Optional Texts and/or Materials

Course Description

This course focuses on factors of diversity that impact decisions educators must make regarding design and implementation of curriculum, teaching strategies, and materials in order to provide equity and excellence for all learners.

The goals of EDCI 559 include, but are not limited to providing students the skills necessary to accomplish the course objectives.

Student Learning Outcomes
Learning outcomes are supported by NCATE Standard 4: Diversity

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

The unit designs, implements, and evaluates curriculum and experiences for candidates to acquire and apply the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to help all students learn. These experiences include working with diverse higher education and school faculty, diverse candidates, and diverse students in P–12 schools.

Moreover, learning outcomes are supported by the Goals and Objectives of The National Association for Multicultural Educators-NAME <http://nameorg.org/names-missio/goals-objectives/>
There are six points of consensus regarding multicultural education that are central to NAME's philosophy, and serve as NAME's goals:

- To respect and appreciate cultural diversity.
- To promote the understanding of unique cultural and ethnic heritage.
- To promote the development of culturally responsible and responsive curricula.
- To facilitate acquisition of the attitudes, skills, and knowledge to function in various cultures.
- To eliminate racism and discrimination in society.
- To achieve social, political, economic, and educational equity.

During this course, the learner will:

1. Reflect on personal and professional life developments as they relate to your beliefs and practices as a teacher. – Accomplished by book club and textbook readings, stepping outside your comfort zone and discussions.
2. Be familiar with current and classical literature on the effects of diversity on student learning, e.g., socioeconomic status (SES), race, gender, achievement, handicapping conditions, etc. – Accomplished by book club and textbook readings, interview with an ELL and discussion prompts.
3. Become familiar with literature about children in different populations on the topic of diversity and learning. Accomplished by book club and textbook readings, interview with an ELL and essay and discussion prompts.
4. Understand one's own personality (learning styles, intra- and interpersonal characteristics, temperament, child centeredness, etc.) and describe how these traits impact instruction and learning of students in the classroom. Accomplished by book club and textbook readings, discussion prompts, cultural memoir, and stepping outside your comfort zone.
5. Identify and implement instructional and management strategies that are successful among diverse populations. Accomplished by book club and textbook readings and discussion prompts, interview with an ELL and essay, and stepping outside your comfort zone.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

Using the learning management system (D2L Brightspace), using Microsoft Office software, using presentation and graphics programs, using chat programs such as Adobe Connect and Zoom, and using VoiceThread.

Instructional Methods

This course is delivered 100% online. It includes essays, inquiry-based discussions, quizzes, collaborative projects, and individual assignments.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

Success in the course is largely based on keeping up with assignments which requires regularly logging into the course website, and not waiting until the last minute to complete assignments.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100%

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

Please note that ONE letter grade will be deducted for each day your Cultural Memoir, Stepping Outside your Comfort Zone, and Interview with an ELL and Essay are submitted late. Another letter grade will be deducted for each day the assignment is late thereafter. For example, if your assignment is submitted at 12:00 a.m., instead of 11:59 p.m. on the date the assignment is due, the highest grade you can earn is a “B”. If it is turned in two days late, the highest grade you can earn is a “C” and so on. Discussions that are posted late will not be evaluated and the student will receive a “zero” for that discussion.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

YOU MUST USE HEADINGS IN YOUR Cultural Memoir, Stepping Outside Your Comfort Zone and Interview with an ELL Papers/Essays. Please see the example paper in Doc Sharing. If you look at the comments in the right margin, I have labeled the headings and sub-headings.

DOCTORAL STUDENTS WILL COMPLETE THE ASSIGNMENTS at the bottom of the assignment list IN ADDITION TO ASSIGNMENTS 1-6

1. Discussion Posts and/or Activities See D2L for Due dates

You will be assigned activities and/or discussion prompts/questions. These will be located under the discussion tab in D2L. You are to respond to the instructor’s prompts/questions by the closing date of the module 11:59 p.m.

Response Posts: Each student must post ONE original response OR respond to at least ONE of their peer’s discussion posts for each discussion prompt by the closing date of the module by 11:59 p.m. (not activities). Each response post should insightfully answer the question posed and be grounded in empirical evidence (meaning you will support your response with evidence from your readings). Each should show evidence of critical thinking and continue to further the discussion. Stating I agree is not adequate. Please see the Discussion Board Rubric in Doc Sharing so that you know how you will be graded.

2. Cultural Memoir Essay Due

You should collect three to six significant objects, photographs, writings, etc. to help you think about your own cultural background. You will write a reflective essay that describes the objects you chose (you may scan these in) and addresses the following questions, as appropriate and in ways that are meaningful to you. You may substitute other questions if you choose. YOU MUST USE HEADINGS IN YOUR PAPER.

- What do the objects in your memoir signify to you in terms of cultural values?
- What have you learned from others in your social context about who you are, what is important to you, what values you hold, how you think about education and yourself as a student and a teacher?
- What life experiences (e.g., cross-cultural experiences, travel, friends who are different from you) have helped you make what is invisible, more visible related to your cultural values?
- What are the connections with the things that you learned about yourself during this assignment and the expectations you have for students in your classroom?
- How have your values and perspectives shaped how you think about others? About difference? About social justice in schools and society?

