Textbook Required:

- Knowles, M. S., Holton, E. F., & Swanson, R. A. (2020). The adult learner: The definitive classic in adult education and human resource development (9th ed.). Routledge. ISBN: 9780367417659.

Course Description

This course is specially designed to provide you with an in-depth theoretical and applied understanding of adult learning and development in any postsecondary and workplace settings. The processes and relationships between teaching and learning theories and practices are fully explored, with implications for effective experimentation and creative changes.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to understand and apply

- adult learning theories to their own experiences and skills;
- andragogy and pedagogy related to adult learning and development;
- the meaning of adult education to any teaching and learning situations;
- critical pedagogy, critical literacy, and dialogical pedagogy in adult and higher education.

Grading

Forum Discussions and Feedback (80% of grade)

- Students are required to write postings and to respond to at least 2 of their peer's postings on each learning modules. No late work will be accepted.
- In their postings, students are required to synthesize, apply, evaluate, or connect to the contents in the required and supplemental readings. Relying solely on the lectures and the textbook will be considered average work and will be graded accordingly. In addition, please remember to cite all references appropriately, quoting any use of exact wording of authors and adhering to APA and university standards. Deviation from these standards will also result in a reduced grade.
- Generally, a thoughtful discussion posting on each assigned learning module is due by Thursday of the second week and feedback on their peers' postings is due on Saturday of the third week. Both parts must be completed in order to receive full credit. Failure to complete one or both components will result in no points/credit awarded for that module.

Final Term Paper (20% of grade)

- Submission of a term paper reflecting a comprehensive application of concepts gained from the class contents.

The final grade will be based on the following ranges:

- A=90 to 100%
- B=80 to 89%
- C=70 to 79%
- D=60 to 69%
- F=59% or lower

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

COURSE AND UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES/POLICIES

Course Specific Procedures/Policies

Unless stated differently elsewhere in the syllabus, there will be a 10% penalty for written assignments turned in late. In some instances, failure to turn in an assignment has a rippling effect on other components of the class, such as timely threaded discussions or collaborative exercises. In such cases, you will be assigned an "F" for the class.

Respect Differing Views

As with all graduate courses, this course deals with ideas and opinions. It is important to be courteous and respectful of individuals who have expressed opinions and beliefs that are different from your own. In a disagreement, please ask for an explanation and rationale for their beliefs or opinions. Often, matters are more complicated than they seem. Only civil, sincere, and even-tempered written discussions will be permitted in this course.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Academic Honesty

Academic integrity is a critical part of scholarly experience. Acts of academic misconduct and plagiarism are very serious matters and will severely jeopardize your career as a student here at this institution. Plagiarism within an assignment will result in a failing grade for that assignment. I expect all assignments for this course to be honest and original scholarship produced specifically for this course. At the instructor's discretion, if plagiarism is accidental, an assignment may be rewritten and resubmitted for a maximum grade of 70% of the original total. Work produced, whether in part or in whole, from assignments for other courses will not be accepted for credit and will be considered a form of plagiarism. All acts of academic misconduct will be formally charged.

Students are strongly suggested to visit two of these sites for additional information:

- “Plagiarism and How to Avoid It” (University of Oklahoma)
- “How to Recognize Plagiarism: Tutorials and Tests” (Indiana University)

Writing Center

- Students are encouraged to visit the A&M-Commerce Writing Center and other locations for writing assistance. Graduate students, especially at the doctoral level, are expected to have a high level of writing ability and skills. Also, the instructor is available to help with the writing process by appointment.

Syllabus Change Policy

The syllabus is a guide. Circumstances and events, such as student progress, may make it necessary for the instructor to modify the syllabus during the semester. Any changes made to the syllabus will be announced in advance.

University Specific Procedures

Student Conduct

All students enrolled at the University shall follow the tenets of common decency and acceptable behavior conducive to a positive learning environment. The Code of Student Conduct is described in detail in the Student Guidebook.

Students should also consult the Rules of Netiquette for more information regarding how to interact with students in an online forum.

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Nondiscrimination Notice

Texas A&M University-Commerce will comply in the classroom, and in online courses, with all federal and state laws prohibiting discrimination and related retaliation on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, genetic information or veteran status. Further, an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression will be maintained.

Campus Concealed Carry Statement

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in Texas A&M University-Commerce buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and A&M-Commerce Rule 34.06.02.R1, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations.

For a list of locations, please refer to the Carrying Concealed Handguns On Campus document and/or consult your event organizer.

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all A&M-Commerce campuses. Report violations to the University Police Department at 903-886-5868 or 9-1-1.

A&M-Commerce Supports Students' Mental Health

The Counseling Center at A&M-Commerce, located in the Halladay Building, Room 203, offers counseling services, educational programming, and connection to community resources for students. Students have 24/7 access to the Counseling Center's crisis assessment services by calling 903-886-5145. For more information regarding Counseling Center events and confidential services, please visit www.tamuc.edu/counsel

Mental Health and Well-Being

The university aims to provide students with essential knowledge and tools to understand and support mental health. As part of our commitment to your well-being, we offer access to Telus Health, a service available 24/7/365 via chat, phone, or webinar. Scan the QR code to download the app and explore the resources available to you for guidance and support whenever you need it.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Use Policy (Draft 2, May 25, 2023)

Texas A&M University-Commerce acknowledges that there are legitimate uses of Artificial Intelligence, ChatBots, or other software that has the capacity to generate text, or suggest replacements for text beyond individual words, as determined by the instructor of the course.

Any use of such software must be documented. Any undocumented use of such software constitutes an instance of academic dishonesty (plagiarism).

The syllabus/schedule are subject to change.

Individual instructors may disallow entirely the use of such software for individual assignments or for the entire course. Students should be aware of such requirements and follow their instructors' guidelines. If no instructions are provided the student should assume that the use of such software is disallowed.

In any case, students are fully responsible for the content of any assignment they submit, regardless of whether they used an AI, in any way. This specifically includes cases in which the AI plagiarized another text or misrepresented sources.
