Course Description

This elective course provides students with a general overview of the theories, assessments, and interventions involved with helping families. Information includes working with diverse family structures and with families facing divorce, death, domestic violence, and other social problems.

PROGRAM GOALS:

1. Prepare students for competent and effective generalist social work practice with diverse client systems.
2. Provide students with a foundation of knowledge for professional development, graduate education and lifelong learning
3. Develop student capability to improve human service delivery systems and promote social justice
4. Socialize student to the profession of social work

Student Learning Outcomes

Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) requires a competency-based approach to identify and assess what students demonstrate in practice. In social work, this approach involves assessing students' ability to demonstrate the competencies identified in the educational policy. Listed below are the competencies and associated knowledge, skills, values and/or cognitive and affective processes that comprise the expected outcomes for this course.

Competency 1: Students will demonstrate ethical and professional behavior.

- Students will make ethical decisions by applying the standards of the NASW Code of Ethics, relevant laws and regulations, models for ethical decision-making, ethical conduct of research, and additional codes of ethics as appropriate to context; as evidenced by successful completion of the written assignment in the course (Knowledge, Values)

- Students will use reflection and self-regulation to manage personal values and maintain professionalism in practice situations; as demonstrated by the successful completion of Topic Check-In's (Knowledge, Values)

Competency 2: Students will engage in diversity and difference in practice.

- Students will apply and communicate understanding of the importance of diversity and difference in shaping life experiences in practice at the micro, mezzo, and macro levels; as demonstrated through the successful completion of exams and quizzes within the course (Knowledge, Skills).
- Students will apply self-awareness and self-regulation to manage the influence of personal biases and values in working with diverse clients and constituencies as evidence by the successful completion of Topic Check-In's and written papers (Values, Knowledge, Skills, Cognitive and Affective Processes).

Competency 7: Students will Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities.

- Students will apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the analysis of assessment data from clients and constituencies as demonstrated by the successful completion of Written Papers (Knowledge, Skills) and Topic Check-Ins (Knowledge, Skills).
- Students will develop mutually agreed-on intervention goals and objectives based on the critical assessment of strengths, needs, and challenges within clients and constituencies as demonstrated by successful completion of written papers (Knowledge, Skills) and examinations (Knowledge, Skills).
- Students will select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of clients and constituencies as evidenced by successful completion of the written papers (Knowledge, Skills) and examinations (Knowledge).

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Minimal Technical Skills Needed

In this class you will utilize the Learning Management Systems (LMS) D2L for instructional and learning opportunities, submitting your assignments, participating in online synchronous and asynchronous discussions, accessing resources, and completing quizzes/tests. Additionally, knowledge and skills in using Microsoft Word PowerPoint and Outlook Email, If you have any issues with using the various systems or software, it is your responsibility to contact support services and to notify the instructor of the problem.

Instructional Methods

This course will be delivered via synchronous and asynchronous sessions via D2L and will consist of live class sessions, pre-recorded lectures, group engagement activities, various assignments with some including experiential learning and practical application of the content areas. In addition, small lectures, discussion activities and workshops may be utilized to provide instruction during this course.

Student Responsibilities or Tips for Success in the Course

As a student in this course, you are responsible to engage in active learning and reaching out to the instructor if there are problems or challenges that is interfering in optimal learning. Communication is key when engaged in a fully online, virtual environment.

Expectations for success include:

1. Always demonstrate professional behavior, including demonstrating respect for instructor and peers; being open to feedback and guidance throughout this class and in the program.
2. Adhered to the School of Social Work and University student code of conduct, along with NASW Code of Ethics.
3. Begin reading the assigned text and supplemental readings as soon as possible, with a focus on completing all readings prior to engagement with instructor or peers.
4. Prepare to engage in live class sessions, discussions, and other activities so you can be a contributor as well as receiver of knowledge and skills.

5. Actively participate in engagement activities which will include live virtual class sessions, online discussions, and interactive learning opportunities -as this is vital for learning and success in both this course and the program.
6. Work ahead when possible, completing assignments ahead of due date so you are prepared to submit on the due date.
7. Sign into the D2L course multiple times during the week to access updated announcements or posted resources.
8. Check your university email daily. This is the official method of communication by the university, department, and instructor.
9. Be open and focused on the “process” and not the “product” as earning this degree requires time, effort, work and ultimately growth in knowledge, skills, abilities along with personal and professional attributes.

GRADING

Final grades in this course will be based on the following scale:

A = 90%-100% of total points

B = 80%-89%

C = 70%-79%

D = 60%-69%

F = 59% or Below

Assessments

DUE DATES:

All Assignments are due in D2L by the due date. I will not be able to accept late work.

As social work students, you will have many deadlines in practice that you will be expected to meet. Many times not meeting deadlines can result in having an adverse effect on your clients' lives. It can also result in termination in employment. The School of Social Work feels it is good to help you get into the habit of meeting those expectations now vs. later. Our goal for each of you is to be successful not only in this course, but also in the practice setting.

Thank you for understanding and your willingness to take the first step toward your own success.

There will be NO MAKE-UP exams offered. You will need to take the exam by the due date in D2L.