3. Stepping Outside Your Comfort Zone

Below, I have provided a list of movies or videos available in your local video store for rent, on cable/satellite TV, or some may be found in the TAMU-Commerce media library or your local library. Some of these movies are also available for rent online and you can watch them on your computer. If there is a movie you would like to view that is not on the list below, please get permission from your instructor. You are to attend an event or view two movies from the same category that will help you learn about a topic and/or group different from a group to which you belong. The idea is that you will experience people different from those who are a part of your normal daily circle of family and friends. So you can not submit for credit an experience from your own group. More information is available on D2L. If you are looking for an event to attend, some can be found on www.dfwinternational.org. View the movies or attend the presentation or event. Take note of your interaction with people at the presentation or event, write a brief reflection of your experience. Your reflection should include the following elements: 1) a synopsis or summary description of the movie plot (if you select movies, make this portion VERY brief), presentation topic, or event; 2) what insights, new information, or attitude changes you gained about the particular social issue or group involved; 3) what implications you think your new insights, information, or attitudes have for your behavior as an educator. This should be a large portion in your paper. A big emphasis should be placed on this third element.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

4. The Interview with an ELL and Essay

Interview an adult or teenager whose first language is not English. The interview should focus on that individual's experiences learning the English language. In particular, focus the interview on: 1) the method by which the person learned or is learning English; 2) what does/did the person find most frustrating or difficult about the experience; 3) what aspects of U. S. society and culture does the person find difficult to understand; why did the person decide to come to the U. S. You are not limited to these questions; however, at a minimum, these questions must be addressed. Write an essay in which you present your interview findings. Discuss what implications you see in your interviewee's response for you as a teacher of children whose first language is not English as well as those whose first language is English.

5. Book Club Discussions

Review the document in Doc Sharing that includes the Book Club Book Summaries. Please select a first and second choice from the books. Go to the Student Lounge tab in Course Home. There you will find a place to indicate your first and second choice. The deadline to select your book is Sunday, @11:59 p.m. If you do not indicate a choice by the deadline, I will select a Book Club Book for you. I will create groups and let you know the Book Club Book you will be reading ASAP. Please Order your Book Club Book after I have let you know the book you will be reading.

•Book Club Group readings and discussions do not occur until Module 4. Your group will collaboratively decide due dates for reading chapters in the book. Module 4 includes the discussion format and you will have discussion due dates.

6. Student Information Sheet Due by the end of the Introduction Module.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

7. Module Quizzes (50 points each) Due by the end of each module.

Milestones in Education (75 points) Due by the end of Module 2

You will be assigned TWO milestones in Education that are worth a total of 75 points. Find two historical articles. Two that support and two that negate your milestone. Next, find two current (last 5 years) articles that supports and two that negate your milestone. (This should be approximately 1-2 double spaced pages). You will need to include all of the following information You will need to make sure you explain and include the following:

1. Background or context of the milestone.
2. Significance of the milestone.
3. Relevance of the milestone to diversity in education.

Pictorial Presentation-You will create a pictorial presentation of your Milestone in Education. Please see D2L for more specifics.

Doctoral Student Assignment 1. Diversity Book Review (100 points) Due by the end of Module 4

You will select a book from the list found in Doc Sharing and write a book review. Include the following in your review:

1. Information about the author
2. The main themes in the book
3. Analysis of the books strengths and weaknesses and examples of each
4. Conclusion

More specifics about the book review can be found in D2L.

Education Policy Revision (60 points)

You will select two education (in regard to diversity and equity) policies that don't support effective instruction. These can be policies at the campus, district, state or national level. Your task is to rewrite the policy so that it does support effective instruction. Your rewritten policy should include the following: the original policy, research that supports your belief that the policy is not appropriate, your rewritten policy, and why you chose this policy. You must include in your education policy revisions and references.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Browser support

D2L is committed to performing key application testing when new browser versions are released. New and updated functionality is also tested against the latest version of supported browsers. However, due to the frequency of some browser releases, D2L cannot guarantee that each browser version will perform as expected. If you encounter any issues with any of the browser versions listed in the tables below, contact D2L Support, who will determine the best course of action for resolution. Reported issues are prioritized by supported browsers and then maintenance browsers.

Supported browsers are the latest or most recent browser versions that are tested against new versions of D2L products. Customers can report problems and receive support for issues. For an optimal experience, D2L recommends using supported browsers with D2L products.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Maintenance browsers are older browser versions that are not tested extensively against new versions of D2L products. Customers can still report problems and receive support for critical issues; however, D2L does not guarantee all issues will be addressed. A maintenance browser becomes officially unsupported after one year.

Note the following:

- Ensure that your browser has JavaScript and Cookies enabled.
- For desktop systems, you must have Adobe Flash Player 10.1 or greater.
- The Brightspace Support features are now optimized for production environments when using the Google Chrome browser, Apple Safari browser, Microsoft Edge browser, Microsoft Internet Explorer browser, and Mozilla Firefox browsers.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

You are expected to participate in all classes and activities. This is an online course so participation is up to you this includes readings, discussions, and assignments.

