact me within the first week of class if they have conflicts with the exam dates. Make-up exams will only be given in the case of verifiable medical or legal emergencies.

Verifiable means that written documentation is provided (e.g., signed doctors' notes, court appearance tickets, newspaper obituaries). The final decision concerning make-up exams rests with me, the instructor. If no valid excuse is presented your exam grade is a zero.

You are responsible for all lecture/supplemental videos and reading materials. The exams are not open notes or textbooks and should be taken individually.

Interaction with Instructor Statement

I am here to support you. My office hours are listed on the top of the syllabus. If you would like to set up a Zoom meeting, please email me to schedule a time. Office hours are subject to change, and I will inform students via D2L if there are any changes. My normal email response time is 24 hours but may take up to 48 hours. If you do not hear back from me within 2 business days, please email me again in case I did not receive your message. Your assignments will be graded and returned to you within one week.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

EMAIL POLICY

If you would like to schedule an appointment, the best way is to email. We can then set up a time to chat when it is convenient for both of us. If you email me and do not receive an email response within 48 hours during the weekday, most likely, your email was not received.

EMAIL GUIDELINES

In an attempt to provide a framework for professional communication, emails must contain the following:

- Subject Line: Course and section # (e.g. PSY 300-01W); additional information if desired (e.g. Piaget's theory)
- Address the Reader: Open with "Dr. Jiang..."
- Use good grammar and avoid acronyms (i.e., do not write like you text)
- Ask good questions; a good question is specific and show me the effort you've made.
 - If asking for assistance with an issue, please list how you have attempted to remediate the issue prior to contacting me (these should probably include looking at the syllabus/ course rubrics/ D2L, contacting a colleague, and checking your textbook, etc.)

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

- Close with your name and CWID.
- Please send emails from your University Leomail account.
- The instructor will NOT discuss grades over email. If you would like to discuss your grade, please make an appointment during office hours.