ASSIGNMENT:

1. Exams/ Quizzes – (3 @ 10 points each) There are three quizzes throughout the course; each one is worth 10 points (20 questions worth ½ point each). Quizzes are open in the course and must be completed by 11:30 p.m. on the Sunday in the week they are listed. There are no allowances for opening a quiz after it has closed (in order to be completed late). Each quiz is on specific chapters and there are no overlaps. All quizzes are open book, and have extended times. Meaning, I feel that you can learn as much by going back through the material and locating it again, versus memorizing some concept. I still advise you to have notes or to have read the material to reduce flipping through pages to find the answers.
2. Papers – APPENDIX A & B (2 @ 40 points each) There will have two written assignments throughout the course on an assigned topic. Each paper is worth 20 points. All assignments are to be APA format with Times New Roman, 12 point font, and double-spaced. They are submitted via the corresponding file in the course for the week they are due. Do not submit them as an email. They must be a document with your last name as part of the file name and they must be a Word document (.doc or .docx extensions). A grading rubric is supplied for each paper so you know exactly what you are being graded on. Note: Points will be deducted for errors in spelling, grammar, and sentence structure. You must copy and paste the rubric to each of your papers.
3. Group – Prior to Week 4 you will be assigned to a group and given specific instructions for the group activity your group is to complete. This assignment will be given to you (and your group members) in Week 4 and must be completed by the end of Week 12. Since the course is open, you may work ahead. It is worth 20 points.
4. Topic Check-in – (3 @ 20 points each) There are three Topic Check-Ins throughout the course. They require that you log in for that week and watch the video. For credit for this, you must complete the assignment by uploading your two-paragraph paper (totaling a page) after viewing the video and posting a one paragraph summary of what the video was about, and a one paragraph summary of your thoughts on what you saw. Please use APA formatting with a cover page, and Times New Roman 12 pt. fonts, double-spaced. Be sure you upload by Sunday at 11:30 pm of the week assigned.

5. Discussion – There are 3 discussion assignments throughout this course. They are worth 10 points each. To receive the points on each discussion assignment you must do all of the following: ( note: if you do not submit both your initial post and your two responses to peers by the deadline, you will automatically receive a zero for the discussion assignment)
 - a. You must respond to the discussion prompt of the instructor by Wednesday at 11:30 pm and then respond to TWO of your peers between Thursday after 12:01am and Sunday at 11:30 pm.
 - b. Your initial post must be a true discussion of your understanding of the topic assignment and must be between 10- 15 sentences.
 - c. The comments to your TWO peers must be a minimum of five sentences and must add to the discussion. Though you are free to say things like “Interesting thought” or “Nice discussion,” these comments and those similar are not counted as part of the five sentences.
 - d. Proper grammar is expected. I highly recommend typing your thoughts and comments in a file on a word processing program and check for spelling and grammatical errors. Professionalism and professional presentation is an expectation and not an option. Points will be taken off for sloppy spelling and writing.
6. We will meet on zoom weekly on Thursday evenings at 7:30pm. This is an optional zoom for students.

School of Social Work and Council on Social Work Education Specific Policies

Course Engagement

Final Evaluation and Grade Depends on both Classroom attendance and Participation

Inadequate participation or lack of required time commitment in each class significantly affects students' grades. No matter the course venue, students must engage in a comparable amount of time. Expectations of both Face-to-Face classes and those with Online components include time spent reading and studying course material. To earn a level of competency within a specific course, students must demonstrate both mastery of content and active engagement.

Mastery of content areas is evidenced by successful completion of course assignments such as written papers, group project deliverables, tests/quizzes and other tangible products designed by instructors to evaluate knowledge and skills.

Additionally, the Social Work Profession is built upon human interactions and building human relationships – which is defined as engagement. Engagement is defined as meaningful involvement in interactions with instructor, peers, outside stakeholders as appropriate (such as contacting a social worker to interview for a required assignment). Within the classroom setting, whether virtual or F2F, students must actively participate in 80% of engagement activities as outlined by individual instructors. These activities may include, but are not limited to participation in live, synchronous virtual classes, attending a Face-to-Face course when appropriate, interacting with peers in posted discussions and collaborating in group interactive projects.

Students must meet standards for content mastery on tangible assignments and meet the threshold of active engagement of the time set during a semester by the instructor.

Instructors are experts in each course content area and set the standards for students to meet for successful completion of the course.

Student Conduct

Students preparing to become professional social workers must adhere to the University Code of Conduct, Department Code of Conduct and National Association of Social Workers' (NASW) Code of Ethics.

Department Code of Conduct

"Faculty have the authority to request students who exhibit inappropriate behavior to leave the class/lab/internship practicum or to block access to online courses and may refer offenses to the [Academic and Professional Issues Committee (API)] or to the Department Head. More serious offences by be referred to the University Police Department and/or the Judicial Affairs Office for disciplinary action" (Student Guidebook p 35)

Social Work students conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner. Closely linked with professional recognition is the social worker's compliance with the profession's ethical standards. It is imperative for professional social workers to be competent and ethical in practice if the profession is to maintain the public trust. It is essential that each social work student gain a thorough understanding of the ethical principles that guide practice and actively demonstrate in behavior, both in and out of the classroom. Student conduct is to reflect the tenets of NASW Code of Ethics (located at <https://www.socialworkers.org/pubs/code/code.asp>) on the NASW website: <https://www.socialworkers.org>

University Code of Conduct located in the Student Guidebook at <http://www.tamuc.edu/campuslife/documents/studentGuidebook.pdf> (pp 34- 66). On the University Website under Campus Life Documents

To become aware of university policies related to student academic and behavioral expectations for students refer to the Guidebook