Research: Research is part of TAMU-C requirements. All faculty members that work at the university must research and publish their research. As action research helps an instructor to determine the worth of the class assignment they develop, I like to do research on assignments and/or activities used in our class. Therefore, any reflective responses to the planned class activities may be used to fulfill my research requirement. However, all responses used in research articles will be anonymous. That is, no names or any identification about specific students will be used anywhere in my research. If you disagree to this, please let me know and I will give you a paper to fill out and I will not use any response I know is from you.

Policies:

- 1) The publication manual for the American Psychological Association (APA), 6th ed., should be used for citations, references, and manuscript style for all written work.
- 2) Written work should be turned in according to the class schedule. Assignments are due by 11:59 p.m on the day indicated, unless otherwise indicated. No late discussion postings and/or assignments will be accepted or receive any credit. No exceptions will be made. Plan ahead and try to complete assignments well in advance to avoid last-minute problems. Computer difficulties will not be accepted as an excuse for late submission. Students are encouraged to check with different browsers, security levels; and, if settings on home computers are not compatible, they are encouraged to use libraries or computer labs on campus or local/private cyber cafes. It is a good idea to allow plenty of time for eleventh-hour adversities.
- 3) All assignments should be the student's own work. Please read the student handbook for information regarding the penalty for plagiarism. All documented cases of plagiarism will result in an automatic zero (0) on that assignment and may be forwarded to the Office of Student Life for disciplinary action. Remember that even copying one sentence without proper citation/quotations constitutes plagiarism!
- 4) Please note that points will be deducted for incomplete assignments and for those that are not of graduate level high quality.

Plagiarism Policy:

Professionals are careful to include appropriate citations of all sources. Without citations, you are presenting ideas or words as your own. Paraphrasing another's work calls for a citation to give credit to the author. Even when you cite accurately, you need to use your own words; use direct quotes very sparingly. It is imperative that you create your own work and use your original words. Cutting and pasting from another source is not acceptable.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY STATEMENT:

Academic integrity is the foundation of the academic community. Because each student has the primary responsibility for being academically honest, students are advised to read and understand all sections in this handbook relating to standards of conduct and academic life.

Definitions

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Academic dishonesty includes cheating, plagiarism, falsifying academic records and other acts intentionally designed to provide unfair advantage to the student or the attempt to commit such acts. Cheating includes, but is not limited to, intentionally giving or receiving unauthorized aid or notes on examinations, papers, or class assignments intended to be individually completed. Cheating also includes the unauthorized copying of tests or any other deceit or fraud related to the student's academic conduct. Plagiarism occurs when a student obtains someone else's work and presents those ideas or words as her or his own academic work. Falsifying academic records includes, but is not limited to, altering grades or other academic records.

Honesty in completing assignments is essential to the mission of the university and to the development of the personal integrity of the student. Cheating, plagiarism, or other kinds of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and will result in appropriate sanctions that may include failing an assignment, failing the class, or being suspended or expelled. Suspected cases in this course will be reported. The specific disciplinary process for academic dishonesty is found in the TAMU-C Student Handbook.

Please see the Student Handbook for additional information on academic dishonesty.

Professionalism Component

You are expected to demonstrate a professional attitude at all times. This includes respecting the thoughts of your peers as well as your instructor. Also included is the following: participating in small and large group discussions, being on time, staying the entire time, accepting constructive criticism, listening, turning in high quality work, and understanding that this is a growth experience. Students who come into class expecting an A need to rethink their reason for being here. If you want an A, then you must work to earn the A. The Professional Behavioral Standards Evaluation Form will be used at such a time as it is warranted due to non-compliance with these expectations. "All students enrolled at the university shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment." (See Student's Guide Handbook, Policies and Procedures, Conduct).

Online Discussions and Chat rooms

You will be expected to participate in online discussions and some chats. Post to discussion boards answer the questions thoroughly. There is no, "I agree with her" and that's it. You must respond in a professional manner. The discussions, please see rubric. No late discussion postings will be accepted or receive any credit. No exceptions will be made.

ONLINE CLASS EXPECTATIONS

Online courses are a lot of work, more so than a face to face meeting. You have to be disciplined to be successful. If you are not, this may not be the course for you. Do not get behind in this course. If you do, you will not succeed. Your readings and assignments are critical to your success in this course. Students are expected to spend approximately 6-7 hours per week on course work excluding readings. The points you earn for discussion boards and activities will help ensure that you are keeping up with your assignments. You also need to have computer equipment that works. I understand storms cause power outages. However, you are still responsible for completing all assignments by the due date. If you are having technical difficulties, you need to get it corrected a.s.a.p. I do not suggest waiting until the last minute to complete your assignments.

All students are expected to maintain high standards of quality of work and integrity. All written assignments are to be word processed, double-spaced and in 12 pt. font. All students are expected to maintain high standards of integrity; any use of the writing of others, must be quoted and cited.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Final Grade: Your final grade is a percentage of total possible points. You can figure your grade at any time by knowing the total possible points to date and computing the percentage. You have the right to appeal your final grade.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures
